Mr. Nickerson on Provincial Prohibition.

In the house of assembly on Friday M. H. Nickerson, M. P. P. for Shelburne, spoke upon the prohibition legislation before the house...

Mr. Nickerson said that he had grave doubts that the people of Nova Scotia were the soberest people on earth as had been stated during the course of the debate.

Mr. Nickerson said that the legislation of two years ago designed to prevent the importation of liquor into Scott Act and no-license counties had proved useless.

He declared that he could see no reason why the alliance program be at provincial prohibition supplemented by government enforcement and federal prohibition of the importation of liquor into the province not be carried out.

He thought that it was better to be enforced than to be discussed the constitutionality of the laws asked for at this stage.

He thought that no law could be enforced that had not the will of the people behind it was a fallacy.

He thought that the liquor dealers were very anxious about this measure convinced him that it was a good thing.

Baby Fell on to the Stove.

Mrs. F. S. Douglas, of 523, Flora Avenue, Westport, says:—My baby girl was arranging some of her doll's washing on a clothes-rack beside the stove, when she fell, and her hand, being thrown out to try and save herself, came in contact with the side of the hot stove.

I sent out to the druggist for the best remedy he had to use on a burn. He said there was nothing to equal Zam-Buk, and sent back a supply.

God's Best.

God has the best things for the few, Who's sure to stand the test; God has His second choice for those Who will not have His best.

Give me, O Lord, the best things, Let others take the rest; I do not want their good things, For I have got the best.

It is not always open ill That risks the promised rest; The better often is the few That keeps us from the best.

There's scarcely one but eagerly wants In some way to be blest; 'Tis not Thy blessing, Lord, I seek, I want Thy very best.

And others choose the best things, But when by trial pressed, They shrink, they yield, they shun the cross.

And so they lose the best, I want in this short life of mine As much as can be pressed Of service true, to God and man, Help me to be my best.

I want among the victor throng To have my name confessed, And hear the Master say at last, 'Well done you did my best.'

Could that be right, or distressing tidings come, get quick and certain help from Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy.

On this account druggists everywhere are favoring Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. The tender leaves of a harmless long healing mountain shrub give to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy its curative properties.

Those leaves have the power to calm the most distressing cough, and to soothe, and heal the most sensitive bronchial membrane.

I heard that Rafter broke down in the middle of his speech the other night, said the man who was kept at home by illness. 'Not exactly,' replied the man who was there. 'The meeting broke up right in the middle of his speech!'

Rheumatic poisons are quickly and surely driven out of the blood with Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy—liquid or tablet form.

What Waits the True? What gerdon waits the brave and true Who face the foe, Who ever seek the right to do, The truth to know?

Who dare for their dear native land, And for her right, For truth and liberty to stand, For God to fight.

Who strive their fellowmen to save From evil's reign, This waits for them—no service brave Can be in vain.

The things of earth will pass away And wrong shall fall, Truth is of God, and cannot die, But must prevail.

The Anti-Cigarette Law. At the last session of the Dominion Parliament, a law was passed prohibiting under somewhat severe penalties, the selling of cigarettes or cigarette paper to persons under sixteen years of age.

At a recent meeting of the Montreal City Council, Alderman Couture, as reported by a daily paper of the city, said that it was not a matter of sentiment, but of terrible fact that a great evil was being done in the rising generation through the cigarette.

He repeatedly noticed that the first act of boys of eight, ten and twelve years, after leaving church on Sundays, was to take a cigarette from their pockets and begin to smoke.

He suggested that the newspapers might do a great deal to help on a right movement if they published the outlines of the law which he proceeded to read to the effect that people who sold cigarettes or cigarette papers to children under sixteen years of age, were subject to prosecution and liable to a fine of $50 on the first conviction, $75 on the second and $100 on the third conviction; dealers were also liable if they sold tobacco to children if there was reason to believe it was for their own consumption.

Alderman Proulx, in reply, said that the police had not, up to the present, taken action directly or indirectly under the law quoted by Alderman Couture, which he said, was ignored by many merchants in the city.

Wasted Dollars. Cigarette smoking appears to be assuming enormous proportions and the manufacturers now propose to raise the price. It will not be more than a cent or two a package, but small as this increase may appear, it will mean millions of dollars to the consumers.

According to the official Government figures 55,000,330,173 cigarettes were manufactured in the United States last year.

In round numbers this means 5,000,000,000 packages ten cigarettes to the package. An increase of one cent a package for those consumed in this country, as well as those exported, would mean an additional tax of $55,000,000 on the cigarette smoker.

This means that all this vast sum will annually be added to the amount that now goes up in smoke. Money spent in this way is worse than wasted, for cigarette smoking is injurious to all, physically, mentally and morally.

If the money spent on these accursed weeds were devoted to the spreading of the Gospel how quickly the world could be evangelized.

A Good Law. Germany has a way of its own in dealing with the class known as 'wasters.' The German law provides that if it can be proved that a man is earning sufficient wage to support those dependent on him, but that he is dissipating that wage by vicious habits, he can be declared a minor and treated as a child. His employer is told that the wage must be paid, not to the man, but to a guardian appointed by the magistrate of the district in which he lives, who uses it for the support of the wife and children.

In most other countries a man might squander his money in the most extravagant manner in Germany the police would

Bronchitis More Than a Cold

Often develops rapidly into pneumonia—cure is found in Dr. Chase's Syrup of Lined and Turpentine.

Any cold is serious enough when its development is prompt in its onset, but when there is soreness of throat, in the chest and a dry hard cough you can look for bronchitis, which is often confused with an ordinary cold.

It is usually known by aching limbs and body pains, chilly feelings, weakness and nervousness, pain in the chest and a tight, tearing cough. Fever, dry skin, throat, swollen tongue and constipation are other symptoms.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Lined and Turpentine seems almost like a specific for bronchitis because it is so successful in loosening up the cough, aiding expectoration and preventing the inflammation from reaching the lungs.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Lined and Turpentine is so thorough and far-reaching in its action that it succeeds where ordinary cough medicines have failed. 25 cts. a bottle, at all dealers, or Edwards, Bates & Co., Toronto.
