THE PAIL BOIL Gazelle recommends that would be virtually the abditional to the present of the pr grand quadrinteral in Foland, whence, there for her by the Frince of Wales, on the completion of the Russian scheme of military reorganization, Russian generals are "to advance on Gentral Europe without risk to the internal peace of the country," thus bringing into practical realization the assertion that "the Eastern question can alone be that to the Trinisters placed it before her that "the Eastern question can alone be in this its true aspect. Her Maiesty and dignity, and it cannot be doubted that if her ministers placed it before her in this its true aspect. Her Majesty would willingly accede to a suggestion or many facts combine in support of these conclusions to remove all distrust. The porte, for the moment, is all in favor at St. Petersburg, because Turkey is not first to be assailed, and a Turco-Austrian alliance—alliances are the great dread of the Ozar—might impose an impassable barrier to the Russian advance. Germany is soothed by the presence of the Ozar at Ems. England is ignored. Yet Russian generals are unostentations by manœuvering their 650,000 men on the western border, whilst Russian statemen are exerting their utmost to avert a combination of newers against their designs, suit to extinguish in the western states the embers of an Eastern policy which was doomed by the cromplet. Bubsequestly, inquiries were made of the police authorities in Chargow, who replied that no nursier had been continued by the opinion of Dr. Woedill, the physician in attendance at the jail, who said McKenzie was insane. The matter then dropped from public notice.—Recently, McKenzie, who has been detained in jail since his confession, improved much, and his reason returned. He had no recollection of having made any confession, and solemnly asserted that he had neither killed nor injured any man. Application was made to the Judges for his release. They referred the case to the Stipendiary Magistrate who had received the confession, and yesterbay the princers was brought up at the Colo and the properties of the confession and vesterbay the princers was brought up at the Colo and the confession, and an election from Albation of Scott.
