THE QUEBEC FIRE LOAN.—The Oppressors have not been able to decide with great consistency upon the correct view to be taken of the action of the Government in the matter. First of all, they were sure the Government were going to remit the loan. Then they found out that time

Then they found this was not the case when they learned that the loan was collected, but that the Government was to act like other business men, and in a very troublesome outstanding case were ready to remit a small part in order to close up the whole without dispute, and turned to the charge of bribery. But view of the case taken by the Quebec circle is that "the debtors of the Fire Loan have nothing for which to thank Mr. Audebert in the recent arrangement for settlement of this long standing account." The rest of the article is devoted to proving instead of being bribed, the debtors

THIS new Medicine possesses a superiority over all other Medicines of the kind for expelling Worms from the human system.

being of purely Vegetable origin, and consequently producing no deleterious effect on the constitution. It is mild in its action and perfectly safe and sure. It does not create any nausea or sickening sensation when introduced into the stomach; and it has a deadly effect on all Worms that inhabit the late-linal canal—such as the Tape Worm, Thread Worm, long round Worm; and the short Milk Worm, &c. There are ten doses in each package; and the same dose that you give a child will answer for an adult, as it is a Medicine that only acts upon the Worms.
