CAROLINE LAROSE.

It was Miss Durand's intention to present to Caroline a book containing a record of the names of all the contributors to the fund, but this, with a trunk containing many things for Caroline, failed to arrive in time. Miss Annie Ross and Miss Edith E. Wilse rendered in a pleasing way a piano duet, and the orchestra, which had rendered several fine selections during the evening, brought this memorable gathering to a close by playing the national anthem.

These parties who shoot these domestic birds which as well rob a farmer's nest, will be followed by a criminal suit.

Mr. E. Kbant, the Caintown householder, has his house furnished and will immediately go to housekeeping.

Mr. Samuel Higginson, who went to Manitoba last summer, has just returned home. Mr. H. reports the weather in said country to be very cold. The ground is covered with snow, he says, to the depth of eighteen inches.

There was a wedding in high life last week near the Purvis neighborhood. Mr. Thomas Dickey of Caintown has one of the finest birds of turkeys in the township.

We have just been telegraphed from Fly Creek that a wedding of no small order will be consummated before Christmas in said locality.

If the popularity of an Institution is measured by the success which attends it, it is not difficult to see why the Brockville Business College is looked upon with favor by the public.
