Archibald Wemp received word to-day that the remains of John E. Brown will not reach this city from Winnipeg until to-morrow morning.

An examination for discovery was held to-day in the case of McCallum vs. Bourne. J. S. Fraser for plaintiff and A. B. Carscallen for the defendant.

Butter Nut Bread—the Bread of quality; ask your grocer for it; stop one of our wagons, or phone us, No. 188, and we will be pleased to send you a sample. Try it; you be the judge.

The Rankin House—baseball team wishes to challenge a baseball team composed from the staff of any other hotel in the city. The Rankin House team believe that they can play and defeat any other baseball team in the city, and they state that they are ready to meet all comers.

The Tecumseh lacrosse team have received an invitation to play with Chicago some time in August, and are trying to arrange to play in that city on July 4th or about that time. They hope to go on to St. Paul, Minneapolis and St. Louis afterward. It is likely that if a game is arranged for, there will be a special car filled with enthusiasts to accompany the boys.

John Glasford, district manager for the old reliable firm of Heintzman & Co., Toronto, makers of high class pianos, who have recently opened an agency in the Garner House block, to-day delivered a handsome Grand piano at the residence of Mrs. Manson Campbell. The instrument is a very handsome one, and is encased in mahogany. This is the fourth piano of this kind that Mr. Glasford has recently placed in this city.

The Sovereign Bank of Canada has opened a safety vault department in connection with the local branch which will prove of great convenience to those desiring to deposit their papers or jewelry in a place for safe keeping. These compartments have duplicate keys that cannot be opened except by the manager of the bank and the customer jointly, and the boxes can be rented at from one to three dollars per annum. It is not necessary for the renters of these boxes to be customers of the bank.

An Engagement Ring!

From E. J. MacIntyre's store has a double value, as its exquisite design and elegant workmanship, with the delicacy and daintiness of its settings, enhance its worth aside from its being a love token. It is this high degree of excellence possessed by all jewelry from my establishment, which makes my articles, either for personal adornment or practical utility, of solid, genuine worth.

CHATHAM KITCHEN CABINET

The Manson Campbell Company, of this city, has just placed on the market the Chatham Kitchen Cabinet, which is intended to save hours of time to the busy housekeeper, and which can be paid for in a short time at a comparatively small cost. Five cents a day for about a year will pay for one of these useful and ornamental kitchen companions. They will be seen on exhibition at the Fair of all Nations, and orders placed with the ladies in charge will be promptly filled.
