The Goderich SIGNAL is down on the bonus system, and with good reason. the granting of a bonus to two industries of this town, and still believe it was prudent to do it at the time. Nevertheless the thing is wrong in most cases, and we would strongly favor an act to take away the power from municipalities of bonusing industries or even except-ing them from taxation. The tub that cannot stand on its bottom, has not bottom enough to stand on. If a man's business will not pay well enough to enable him to pay his taxes, it is too poor a trade to put money into, and if it will pay well enough for that purpose the town ought not to pauperize him by its misplaced charity. The trouble has Mr. Porter, on coming forward, was been that if one town will not bonus,
