In the Farmers' Green Race at Brockville Fair, "Little Rex" owned by W. Percival, Plum Hollow, and "Primrose," owned by S. Hollingsworth, were entered.

Mrs. Albert Dillabough and daughter, Mrs. Dockstader of Winchester, spent the week end in Athens, guests of the former's son, Mr. James Dillabough.

Brockville Fair was favored, for the first time in its history, with fine weather on all four days, and the result was a record attendance. The fair met all expectations, and its future as one of the great annual events in Eastern Ontario is assured.

The Canada temperance act campaign in the city of Niagara Falls and the county of Welland has become an active one, the temperance people in both having deposited their petitions with the sheriff, which will be sent to the government.

A very large congregation heard with interest the closing discourse of Rev. J. W. Montgomery in St. Paul's Presbyterian church. He was assisted in the service by Rev. Wm. Westell and by Rev. B. B. Brown. Mr. Montgomery leaves this week for his new field of labor at La Prairie, Que.

The death occurred at Philipsville on August 21, of Justus Haskin, an elderly resident of the community, and a member of one of the families long established in that vicinity. He ceased to breathe at Philipsville seventy-seven years ago, the son of Uri Haskin, a pioneer of the township of Bastard, and his wife Lydia Lorimer.

To estimate the weight of a stack of hay, says an exchange, take the height in feet to the eaves, and add half the height from the eaves to the crown. Multiply the result by the length in feet, then multiply the width in feet and divide by 27, which gives the contents in cubic yards. New hay will average about 180 pounds to the cubic yard and from 160 to 190 pounds of old hay will be contained in the same cubic area.

On Tuesday evening the Ancient and more or less Honorable Society of Hazers conferred the High School Initiatory Degree on about a score of candidates. The ceremony was performed in the vicinity of Tollus Gatus Avenue and with a well trained degree team every feature was a success. At the close of the ceremony, the initiates, artistically decorated, were taken to Miss Addison's restaurant and regaled with ice-cream.

The French language has finally found its way to Canadian postal cards. Up to the present time the only printed matter on post cards has been in the English language. A new issue of post cards has just been made under direction of Postmaster-General Pelletier, and on them the directions are in both the English and French languages. The new card contains the words "postal card" and "carte postale." This side reserved for the address, is duplicated by the French inscription, "Ceci est reserve pour l'adresse." Here after only bilingual post cards will be available for Canadians. There has been no changes in the stamps as yet.

HIGH SCHOOL OPENING

The Athens High School opened on Tuesday with the following staff:— J. H. Sexton—Principal. S. A. Hiteaman—Mathematics. Miss M. Mackay—English. Miss Pearl E. Payne—Classics. Miss L. E. Ney—Lower school subjects.

There is a record attendance of 60 students in Form I.

The reconstructed main building is completed and the new class-rooms will be ready for occupying in about two weeks. In the meantime, a classroom has been secured in the vestry of the Methodist church.

Methodist Choir at Charleston

The Methodist choir, in response to an invitation from Mr and Mrs W. H. Jacob to spend a day with them at Charleston Lake, journeyed thither on Aug. 21st and spent one of the most enjoyable outings they ever had. The happy smiles and greetings of Mr and Mrs Jacob gave everyone a feeling of heartiest welcome. The choir was driven to Charleston in loads; filled with mirth and happiness, singing songs and with a feeling of expectation of what was coming next. They were met there by Mr Jacob and his motor boat, which made six trips to carry the choir and their friends to the scene of perfect enjoyment.

After dinner, which was done full justice to, especially the very toothsome fish which the host and hostess had supplied, the boys and girls helped wash the dishes, the boys doing their share of the work like old hands. After the work was done, boating, fishing, out-door games and music were thoroughly enjoyed until seven, when they were called in to regale themselves with the many good things, and over forty hungry girls and boys sat down to supper.

When supper was over, Mrs Derbyshire moved a vote of thanks to Mr and Mrs Jacob for their great kindness and hospitality and the grand time they had prepared for everyone. The motion was seconded and carried unanimously by singing "They are Jolly Good Fellows." Mr Jacob replied on behalf of Mrs Jacob and himself, according to them a most hearty welcome, and making a request that the choir make it an annual outing. Mrs Derbyshire thanked Mr Jacob for the kind invitation and said that the first picnic with them at their summer home had been such a success, and so much good will and peace had reigned throughout, that it would be glorious to live in anticipation of spending another day with them in each of the years to come.

Rev. S. J. Hughes, a former pastor, spoke a few words, saying how pleased he was to meet once more with the Athens Methodist choir, of whom he had many pleasant memories.

OBITUARY

MRS. MINERVA HAUSE

At the residence of her adopted son Mr Wm. Hause, Plum Hollow, on Thursday, Aug. 28, Mrs. Minerva Hause, relict of the late John Hause, departed this life aged 83 years.

Mrs. Hause, in spite of her advanced years, had been in good physical health until a few weeks ago, when it was plainly noticed by those in attendance that she was rapidly failing, so that the visit of the grim reaper was not altogether unexpected.

Since the death of her husband, some 25 years ago, Mrs. Hause had resided in Athens continuously until a few years ago, when on account of her age and consequent failing memory she decided to return to the home of her son, where every consideration and attention was given her during her declining years.

While in Athens, she made many warm friends by her kindly disposition and generous spirit, always ready and willing to take a hand in anything that would tend toward the general uplift of the people around her, and the cause of God.

She was a constituent member of the Plum Hollow church, which was organized in 1841, and those who communed with her readily testify to her generous givings and true devotion. Her own children being taken from her (by diphtheria, when young), she had adopted three other children (at that time needing a mother's care), all of whom, under her christian guidance, became worthy citizens, two of whom survive, while one has for some time, been waiting to meet her on the strand.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was conducted in the Baptist church, Plum Hollow, on Friday by the pastor, Rev. Wm. Westell, interment taking place at Sheldon's Corner's cemetery.

Some Pertinent Remarks

A big voice often is mistaken for a gift of oratory.

Carrying weight for age is what makes life a burden.

Even X-ray gowns don't disclose a woman's hidden intentions.

The coin of vantage is alright if you can convert it into cash.

Many a man saddles himself with a wife and then hopes the girth will break.—Detroit Journal.
