EARLY HOURS AND TEMPERANCE HIS LONG LIFE SECRET

Dr. Peebles, 99, Quit Flesh Meat at Thirty-Nine Years of Age.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 2—Dr. James Martin Peebles, physician and author, who not long ago celebrated his 99th birthday anniversary and who wrote a book on "How to Live a Century and Grow Old Gracefully," ascribes his long life in large measure to abstinence from eating animal flesh. Dr. Peebles stopped eating meat when he was thirty-nine years old. He wrote his book on the rules of living when he was sixty-two.

Asked what he considered the greatest contributory cause to his long life he instantly replied:

"One cannot strengthen life by living on death. I cannot bear the idea of eating dead cows and dead hogs; and it is not necessary. See how strong are horses and oxen; they do not live on dead flesh." Other rules he made for himself and which he said he believed had helped him to reach his advanced years included:

"Go to bed every night at 8.30. Out of bed every morning at six. Never use tobacco. Never use intoxicating liquors. Never complain.

"Avoid all worry and keep an harmonious mind. Worry is among the worst things in the world. Have a strong will-power. Always look for the new. Keep calm."

On his 99th birthday, Dr. Peebles walked erect only occasionally using a cane; his sight was good although he used spectacles for reading; his hearing "as good as ever," and his appetite and digestion he declared excellent. His long white beard and hair gave him a truly venerable appearance.

Asked what his plans for the future were he replied:

"To live a number of years more and to write at least another book. This will be on the progress of Christianity as it is preached, showing how preachers are leaving hell fire, brimstone, purgatory and many other old-time dogmas behind.

"What a variety of mighty changes since my birth!" he exclaimed. "Napoleon then had just died on the Island of St. Helena; old 'Hickory Jackson,' as he was then called, had just been elected president of the United States; Ohio was then a budding state and the great wide west was dotted with Indian wigwags.

"Later came telegraph, telephones, railroads, electric lights and machinery, wireless flashes on ocean and land, airships sailing through the skies and automobiles dashing madly across the continent.

"There is life in everything. Crush the acorn to earth and the germ looks toward the mountains. In every marble block there is an angel's form awaiting the sculptor's chisel. God is good. There is no absolute evil in the universe, because God made it."

Dr. Peebles was born March 23, 1822, at Whittingham, Vt., and was graduated from Oxford Academy, Chenango County, N. Y., in 1841. He has travelled around the earth five times.

THRU RAIL SERVICE TO PACIFIC COAST

Canadian National Railways Offer Most Direct Connections With Fast Through Trains From Montreal.

The finest train service to the Pacific Coast is afforded by the Canadian National Grand Trunk "Continental Limited" now leaving at 9.00 p. m. daily from Bonaventure Station, Montreal.

The route of this finely equipped all steel train to the coast is via Ottawa, North Bay, Cochrane and via the Transcontinental to Winnipeg and by Grand Trunk Pacific to Saskatoon and Edmonton and via Canadian National Railways to Vancouver, the finest of scenic routes through the Rockies and over the smoothest roadbed.

From Maritime Province points there is connection by Ocean Limited with the Continental Limited daily and by the Maritime Express, daily except Sunday. The Maritime arriving in Montreal at 7.40 p. m. affords the most direct connection, but passengers by the Ocean Limited still have the advantage of a day spent in Montreal. The Maritime arriving at Lewis at 1.50 p. m. affords connection with train No. 11 leaving Quebec daily for Cochrane at 5.00 p. m. This train makes connection at Cochrane with the Continental Limited, so it will be seen there is really a choice of two distinct routes.

There is also the through service to the Pacific coast by train leaving Toronto daily at 10.30 p. m. via Sudbury, Port Arthur, Fort William and Winnipeg. Connection for this is made by the Ocean Limited to Montreal and the Grand Trunk International Limited to Toronto.

Particulars of these splendid services to the west will be explained by all C. N. R. ticket agents, and folders and illustrated matter may be obtained by application of any of the City Ticket Offices or by writing the General Passenger Dept., Montreal, B.
