WEEKLY JOURNAL. A

1888

Our Country with its United Interests.

Newcastle, N. B., Wednesday, February 15, 1888-

he asked.

"What are you doing here, anyhow ?" boratory and a kitchen.' Walter Scott will own Legislatures ; and a traffic brazed him for the last time. They had the credit of having the thickest which destroys homes, degrades manhood, crushed the life out of him, and the hor-"I slipped in Blue Rock last night," skull in the school, though Dr. Blair multiplies criminals, crowds our jails and ror-stricken audience heard bone after was the answer, "and some of your peo- told the teacher that many bright rays of almshouses, is on the road to such a posibone crack, as those powerful folds tightple chased me out. "My horse was shot future genius shone through the same tion of unrestricted power, that already, ened upon him. Man's plaything had become his master. His slave for twenthick skull. in great cities, we see it attempting to and I had to take to the woods. I climb-

-

vocate.

dictate the policy of parties, and to Milton and Swift were justly celebrated for stupidity in childhood. The great name our judges, sheriffs, district attor Isaac Barrow's father used to say that, if neys, and all others who make or admin- the whole story of intemperance. The Dickson, I don't much want to take you it pleased God to take from him any of ister the laws. Blue Rock was the point of no strategic prisoner, and I don't want to shoot you. his children, he hoped it might be Isaac, To undertake to estimate the effects. The disagreeable taste and smell of the Oil importance to either the Federals or the On the other hand, I'll admit that I have as the least promising. Calvins, the moral, social and political, of such a conno fancy for being shot myself. But I'm greatest mathematician of his age, was so dition of things, is a task larger than your One fine morning in the early spring not going to throw down my pistol. I stupid in his boyhood that his teachers limits permit me to. But the widespread John Dickson started out from the little will get up and go to town and when could make nothing of him till they apathy in regard to the whole matter handet to visit his farm, only a mile or your crowd comes, if it comes at all, you tried him in geometry. Corraci, the may well fill us with alarm. Not until years, but it is continually growing. two distant. Dickson was a young man, but a curonic lameness had secured his exemption from military service, and as There was a pause for a moment, and tion in this traffic can be tolerated in any colors.

public office (however innocent individ-'One of the most popular authoresses of the present day,' says an English uals may be of any corrupt fellowship Still, he was a strong confederate, and of you. But you may expect to see me writer, 'could not read when she was with those who make their laws as to li-seven. Her mother was rather uncomcan we hope that our common peril may fortable about it, but said, as everybody be averted. We are told that the coun her child would do so at last. By eigh- try wants in politics a new and living is sue. Well, here it is ; vital, urgent, and, And he rose to his feet, and walked off teen the apparently slow genius paid the vears old ; and even at a later age, Dr. Adam Clark, after incredible effort, failed to commit to memory a poem of a few

there were crowded congregations, and this country, was during a whole winter, busy to come home to dinner, I have brought you yours.' She then departed. THE BREWERIES AND THE LAB- With a forced laugh he invited the friend to dine with him, but on removing the cover from the dish found only a slip of Speaking of Temperance Sunday in paper, on which was written : 'I hope

THE FIRST GLASS.

There may be those, said John B.

broad re eon's preand as the published vithdrawal ngland, I readers of as not (as mination. ide differn of Engnation in composed England, een many of miniss and un. ave joined s not of a ving any ssors and es,' thereming eye, he alarm. ver to dise 'unjust for Spurer his conch he did oser Baputcome of will cause t does not ogether, it that there istent and principles rs, having ed out .will then

Vol. XX1.-No. 18. STOCKTAKING REMNANTS.

W. C. ANSLOW

Cheap sale of Remnants of Dress Goods. Prints, Cloths, Tweeds, Winceys, Linings, Check Muslins, Cashmeres, Flannels, Carpets, Towellings.

ALSO

Odd Lots of Hosiery, Gloves, Wool Goods. Job Lot of Children's Plush Hats and Caps, 15 cents each. Call and get some Bargains for Cash. 1 10 B. FAIREY

Newcastle, Jan. 21, 1888.

CLAIMS collected in all parts of the Office:-NEWCASTLE,N. B.

Law and Collection Office CANADA HOUSE. Chatham, New Brunswick, TAL ADAMS, Wm. JOHNSTON, Proprietor Barrister & Attorney at Law, outlay has been made on the Considerable outlay has been made on the bouse to make it a first class Hotel and travellers still find it a desirable temporary residence both as regards location and comfort. It is sit uated within two minutes walk of Steamboat landing and Telegraph and Post Offices. The proprietor reforms thanks to the Public for the encouragement given hin in the past, and will endeavor by courtesy and attention to wrent the same in the friture. Boots and Shoes in such a va-Solicitor in Bankruptcy, Convey-ancer, Nota-y Public, etc. Real Estate & Fire Insurance Agent.

Newcastle.

riety as to leave

Feb 1st, 1888.

'87

Ready made Clothing suitable GOOD SAMPLE ROOMS

The right wing of Sherman's army was ed up here to be safe until our cavalry Estey's Cod Liver til Crcam. only a few miles from Blue Rock, a mouncame along." Thousands can testify to the wonderful eftain village in Georgia. "I'll tell you what I'll do," broke in fects of this preparation in Cinghs, Colds, Bronchitis, Consumption: Whooping Cough, Impaired Nutrition and Wastiny Discase. The simple villagers felt little alarm. The disagreeable tasts and smell of the Oil Importance to is completely disguised and rendered so palat-able that we have yet to learn of one case where the stomach refused to retain it. Warranted to contain 50 per cent, of finest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil. Physicians endorse it, and prescribe it daily in their practice-having discarded all handlet to visit

THE CAPTAIN'S WIFE.

HOW IS YOUR COUGH ? Selected Eiterature.

RSE!

THEN LET US RECOMMEND A BOTTLE OF

Sold in Newcastle by E, LEE STREET,

I HE FAL

OPENING.

The necessities

Woman and Boy supplied.

'87

Ack your Druggist for ESTEY'S COD LIVER OIL CREAM. Price 50c; 6 bottles $2.50. Prepared only by E. M. ESTEY, Manufactur-ing Pharmacist, Moneton, N. B. he had a wife and two children entirely then the soldier in the tree spoke. dependent upon him, he regarded his dis-

"All right, I'll trust you," he said. ability as a blessing. "Go ahead and I'll take no advantage on this particular morning, while he was in Blue Rock before night." limping slowly along the rough country "We'll take care of Blue Rock," deroad, he paused more than once to listen finally responded Dickson. "Well, I'm did learn with opportunity, she supposed with a frowning face to the sullen boom off. Good-bye !"

of Sherman's guns, several miles away. "I am not able to do much fighting," as brickly as he could. He scorned to heavy but inevitable debts of her father of a consequence, second to none which, he muttered, "but if they come to Blue look back. If the federal was mean from the profits of her first work, and in the history of the land, has stirred 'Presuming, husband, that you are too Rock and cut up any Pil kill some of enough to break his word and fire, it was before thirty had published thirty vol- men's deepest convictions. all right. But his heart bumped against umes.' Dr. Scott, the commentator, them if I have to die for it !" He meant what he said. This quiet his ribs until he had placed 100 yards could not compose a theme when twelve young farmer had plenty of grit when between him and the tree.

When the blue jackets swarmed into he was put to the test. The walk tired him, and he left the the village that afternoon the score or stanzas only. At nine years of age one The walk tired him, and he left the the village that afternoon the score or road and stretched himself in a grassy two of male inhabitants saw that resist-place under the shade of a sturdy old ance was useless against such a force. place under the shade of a sturdy old ance was useless against such a force.

He threw himself on his back and closed his eyes for a moment. Then he closed his eyes for a moment. Then he dom of God.'

OR QUESTION.

In this horrible incident is portrayed man who had taken the first glass of inty-five years had now enslaved him.

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

WHOLE NO. 1058

toxicating liquor has the bos of intemperance in his bosom. If he throttles the monster now, it is easily done. But if he permits it to live, feeds and nourishes it, he may control it for twenty-five And some day its soul-destroying folds will encircle his soul, and bear it to those regions of woe 'where the worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.' The unchangeable decree of almighty God is, 'No drunkards shall inherit the king-quor selling by buying the law-makers), THE DINNER SHE BROUGHT HIM,

A wife stepped into a bar-room where her husband was drinking with a friend.

Setting a covered dish which she had brought with her upon the table she said:

		TA THE CALL	closed his eyes for a moment. Then he	front of Dickson's door.		as effecting the great and pressing ques-	Gough, who will take a boy of eighteen
	For Convaercial Trave'lers and Stabling on the per isec.	III INE FALL	looked up into the green folinge above	"I am obliged to him," replied Dick-	CURIOSITIES OF MAGNETISM.	tion of the unemployed : Nearly all the	vears of age, pure and sweet and clean
ATTORNEY & BARRISTER			him.	son, "but I don't see why."		pronts, he said, derived from the liquor	and give him his first glass of wine.
AT LAW.		and Winter.	A queer expression flitted over his face,	The man went on duty, and the little	Most well informed people are doubt-	trainc went to capital, and scarcely any	but I would not do it for all the money
NOTARY PUBLIC,	HOTEL BRUNSWICK.	HATS AND CAPS NOW	but his gaze remained fixed upon one	family passed the night undisturbed	less aware that the globe on which they	to labor. For instance, in Edinburgh	that has been coined in buying and sell-
	TATER DICATION TATE	TNT OTTD	point.	and with the feeling that they were se-	live is a great ball of magnetism, but	there was a great gin distiflery with a	ing drink since alcohol was first discover-
CONVEYANCER, &c.	MANGTON FEW BRINSWICT	IN UUR	In a careless way he raised his hand to	curely protected.	comparatively few have an adequate idea	capital of a million and a half, and in	ed. I would rather give to that poor
Chatham, N. B.	MONCTON, NEW BRUNSWICK,	STOPE at	his face, and stroked his moustache. Then	"The captain requests you to come to	of the influence this property is continu-	with the service and a large iron factory	shrieking, blaspheming wretch the last indication for the first	ATO MOWERNY ORD DICOUR		the hand wondered down over his vest	his headquarters !"	ally exerting on all sides, that many com-	with the same amount of capital. In the	glass that nerved him in delirium tre-
Annual Old Dath Mantucal	CEO. D. FUCH,	DDICES	toying with each button. At last it slip-		mon but inexplicable phenomena can be	from factory at Snemeld the number of	mens to blow out his brains than I would
OFFICE Old Bank Montreal.	PROPRIETOR.	FRIUDD	ped downward to a hip pocket, and re-	nervous when it was delivered to him	traced directly to this source. Statistics	persons employed was 3,000, while at the	his first glass. Give him no first and so low as to be raised only with a Derrick.	appeared as quick as a flash of lightning,		go to show that in the matter of steel rails, as many as thirteen will become	gin distillery in Edinburgh, only 150	there will be no second.
J D. PHINNEY.	F. CLEMENTSON & CO.	A general line of FALL DRY	this time with a pistol aimed upward.	conceal her alarm.	rails, as many as thirteen will become	Mr. Bass appointed a commissioner to	SHE HAD TWO HUSBANDS.
Barrister & Attorney at Law.	r. olementoon & oo.	GOODS to arrive shortly.	"Now, you come down," said Dickson	CITED TO A CONTRACT OF A CONTRACT	make up a railway track running east and	stimute the succent of	The second provide the second
	OUR STOCK OF		grufily.	ger assured her "The cantain merely	wast before one of these on a north and	which the liquor trade efforded It	Canon Farrar used to tell of a woman in London who said she had two husbands
NOT ARY PUBLIC, &c.,	CROCKERY.	D. MORRISON,	"Ha ! ha !" laughed some one up in the	desires to see your husband a moment."	west before one of those on a north and	transpired that there were ampleved in	in one man. One of them was a kind,
RICHIBUCTO. N. B.		Newcastle.	tree. "You have found me, have you."	There was nothing to do but to go	is entirely due to the magnetism gener-	the trade in all about 400 000 persons	honest and respectable person, whom she
OFFICE-COURT HOUSE SQUARE.	CHINA,	Newcastle, Sept. 26, 1887.	The laugh surprised and irritated	Diskon quisted his wife and proceeded	ated by friction and the fact that the pol-	It might be supposed that this was a	loved, and that was the husband when
May 4, 1885.	and GLASS.		Dickson, His keen eyes had discovered	to the dwelling indicated to him as the	arity of the magnetic current is in the	large number, but if all the gin distiller	sober. The other was a brutal fellow
	LAMPS and LAMP GOODS,	PICOD Wants	a fellow with a blue unifom sitting on	captain's headquarters.	former instance resisted in the headlong	and brewers transferred their capital to	who was constantly ill-treating and abus-
F. L. PEDOLIN, M. D.,			one of the topmost limbs of the tree. It	"Glad to see you, Mr. Dickson," the	rush of the train, whereas in the latter	the cloth, house-furnishing, and other	ing her, and that was her husband when is now complete for the coming spring. We	and what you do eat distresses	had flashed into his head that it would	captain remarked with a peculiar smile.	case it is undisturbed. Another strange	legitimate trades, instead of employing	he was drunk. There is no doubt that
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON,	til ville		be an easy matter to capture him, and	"My wife wishes to thank you for your	effect of this peculiar and occult force is	400,000 people they would give work to	Iquor alters the whole character of a
	COUNTRY TRADERS	ESTEY'S yous, and at nights roll and	march him into Blue Rock. And now	courteous and sensible conduct yester-	that exerted on the watches of train men.	three millions. In other words the des-	man.
	visiting St. John to call and see our unusually varied stock, which we are offering at lowest	steep. This is all caused by	the rascal was laughing at him !	day."		truction of the liquor trade and the in-
OFFICE at house formerly occupied by M. O. Thompson,	possible prices.	our system being run down	"You'll grin on the wrong side of your			vestment of its capital in legitimate
Newcastle, June 11, 1837.	CRATES	and requiring something t)		"Your wife !" exclaimed the farmer.	however accurate it may be, will, if the	branches of industry would give work to	If the devil were to live on the earth suitable for country stores always in stock.	feel all right again. To se-		And then he saw what had escaped his notice, that there was a lady in the room.	speed be increased to, say, 50 miles an	every unemployed and starving man and	in the form of a man and to choose a
O. J. MacCULLY, M.A., M. D.,	F. CLE NTSON & Co.	IRON "u.e this you should take IRON	my prisoner?"	A very charming little lady, Dickson	hour, become useless until regulated	woman in England at the present time.	trade, what do you suppose he would
. Hemb. ROY. COL. SURG., LONDON,	DOCK STREET,			thought. She looked fresh and bright	The magnetism generated by the flight	-Alliance News.	choose? Would he be a schoolmaster?
SPECIALIST,	St. John N. B., April 87. lyr.	A ESTEY'S		in her simple travelling dress, and her	of a train may be said to be in propor-		No; he hates light and knowledge.
DISEASES OF EYE, EAR & THROAT,	ou com in m, april of. 191.	AND Iron and Quinine Tonic.	fact, I was under the impression that you	and her simple travening ures, and her	tion to the speed with which it is pro-		Would he be a blacksmith ? No ; he does
Office : Cor. Church and Main St., Moncton.	The second secon				penea, and the delicate parts of a watch,		not like hard work. What, then, would
	SKIN ER'	QUININE After using it for a short	how to dispose of you?	strangely familiar, and when the aston-	numbering all the way from four hundred	Sir George Trevelyan, M. P., in his	he do? Why, he would keep a saloon.
Moncton, Nov. 12, 86.		goint n L ame you will find	"(Confound you " mound the mound	ished Confederate gazed into her eyes he	to one thousand pieces, and peculiarly	speech at Carnarvon the other day, re-	That is just the trade for the devil for
	Carpet Warehouse.	QUININE Your appetite improv-	farmer. "If you don't come down at	recognized her		ferred to the question of liquor traffic.—	he could lead an idle life and do a deal of
TUNING and REPAIRING.	59 KING STREET.	QUININE ed your spirite become		"You were the soldier in the tree !" he	the hammering and polishing they have	He said that on his estate there had been	mischief.
		QUININE more cheerful, and you	The state of the s		received, and are not slow to feel the ef-	no public-house for thirty years, and the
J. O. Biedermann, PLANOFORTE and OR-	My Spring Stock is now complete in every		in the set of the strends and the store the		fect.	consequence was there had grown up a	Correspondence.
GAN TUNER,	Department, and customers can rely on getting the best assortment ever offered in this market.		soldier, "you don't understand the situ-			race of people who are as different as pos-
Repairing a Specialty.	125 Designs BRUSSELS; 100 TAPESTRY;	TONIC. ery fibre and tissue of		wife with a laugh.	STRONG BUT HONEST LAN-	sible from those who live where drink is	SPURGEON MISUNDERSTOOD.
Regular visits made to the Northern Counties, of which due notice will be given.	100 " TAPESTRY; 50 " WOOL CAPPER.	TONIC. your body is being brac-		"You see," exclaimed the captain,	GUAGE.	sold. There is no pauperism, and ab- solutely there is no discontent with the	I THE REAL PROPERTY AND A REAL PROPERTY.
Orders for tuning, etc., can be sent to the Advocate Office, Newcastle.	50 "WOOL CARPET; 25 "LINOLEUM.	TONIC. ed and renovated.		"my wife would come down to see me	A sublicited dramatic in sec.	solutely there is no discontent with the	Mr. Editor.
Advocate Office, Newcastle. J. O. BIEDERMANN.	CUBTAINS AND POLES IN ENDLESS VARIETS	SAMEANS TRUNKING THAT HOUL BIARD	good look, but don't move."	in camp, and she would wear a soldier's uniform. She is a headstrong little	A celebrated clergyman, in one of his	system. Thirty years ago everybody
St. John, May 6. 1887.	All Direct from the Manufacturers.	ESTEY'S IRON AND QUININE TONIC		aniform. She is a headstrong little	'I say to you, weighing my own words,	licy, but now it is envied in the neigh	lative to the Rev. C. H. Spurgeon's pre-
	A. O. SKINNER.	Is sold by Druggists everywhere. Be sure and set the genuine. Price 50 cents, 6 bottles	eyes to run over the soldier's entire fig-		that you will be loss depended less say	borhood. Why he asked should not the	A CALL THE REAL PROPERTY AND A CALL THE REAL PROPERTY AND A DESCRIPTION OF A
TEADY HOTTEF		$2.50.	are. ne gave a start of surprise. The		age, would less disgrace your woman-	people be allowed to do for themselves	Aavocate has in unerent issues published
			Federal held in his right hand a revolver	ner to return nome. War is a bad thing.		Perfection and the addition the incluse it ch	nonempha volating to his mithdramal
KEARY HOUSE		Prepared only by E. M. ESTEY, Moncton,				what he aud his had done for them	paragraphs relating to his withdrawal
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.)		Prepared only by E. M. ESTEY, Moncton, N. B.	aimed at the man on the ground.	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier-	hood, would be less a curse to your kind,	what he and his had done for them.	from the Baptist Union of England, I
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL,)	Stoves for Sale.	N. B.	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing."	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in	what he and his had done for them.	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHUEST, N. B.	Stoves for Sale.	Cheap Groceries for Christmas.		my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend	A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION.	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHUEST, N. B. THOS. F. KEARY - Proprietor.	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large	Cheap Groceries for Christmas.	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly,	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in	A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION.	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination.
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHUEST, N. B. THOS. F. KEARY - Proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re-	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Chrisimas. The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good Whyner that it was contacious and	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in	A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pers	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ-
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHUBST, N. B. THOS. F. KEARY - Proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- furnished throughout. Stage connects with all trains. Livery connected with the Ho'el.	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Chrisimas. The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour.	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in	A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng-
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHUBST, N. B. THOS. F. KEARY - Proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- furnished throughout. Stage connects with all trains. Livery connected with the Hotel. Yachting Facilities. Some of the best trout	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Chrisimas. The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves	A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his bons, tigers, leopards and	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHUBST, N. B. THUS. F. KEARY - Proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- furnished throughout. Stage connects with all trains. Livery connected with the Ho'el. Yachting Facilities. Some of the best trout and salruon pools within eight miles. Excellent salt water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OHLO"	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas. The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries,	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your	A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his tions, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter-	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general.
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHUBST, N. B. THUS. F. KEARY . Proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- furnished throughout. Stage connects with all trains. Livery connected with the Ho'el. Yachting Facilities. Some of the best trout and salruon pools within eight miles. Excellent salt water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for commercial men.	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OHIO,"	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flaur Oatment Park Hamp	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the puglistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood assailing absent accurain	A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his hons, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won-	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHUBST, N. B. THUS. F. KEARY . Proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- furnished throughout. Stage connects with all trains. Livery connected with the Ho'el. Yachting Facilities. Some of the best trout and saluvon pools within eight miles. Excellent and saluvon pools with eight miles. Excellent and based	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OHIO,"	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flaur Oatment Park Hamp	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi-	A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his tions, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them.	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England,
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST, N.B. THUS. F. KEARY - proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- furnished throughout. Stage connects with all trains. Livery connected with the Ho'el Yachting Facilities. Some of the best trout and salruon pools within eight miles. Excellent and salruon pools within eight miles. Excellent solt water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for commercial men.	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OHIO," suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants,	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband.	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness.	A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his thons, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHUBST, N. B. THUS. F. KEARY . Proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- furnished throughout. Stage connects with all trains. Livery connected with the Ho'el. Yachting Facilities. Some of the best trout and saluvon pools within eight miles. Excellent and saluvon pools with eight miles. Excellent and based	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OHIO," suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants,	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times,"	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by	A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his tions, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con-	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis-
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST, N.B. THUS. F. KEARY . Proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- minished throughout. Stage connects with all brains. Livery connected with the Hotel. Yachting Facilities. Some of the best trout and salnon pools within eight miles. Excellent alt water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for commercial men. TERMS_$1.50 per day; with Sample Rooms $1.75. Bathurst, Oct. 1, '86.	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OHIO," suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a Model Parlor Stove, in good order	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Chrrants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Cedfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder." "You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.—	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times,"	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres He put his these, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con-	irom the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis-
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST, N.B. THUS. F. KEARY . Proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- finished throughout. Stage connects with all frains. Livery connected with the Hotel Authing Facilities. Some of the best trout and saluton pools within eight miles. Excellent alt water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for commercial men. Bathurst, Oct. 1, '86.	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OHIO," suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a Model Parlor Stove,	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas. The Subscriber wishes to inform his Customers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a cell-	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder." "You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.— "Don't you know that somebody from	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you theard' another had surken. I believe	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his tions, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST, N.B. THUS. F. KEARY . Proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- minished throughout. Stage connects with all brains. Livery connected with the Hotel. Yachting Facilities. Some of the best trout and salnon pools within eight miles. Excellent alt water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for commercial men. TERMS_$1.50 per day; with Sample Rooms $1.75. Bathurst, Oct. 1, '86.	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OHIO," suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a Model Parlor Stove, in good order. For particulars apply at the "Advocate"	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Chrrants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Cedfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating ard Curling Rink.	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder." "You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.— "Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ	A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his tions, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the, Union, and as the Union is not of a
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST, N.B. THUS. F. KEARY . Proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- finished throughout. Stage connects with all frains. Livery connected with the Hotel Authing Facilities. Some of the best trout and saluton pools within eight miles. Excellent alt water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for commercial men. Bathurst, Oct. 1, '86.	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OHIO," suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a Model Parlor Stove, in good order	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Chrrants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder." "You are a fool !" shouted Dickson.— "Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse them	A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his tions, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST, N.B. THUS. F. KEARY . Proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- furnished throughout. Stage connects with all index through the stage conne	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OGHIO," suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a Model Parlor Stove, in good order. For particulars apply at the "Advocate" Office. Oct. 10, 1887.	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Chrrants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Bry Cedfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87.	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder." "You are a fool !" shouted Dickson.— "Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?" "And don't you know," replied the	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderough gossining woman'	A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his tions, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered perfectly harmless and com-	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST, N.B. THUS. F. KEARY . Proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- finished throughout. Stage connects with all trains. Livery connected with the Hotel Yachting Facilities. Some of the best trout and saluton pools within eight miles. Excellent alt water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for commercial men. TERNS_$1.50 per day; with Sample Rooms $1.75. Bathurst, Oct. 1, '86. CEO. STABLES. MICIONEER & COMMISSION MERCHANT. NEWCASTLE, N.B.	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OHIO," suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a Model Parlor Stove, in good order. For particulars apply at the "Advocate" office. Oct. 10, 1887.	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Chrrants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Bry Cedfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87.	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder." "You are a fool !" shouted Dickson" "You are a fool !" shouted Dickson" "You are a fool !" shouted Dickson" "You know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?" "And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"—Atlanta Consti-	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderough gossining woman'	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his tions, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered perfectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there-
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST, N.B. THUS. F. KEARY . Proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- furnished throughout. Stage connects with all franking Facilities. Some of the best trout and saluton pools within eight miles. Excellent and saluton pools within eight miles. Excellent Booms $1.75. Batburst, Oct. 1, '86.	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OGHIO," suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a Model Parlor Stove, in good order. For particulars apply at the "Advocate" office. Oct. 10, 1887.	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Chrrants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Bry Cedfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating ard Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87.	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder." "You are a fool !" shouted Dickson.— "Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?" "And don't you know," replied the	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"—Atlanta Consti-	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the puglistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.'	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his thons, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered perfectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of-	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye,
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST, N.B. THUS. F. KEARY . proprietor This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- furnished throughout. Stage connects with all trains Livery connected with the Hotel trains Livery connected with the Hotel trains Livery connected with the Hotel and salaron pools within eight miles. Excellent and salaron pools within eight miles. Excellent solar within eight miles. Excellent Batware bathing. Good Sample Rooms for commercial men. Batware, St.50 per day; with Sample Rooms $1.75. Batburst, Oct. 1, '86. CECO. STABLES, Autometer & Commission Merchant. NEWCASTLE, N.B. Goods of all kinds handided on Commission and compt returns made. Will attend to Auctions in Town and Country	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OGLO," suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a Model Parlor Stove, in good order. For particulars apply at the "Advocate" office. Oct. 10, 1887.	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Chrrants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Bry Cedfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE.	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder." "You are a fool !" shouted Dickson "Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?" "And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"—Atlanta Consti- tution.	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderough gossining woman'	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his thons, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered perfectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of-	from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm.
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST, N.B. THUS. F. KEARY . proprietor. This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- furnished throughout. Stage connects with all rains lavery connected with the Hotel rains lavery rains mane.	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OCOLO," suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a Model Parlor Stove, In good order. For particulars apply at the "Advocate" office. Oct. 10, 1887. INVENTION has revolutionized the method and system of work that can be performed	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Chrrants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Bry Cedfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder." "You are a fool !" shouted Dickson "Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?" "And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?" Dickson studied the face above him	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"—Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS.	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.'	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres He put his hons, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered perfectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster.	<ul> <li>paragraphs relating to ins withdrawar from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide difference between the Baptist Union of England and the Baptist denomination in general.</li> <li>The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of ministers of rather open principles and unsound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' therefore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis-</li> </ul>
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST, N.B. THUS. F. KEARY . proprietor This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- fination of the best to out and saluon pools within eight miles. Excellent is to the totel has been entirely refitted and re- fination facilities. Some of the best to out and saluon pools within eight miles. Excellent is to the totel has been entirely refitted and re- training Facilities. Some of the best to out and saluon pools within eight miles. Excellent is to the totel has been entirely refitted and re- mental totel has been entirel	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OCHOO," suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a method and space of the "Advocate" of the particulars apply at the "Advocate" of the system of work that can be performed anong the wonders of inventive progress is a flower the commer, Y and the the the the form anong the wonders of inventive progress is a flower the commer without scenario of the performed all over the commer y without scenario of the	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas. The Subscriber wishes to inform his Customers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating ard Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool !" shouted Dickson.—"Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"—Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS.	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS.	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his these, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered pertectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood-	paragraphs relating to his windoward from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide difference between the Baptist Union of England and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of ministers of rather open principles and unsound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' therefore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to discipline nor deal with those 'unjust
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST,, N.B. HUS. F. KEARY proprietor This Hotel has been entirely refited and restrinished throughout. Stage connects with all frains. Livery connected with the Hotel. This Hotel has been entirely refited and restrinished throughout. Stage connects with all frains. Livery connected with the Hotel. This Hotel has been entirely refited and restrinished throughout. Stage connects with all frains. Livery connected with the Hotel. This Hotel has been entirely refited and restrinished throughout. Stage connects with all frains. Livery connected with the Hotel. The Hotel has been entirely refited and restring facilities. Some of the bester data and all ways on the stage connects with all frains. Livery connected with the Hotel. The S. Stage connected with the Hotel. The Connect all the stage connects with all frains. Livery connected with the Hotel. Clifton House. Clifton House.	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OGLOO," suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a Model Parlor Stove, In good order. Model Parlor Stove, In good order. To particulars apply at the "Advocate" office. Oct. 10, 1887. INVENTION has revolutionized the anethod and system of work that can be performed and of your theorem of an or the vork that can be performed and of your of the sale of the	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Cnrrants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPKINS.	aimed at the man on the ground. "I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree. "And what do you think of doing?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way. "I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder." "You are a fool !" shouted Dickson "Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?" "And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?" Dickson studied the face above him	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"—Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS.	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS.	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his these, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered pertectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his boson, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori-	paragraphs relating to his windoward from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide difference between the Baptist Union of England and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of ministers of rather open principles and unsound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' therefore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to discipline nor deal with those 'unjust
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL)         BATHURST, N.B.         THUS, F. KEARY proprietor         This Hotel has been entirely refitted and restrinshed throughout. Stage connects with and stains of years of the best four and saluon pools within eightmiles. Excellent and saluon pools and the and the anten and count and the anten anten and the anten and the anten anten anten anten and the anten and the anten anten anten anten and the anten ante	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OGLOO," suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a Model Parlor Stove, In good order. Model Parlor Stove, In good order. To particulars apply at the "Advocate" office. Oct. 10, 1887. INVENTION has revolutionized the anethod and system of work that can be performed and of your theorem of an or the vork that can be performed and of your of the sale of the	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPPRINS. 186 Union Street, SL John, N. B.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.—"Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, " and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the puglistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres He put his hons, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered perfectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A	paragraphs relating to ins withdrawar from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his con- nection with the Union, which he did
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST,, N.B. THUS, F. KEARY proprietor This Hotel has been entirely refited and re- furnished throughout. Stage connects with all the state backing. Good Sample Rooms for and saluon pools within eight miles. Excelled a later rest with all the state backing. Good Sample Rooms for and saluon pools within eight miles. Excelled a later rest with all the state backing. Good Sample Rooms for and saluon pools within eight miles. Excelled a later bathing. Good Sample Rooms for and saluon pools within eight miles. Excelled a later rest with all the state bathing. Good Sample Rooms for an eight miles. Excelled a later bathing. Good Sample Rooms for an eight miles. Excelled a later backing. Rooms for an eight miles. Excelled a later backing for an eight miles. Excelled a later back backing for an eight miles. Excelled a later backing for an eight miles. Excelled a later backing for an eight miles. Excelled a later back back back back back back back back	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, for Soft Coal, Style "OGOGO," Suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In use only two seasons. Also a Model Parlor Stove, in good order. Model Parlor Stove, in good order. To particulars apply at the "Advocate" office. Oct. 10, 1887. MINTERNIEN has revolutionized the half century. Not least anong the wonders of investive process is all over the commer, without seperating the workers from their home. Pay liberal : any oce can do the second system of work that can be performed all over the commer, without seperating the workers from their home. Pay liberal : any oce can do the promotion of great value and importance to office.	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Cnrrants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPKINS.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.—"Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> <li>"Why, you are a boy, ain't you ?" was</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in their youth. Sir Isaac Newton in his	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the puglistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan contains communications on this subject	what he and his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres He put his hons, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered pertectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A rustling noise is heard, and a huge ser-	paragraphs relating to ins withdrawar from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his con- nection with the Union, which he did after, mature deliberation.
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL,)         BATHURST, N.B.         THUS. F. KEARY proprietor         This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re-         fraining Facilities. Some of the best of a data in the second and salaron pools within eight miles. Excellent of a data in the second and salaron pools within eight miles. Excellent of a data in the second and salaron pools within eight miles. Excellent of a data in the second and salaron pools within eight miles. Excellent of a data in the second and salaron pools within eight miles. Excellent of a data in the second and salaron pools within eight miles. Excellent of a data in the second and salaron pools within eight miles. Excellent of a data in the second and salaron pools within eight miles. Excellent of a data in the second and salaron pools within eight miles. Excellent of a data in the second and salaron pools. BECE. State Excellent . Data of a ll kinds handled on Commission.         Metod of all kinds handled on Commission.         Mater state and a data in the the and count of a data in the second and salaron pools.         The data data in the second and count of a data in the second and salaron pools.         The data data in the second and count of a data in the second and salaron pools.         The data data data in the second and count of a data in the second and salaron pools.         The data data data data data data data in the second and salaron pools.         The data data data data data mater second ata data data data data data data dat	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, BASE BURNER, To got Coal, Style "OOLOG" Suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In the only two seasons. Also a sea only two seasons. Also a MODEL DALLOS Stoves, In god order. To particulars apply at the "Advocate" OLOG DALLOS Stoves, The particulars apply at the "Advocate" Data to a last. INVENTION has revolutionized the method and system of work that can be performed over the country without seperating the workers of the country without seperating the workers method and system of work that can be performed and system of work that can be performed there the country without seperating the workers method and system of work that can be performed there the country without seperating the workers of these country without seperating the workers of with sets and with set and you without seperating the workers of these country without seperating the workers of these country without seperating the workers of with sets and with set and you without seperating the workers of with sets and with set and you with using the workers of with sets and with set and you with using the workers of with sets and with set and you with using the workers of with sets and you with the sets of you with th	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPPRINS. 186 Union Street, SL John, N. B.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.—"Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> <li>"Why, you are a boy, ain't you ?" was his next question, as he took in the lithe, willowy form.</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in their youth. Sir Isaac Newton in his boyhood was inattentive to his study, and ranked very low in school until the	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the puglistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan contains communications on this subject from eight eminent men, among them Bishop Potter, who uses the following	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres He put his hons, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered pertectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A rustling noise is heard, and a huge ser- pent is seen winding its way through this undergrowth. It stops. Its head is erect	paragraphs relating to ins withdrawar from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his con- nection with the Union, which he did after, mature deliberation. Spurgeon is, if possible, a closer Bap-
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL,)         BATHURST, N.B.         THUS. F. KEARY . proprietor.         This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re-         Thinking Facilities. Some of the best of and restricting facilities. Some and Country and restricting facilities. Some and the second and second restricting facilities. Some and the second restricting facilities.	Stoves for Sale. For sale at a bargain, a large BASE BURNER, BASE BURNER, To got Coal, Style "OOLOG" Suitable for a Hall or large Dining Room. In the only two seasons. Also a sea only two seasons. Also a MODEL DALLOS Stoves, In god order. To particulars apply at the "Advocate" OLOG DALLOS Stoves, The particulars apply at the "Advocate" Data to a last. INVENTION has revolutionized the method and system of work that can be performed over the country without seperating the workers of the country without seperating the workers method and system of work that can be performed and system of work that can be performed there the country without seperating the workers method and system of work that can be performed there the country without seperating the workers of these country without seperating the workers of with sets and with set and you without seperating the workers of these country without seperating the workers of these country without seperating the workers of with sets and with set and you without seperating the workers of with sets and with set and you with using the workers of with sets and with set and you with using the workers of with sets and with set and you with using the workers of with sets and you with the sets of you with th	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPPRINS. 186 Union Street, SL John, N. B.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool !" shouted Dickson.—"Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> <li>"Why, you are a boy, ain't you ?" was his next question, as he took in the lithe, willowy form.</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in their youth. Sir Isaac Newton in his boyhood was inattentive to his study, and ranked very low in school until the age of twelve. When Samuel Wythe,	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan contains communications on this subject from eight eminent men, among them Bishop Potter, who uses the following vigorous language :	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres He put his hons, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered perfectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A rustling noise is heard, and a huge ser- pent is seen winding its way through the undergrowth. It stops. Its head is erect Its bright eyes sparkle. Its whole body	paragraphs relating to ins withdrawar from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his con- nection with the Union, which he did after, mature deliberation. Spurgeon is, if possible, a closer Bap- tist to-day than ever, and the outcome of
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL,)BATHURST, N.B.THUS. F. KEARY propriotThus, F. KEARY propriotThis Hotel has been entirely refited and re- training Facilities. Some of the best of a data saluon pools within eight miles. Excellent out water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for and saluon pools within eight miles. Excellent out water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for out water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for salues. Stock of the salues in the sample Rooms for the salues of the sample Rooms for the same for	<section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header>	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPPRINS. 186 Union Street, SL John, N. B.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool !" shouted Dickson.—"Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> <li>"Why, you are a boy, ain't you ?" was his next question, as he took in the lithe, willowy form.</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in their youth. Sir Isaac Newton in his boyhood was inattentive to his study, and ranked very low in school until the age of twelve. When Samuel Wythe, the Dublin schoolmaster, attempted to	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan contains communications on this subject from eight eminent men, among them Bishop Potter, who uses the following vigorous language : The drink traffic represents to-day so	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres He put his hons, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered perfectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A rustling noise is heard, and a huge ser- pent is seen winding its way through the undergrowth. It stops. Its head is erect Its bright eyes sparkle. Its whole body seens animated. A mag emerges from	paragraphs relating to ins withdrawar from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his con- nection with the Union, which he did after, mature deliberation. Spurgeon is, if possible, a closer Bap- tist to-day than ever, and the outcome of the stand that he has taken will cause
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST,, N.B. THUS, F. KEARY proprietor This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- This Hotel has been day; with Sample Rooms 51.75. Bathurst, Oct. 1, '86. CEO. STABLES. DECO. STABLES. <p< td=""><td><section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header></td><td>N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPPRINS. 186 Union Street, SL John, N. B.</td><td><ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.—"Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> <li>"Why, you are a boy, ain't you ?" was his next question, as he took in the lithe, willowy form.</li> </ul></td><td>my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in their youth. Sir Isaac Newton in his boyhood was inattentive to his study, and ranked very low in school until the age of twelve. When Samuel Wythe, the Dublin schoolmaster, attempted to educate Richard Brinsley Sheridan he</td><td>hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan contains communications on this subject from eight eminent men, among them Bishop Potter, who uses the following vigorous language : The drink traffic represents to-day so enormous a pecuniary interest, it appeala</td><td>what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres He put his hons, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered perfectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A rustling noise is heard, and a huge ser- pent is seen winding its way through the undergrowth. It stops. Its head is erect Its bright eyes sparkle. Its whole body scenss animated. A man emerges from the heavy foliage. Their eyes meet. The</td><td>paragraphs relating to ins withdrawar from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his con- nection with the Union, which he did after, mature deliberation. Spurgeon is, if possible, a closer Bap- tist to-day than ever, and the outcome of the stand that he has taken will cause much good to be done. If it does not</td></p<>	<section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header>	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPPRINS. 186 Union Street, SL John, N. B.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.—"Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> <li>"Why, you are a boy, ain't you ?" was his next question, as he took in the lithe, willowy form.</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in their youth. Sir Isaac Newton in his boyhood was inattentive to his study, and ranked very low in school until the age of twelve. When Samuel Wythe, the Dublin schoolmaster, attempted to educate Richard Brinsley Sheridan he	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan contains communications on this subject from eight eminent men, among them Bishop Potter, who uses the following vigorous language : The drink traffic represents to-day so enormous a pecuniary interest, it appeala	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres He put his hons, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered perfectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A rustling noise is heard, and a huge ser- pent is seen winding its way through the undergrowth. It stops. Its head is erect Its bright eyes sparkle. Its whole body scenss animated. A man emerges from the heavy foliage. Their eyes meet. The	paragraphs relating to ins withdrawar from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his con- nection with the Union, which he did after, mature deliberation. Spurgeon is, if possible, a closer Bap- tist to-day than ever, and the outcome of the stand that he has taken will cause much good to be done. If it does not
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL,)BATHURST, N.B.THUS. F. KEARY propriotThus, F. KEARY propriotThis Hotel has been entirely refited and re- training Facilities. Some of the best of a data saluon pools within eight miles. Excellent out water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for and saluon pools within eight miles. Excellent out water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for out water bathing. Good Sample Rooms for salues. Stock of the salues in the sample Rooms for the salues of the sample Rooms for the same for	<section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header>	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPPRINS. 186 Union Street, SL John, N. B.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.—"Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> <li>"Why, you are a boy, ain't you ?" was his next question, as he took in the lithe, willowy form.</li> <li>"Never mind what I am ; my captain is satisfied with me, and that is enough ?"</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in their youth. Sir Isaac Newton in his boyhood was inattentive to his study, and ranked very low in school until the age of twelve. When Samuel Wythe, the Dublin schoolmaster, attempted to educate Richard Brinsley Sheridan he	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan contains communications on this subject from eight eminent men, among them Bishop Potter, who uses the following vigorous language : The drink traffic represents to-day so enormous a pecuniary interest, it appeala,	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his times, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered pertectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A rustling noise is heard, and a huge ser- pent is seen winding its way through the undergrowth. It stops. Its head is erect Its bright eyes sparkle. Its whole body seems animated. A man emerges from the heavy foliage. Their eyes meet. The	paragraphs relating to his withdrawar from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his com- nection with the Union, which he did after mature deliberation. Spurgeon is, if possible, a closer Bap- tist to-day than ever, and the outcome of the stand that he has taken will cause much good to be done. If it does not
<pre>(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL.) BATHURST, N.B. THUS. F. KEARY . proprietor This Hotel has been entirely refitted and re- furnished throughout. Stage connects with all frains. Livery connected with the Hotel and saluton pools within eight miles. Excelled at the bathing. Good Sample Rooms for and saluton pools within eight miles. Excelled at the bathing. Good Sample Rooms for and saluton pools within eight miles. Excelled at the bathing. Good Sample Rooms for and saluton pools within eight miles. Excelled at the bathing. Good Sample Rooms for and saluton pools within eight miles. Excelled at the bathing. Good Sample Rooms for and saluton pools within eight miles. Excelled at the bathing. Good Sample Rooms for and saluton pools within eight miles. Excelled to Auctions Merchant. Excelled to Auctions in Town and Countrys at a factory manne: The salut of Auctions in Town and Countrys at a factory manne. The salut of Auctions in Town and Countrys at a factory manne. The salut of Auctions in Town and Countrys at a factory manne. The salut of Auctions in Town and Countrys at a factory manne. The salut of Auctions in Town and Countrys at a factory manne. The salut of Auctions in Town and Countrys at a factory manne. The salut of Auctions and Merchant. The salut of Auctions at Town and Countrys at a factory manne. The salut of Auctions at Town and Countrys at a factory manne. The salut of Auctions at Town and Countrys at a factory manne. The salut of Auctions at Town and Countrys at a factory manne. The salut of Auctions at Town and Countrys at a factory manne. The salut of Auctions at Town and Countrys at a factory manne. The salut of Auctions at the salut of Auctions at a factory manne. The salut of Auctions at a factory mann</pre>	<section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header>	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPPRINS. 186 Union Street, SL John, N. B.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.—"Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> <li>"Why, you are a boy, ain't you ?" was his next question, as he took in the lithe, willowy form.</li> <li>"Never mind what I am ; my captain is satisfied with me, and that is enough ?"</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in their youth. Sir Isaac Newton in his boyhood was inattentive to his study, and ranked very low in school until the age of twelve. When Samuel Wythe, the Dublin schoolmaster, attempted to educate Richard Brinsley Sheridan he pronounced the boy an 'incorrigible dunce.' The mother of Sheridan concur-	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan contains communications on this subject from eight eminent men, among them Bishop Potter, who uses the following vigorous language : The drink traffic represents to-day so enormous a pecuniary interest, it appeala, and with such tremendous effect, to the lowest appetites. and it threatenes so	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres He put his hons, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered pertectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A rustling noise is heard, and a huge ser- pent is seen winding its way through the undergrowth. It stops. Its head is erect Its bright eyes sparkle. Its whole body scenns animated. A maa emerges from the heavy foliage. Their eyes meet. The serpent quails before the man,-man is victor. The serpent is under the control	paragraphs relating to inst windoward from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doetrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his con- nection with the Union, which he did after mature deliberation. Spurgeon is, if possible, a closer Bap- tist to-day than ever, and the outcome of the stand that he has taken will cause much good to be done. If it does not do away with the Union altogether, it will cause it to be so reformed that there
<section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header>	<section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header>	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPPRINS. 186 Union Street, SL John, N. B.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.—" "Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> <li>"Why, you are a boy, ain't you ?" was his next question, as he took in the lithe, willowy form.</li> <li>"Never mind what I am ; my captain is satisfied with me, and that is enough ?"</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in their youth. Sir Isaac Newton in his boyhood was inattentive to his study, and ranked very low in school until the age of twelve. When Samuel Wythe, the Dublin schoolmaster, attempted to educate Richard Brinsley Sheridan he pronounced the boy an 'incorrigible dunce.' The mother of Sheridan concur- med in this wonther of Sheridan concur-	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan contains communications on this subject from eight eminent men, among them Bishop Potter, who uses the following vigorous language : The drink traffic represents to-day so enormous a pecuniary interest, it appeals, and with such tremendous effect, to the lowest appetites, and it threatens so	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his these, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two on three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered pertectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A rustling noise is heard, and a huge ser- pent is seen winding its way through the undergrowth. It stops. Its head is erect Its bright eyes sparkle. Its whole body seens animated. A man emerges from the heavy foliage. Their eyes meet. The serpent quails before the man,—man is victor. The serpent is under the control	paragraphs relating to his withdrawar from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his con- nection with the Union, which he did after, mature deliberation. Spurgeon is, if possible, a closer Bap- tist to-day than ever, and the outcome of the stand that he has taken will cause much good to be done. If it does not do away with the Union altogether, it will cause it to be so reformed that there will cause it to be so reformed that there
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL,)BATHURST, N.B.THUS. F. KEARY proprietorThis Hotel has been entirely refited and re- fraining Facilities. Some of the best of a data saluon pools within eight miles. Excellent data saluon pools within eight miles. Excellent saluents.	<section-header><section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header></section-header>	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPPRINS. 186 Union Street, SL John, N. B.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.—"Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> <li>"Why, you are a boy, ain't you ?" was his next question, as he took in the lithe, willowy form.</li> <li>"Never mind what I am ; my captain is satisfied with me, and that is enough ?"</li> <li>"You had better drop your pistol ard come down. I'll see that you are treated well."</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in their youth. Sir Isaac Newton in his boyhood was inattentive to his study, and ranked very low in school until the age of twelve. When Samuel Wythe, the Dublin schoolmaster, attempted to educate Richard Brinsley Sheridan he pronounced the boy an 'incorrigible dunce.' The mother of Sheridan concur- red in this verdict, and declared him the most study of her sons. Goldsmith was	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan contains communications on this subject from eight eminent men, among them Bishop Potter, who uses the following vigorous language : The drink traffic represents to-day so enormous a pecuniary interest, it appeals, and with such tremendous effect, to the lowest appetites, and it threatens so directly and so seriously the best interests	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres He put his these, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered pertectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A rustling noise is heard, and a huge ser- pent is seen winding its way through the undergrowth. It stops. Its head is erect Its bright eyes sparkle. Its whole body seems animated. A man emerges from the heavy foliage. Their eyes meet. The serpent quails before the man,man is victor. The serpent is under the control of a master. Under his guidance and line time is an emergent is under the control of a master. Under his guidance and line time is an emergent is under the control of a master. Under his guidance and line time is an emergent is under the control of a master. Under his guidance and line time is an emergent is under the control of a master. Under his guidance and line time is an emergent is under the control of a master. Under his guidance and line time is an emergent is under the control of a master. Under his guidance and line time is an emergent is under the control of a master. Under his guidance and line time is an emergent is under the control of a master. Under his guidance and line time is an emergent is an emer	paragraphs relating to his withdrawar from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his con- nection with the Union, which he did after, mature deliberation. Spurgeon is, if possible, a closer Bap- tist to-day than ever, and the outcome of the stand that he has taken will cause much good to be done. If it does not do away with the Union altogether, it will cause it to be so reformed that there will be a purer, a more consistent and the to the done of the there is the out of the stand that he may have be an or the out of the there will be a purer, a more consistent and the terms of the out of the there is a mini- ter of the stand of the out of the there will be a purer, a more consistent and the terms of the out of the there is a minipular.
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL,)BATHURST,, N.B.THUS. F. KEARY proprietorThis Hotel has been entirely refited and re- fraining facilities. Some of the best of a data saluton pools within eight miles. Excellent of a saluton pool of a saluto	<section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header>	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPPRINS. 186 Union Street, SL John, N. B.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.—" "Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> <li>"Why, you are a boy, ain't you ?" was his next question, as he took in the lithe, willowy form.</li> <li>"Never mind what I am ; my captain is satisfied with me, and that is enough ?"</li> <li>"You had better drop your pistol ard come down. I'll see that you are treated well."</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in their youth. Sir Isaac Newton in his boyhood was inattentive to his study, and ranked very low in school until the age of twelve. When Samuel Wythe, the Dublin schoolmaster, attempted to educate Richard Brinsley Sheridan he pronounced the boy an 'incorrigible dunce.' The mother of Sheridan concur- red in this verdict, and declared him the most stupid of her sone. Goldsmith was dull in it worth and Shakarenae Gid	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan contains communications on this subject from eight eminent men, among them Bishop Potter, who uses the following vigorous language : The drink traffic represents to-day so enormous a pecuniary interest, it appeals, and with such tremendous effect, to the lowest appetites, and it threatens so directly and so seriously the best interests of the State, that its power to influence	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his times, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered pertectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A rustling noise is heard, and a huge ser- pent is seen winding its way through the undergrowth. It stops. Its head is erect Its bright eyes sparkle. Its whole body seens animated. A man emerges from the heavy foliage. Their eyes meet. The serpent quails before the man,—man is victor. The serpent is under the control of a master. Under his guidance and direction it performs a series of fearful	paragraphs relating to his withdrawar from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his con- nection with the Union, which he did after, mature deliberation. Spurgeon is, if possible, a closer Bap- tist to-day than ever, and the outcome of the stand that he has taken will cause much good to be done. If it does not do away with the Union altogether, it will cause it to be so reformed that there will be a purer, a more consistent and higher standard of christain, principles
<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text>	<section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header>	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPPRINS. 186 Union Street, SL John, N. B.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.—" "Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> <li>"Why, you are a boy, ain't you ?" was his next question, as he took in the lithe, willowy form.</li> <li>"Never mind what I am ; my captain is satisfied with me, and that is enough ?"</li> <li>"You had better drop your pistol ard come down. I'll see that you are treated well."</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in their youth. Sir Isaac Newton in his boyhood was inattentive to his study, and ranked very low in school until the age of twelve. When Samuel Wythe, the Dublin schoolmaster, attempted to educate Richard Brinsley Sheridan he pronounced the boy an 'incorrigible dunce.' The mother of Sheridan concur- red in this verdict, and declared him the most stupid of her sons. Goldsmith was dull in his youth, and Shakespeare, Gib- hor Duw and Duwden do not an on the	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan contains communications on this subject from eight eminent men, among them Bishop Potter, who uses the following vigorous language : The drink traffic represents to-day so enormous a pecuniary interest, it appeals, and with such tremendous effect, to the lowest appetites, and it threatens so directly and so seriously the best interests of the State, that its power to influence politics for evil seems to me one of the	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres. He put his times, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two on three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered pertectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A rustling noise is heard, and a huge ser- pent is seen winding its way through the undergrowth. It stops. Its head is erect Its bright eyes sparkle. Its whole body seens animated. A man emerges from the heavy foliage. Their eyes meet. The serpent quails before the man,—man is victor. The serpent is under the control of a master. Under his guidance and direction it performs a series of fearful feats. At a signal from the man it slow.	paragraphs relating to his withdrawar from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his con- nection with the Union, which he did after, mature deliberation. Spurgeon is, if possible, a closer Bap- tist to-day than ever, and the outcome of the stand that he has taken will cause much good to be done. If it does not do away with the Union altogether, it will cause it to be so reformed that there will be a purer, a more consistent and higher standard of christain principles and doctrines in all its members, having
<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text>	<section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header>	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPPRINS. 186 Union Street, SL John, N. B.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.—" "Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> <li>"Why, you are a boy, ain't you ?" was his next question, as he took in the lithe, willowy form.</li> <li>"Never mind what I am ; my captain is satisfied with me, and that is enough ?"</li> <li>"Thanks. Haln't you better lay,down your weapon and march over that hill, and go home to your wife and children, if you have any ? I am not particularly</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in their youth. Sir Isaac Newton in his boyhood was inattentive to his study, and ranked very low in school until the age of twelve. When Samuel Wythe, the Dublin schoolmaster, attempted to educate Richard Brinsley Sheridan he pronounced the boy an 'incorrigible dunce.' The mother of Sheridan concur- red in this verdict, and declared him the most stupid of her sons. Goldsmith was dull in his youth, and Shakespeare, Gib- bon, Davy and Dryden do not appear to have exhibited in their childhood even	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan contains communications on this subject from eight eminent men, among them Bishop Potter, who uses the following vigorous language : The drink traffic represents to-day so enormous a pecuniary interest, it appeals, and with such tremendous effect, to the lowest appetites, and it threatens so directly and so seriously the best interests of the State, that its power to influence politics for evil seems to me one of the most dangerous, if not the most danger	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres He put his has, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered pertectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A rustling noise is heard, and a huge ser- pent is seen winding its way through the undergrowth. It stops. Its head is erect Its bright eyes sparkle. Its whole body seems animated. A maa emerges from the heavy foliage. Their eyes meet. The serpent quails before the man,-man is victor. The serpent is under the control of a master. Under his guidance and direction it performs a series of fearful feats. At a signal from the man it slow- ly approaches him, and began to coil its heavy folds around him. Higher and	paragraphs relating to instructure from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his con- nection with the Union, which he did after, mature deliberation. Spurgeon is, if possible, a closer Bap- tist to-day than ever, and the outcome of the stand that he has taken will cause much good to be done. If it does not do away with the Union altogether, it will cause it to be so reformed that there will be a purer, a more consistent and higher standard of christain principles and doctrines in all its menbers, having the mass of corruption purged out.— When this is done, Spurgeon will them
(Formerly WILBUR'S HOTEL,)BATHURST,, N.B.THUS. F. KEARY proprietorThis Hotel has been entirely refited and re- fraining facilities. Some of the best of a data saluton pools within eight miles. Excellent of a saluton pool of a saluto	<section-header><section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header></section-header>	N. B. Cheap Groceries for Christmas, The Subscriber wishes to inform his Custom- ers and the Public generally that he keeps on hard a full supply of General Groceries, Provisions. Flour, Oatmeal, Pork, Hams, Sugars, Raisins, Currants, Spices, Tobacco, etc., etc. 50 Quintals Dry Codfish. All Goods in stock will be Sold at a very Small Advance on Cost. Give me a call Store next the Newcastle Skating and Curling Rink. CHARLES LACY. Newcastle, Dec. 12, '87. English Sausage Shop and MEAT STORE. Our Mince Meat. Wholesale and Retail. It has stood the test of many years. JOHIN HOPPRINS. 186 Union Street, SL John, N. B.	<ul> <li>aimed at the man on the ground.</li> <li>"I have had you covered ever since you came here," said the man in the tree.</li> <li>"And what do you think of doing ?" asked Dickson in a tantalizing way.</li> <li>"I am going to shoot if you try to get up, or if you cock your pistol," was the response : "but I expect to persuade you to drop the weapon and go off to the top of that hill yonder."</li> <li>"You are a fool ?" shouted Dickson.—" "Don't you know that somebody from town will come along soon and help me capture you ?"</li> <li>"And don't you know," replied the other, "that some of our cavalry are coming this way, and may be hear any moment ?"</li> <li>Dickson studied the face above him.—It was a dark, clear-cut, handsome face, very youthful and pleasant in its expression.</li> <li>"Why, you are a boy, ain't you ?" was his next question, as he took in the lithe, willowy form.</li> <li>"Never mind what I am ; my captain is satisfied with me, and that is enough ?"</li> <li>"Thanks. Haln't you better lay,down your weapon and march over that hill, and go home to your wife and children, if you have any ? I am not particularly</li> </ul>	my friend, if the ladies are to go soldier- ing." By this time Dickson felt perfectly at home. His hosts were in such a jolly, good flumor that it was contagious and the visitor spent a delightful half hour. The Federals did not hold Blue Rock long. They moved off with the main body of the army but before they left the captain's adventurous wife had been shipped home by her husband. "Queer things happen in war times," was Dickson's comment on the affair when he spoke of it afterward to his friends, "and I tell you it is a wonder that the captain's wife didn't capture me and march me off. She is a daisy, if there ever was one !"-Atlanta Consti- tution. STUPID GENIUS. Some of the most eminent men of all ages were remarkable only for dulness in their youth. Sir Isaac Newton in his boyhood was inattentive to his study, and ranked very low in school until the age of twelve. When Samuel Wythe, the Dublin schoolmaster, attempted to educate Richard Brinsley Sheridan he pronounced the boy an 'incorrigible dunce.' The mother of Sheridan concur- red in this verdict, and declared him the most stupid of her sons. Goldsmith was dull in his youth, and Shakespeare, Gib- hor Duw and Duwden do not an on the	hood, would be less a curse to your kind, and if God is rightly revealed to us in His words and His son, would less offend Him by going to see the dogs fight in their kennels, or bulls gore horses in Spain, or man tear his brother man in pieces in the pugilistic encounter, than by putting on your bonnets and gloves and going from house to house in your neighborhood, assailing absent acquain- tances, dribbling calumny, sowing suspi- cion, planting and watering wretchedness, stabbing character, alienating friends by repeating to one the detraction that you 'heard' another had spoken. I believe that before the judgment seat of Christ, the prize fighter will stand no worse than the slanderously gossiping woman.' THE SALOON IN POLITICS. A recent number of the Chautauquan contains communications on this subject from eight eminent men, among them Bishop Potter, who uses the following vigorous language : The drink traffic represents to-day so enormous a pecuniary interest, it appeala, and with such tremendous effect, to the lowest appetites, and it threatens so directly and so seriously the best interests of the State, that its power to influence politics for evil seems to me one of the most dangerous, if not the most danger- ous, of the evil forces in our day and land.	what he aud his had done for them. A TEMPERANCE ILLUSTRATION. A few years ago a noted wild-beast tamer gave a performance with his pets in one of the leading London theatres He put his has, tigers, leopards and hyenas through their part of the enter- tainment, awing the audience by his won- derful nerve and his control over them. As a closing act to the performance, he was to introduce an enormous boa-con- strictor, thirty-five feet long. He had bought it when it was only about two or three days old; and for twenty-five years he had handled it daily, so that it was considered pertectly harmless and com- pletely under his control. He had seen it grow from a tiny reptile, which he of- ten carried in his bosom, into a fearful monster. The curtain rose upon an Indian wood- land scene. The weird strains of an ori- ental band steal through the trees. A rustling noise is heard, and a huge ser- pent is seen winding its way through the undergrowth. It stops. Its head is erect Its bright eyes sparkle. Its whole body seems animated. A maa emerges from the heavy foliage. Their eyes meet. The serpent quails before the man,-man is victor. The serpent is under the control of a master. Under his guidance and direction it performs a series of fearful feats. At a signal from the man it slow- ly approaches him, and began to coil its heavy folds around him. Higher and	paragraphs relating to instructure from the Baptist Union of England, I therefore desire to say to the readers of the Advocate that Spurgeon has not (as some think) left the Baptist denomination. In the first place there is a wide differ- ence between the Baptist Union of Eng- land and the Baptist denomination in general. The Union is an association composed of many of the churches in England, and of late years there have been many members, including a number of minis- ters of rather open principles and un- sound in Bible doctrines who have joined the Union, and as the Union is not of a disciplinary nature—not having any power to deal with transgressors and members of 'unsound doctrines,' there- fore Spurgeon, with his discerning eye, saw the danger, and sounded the alarm. And, as the Union had no power to dis- cipline nor deal with those 'unjust stewards,' the only alternative for Spur- geon was, as he thought, to sever his con- nection with the Union, which he did after, mature deliberation. Spurgeon is, if possible, a closer Bap- tist to-day than ever, and the outcome of the stand that he has taken will cause much good to be done. If it does not do away with the Union altogether, it will cause it to be so reformed that there will be a purer, a more consistent and higher standard of christain principles and doctrines in all its members, having the mass of corruption purged out.— When this is done, Spurgeon will then be found embodied in the Union, and

>