added, is usually in the same predicament,

THE PENNY WISE MEN.—This is the time of the year when the man who does not take a paper because he cannot afford it, meets with two or three travelling confidence men, and gets cheated out of enough money in one day to pay for half a dozen papers from every county in the province.

Perhaps one of the largest orders for cabinet pictures ever left at any photographic establishment was that received by Geo. Stewart last week when a request for 136 was sent to that gentleman. An order of the size named takes well for the artistic merit of Goderich.

This promises to be a very interesting service.

S. H. Anstey and wife returned to town Thursday, after a three months visit in the neighborhood of Peterboro'.
Recently he was up north of that town hunting, and brought down seven deer.
A fine buck's head can be seen at S.
Downing's residence, Angelsea street, which testifies of the hunting prowess of
Mr. Anstey.

One of the best acts of the council during the year was the order given to Constable Davis to keep loaves from cooling at the street corner. This order of thing has been a nuisance for a long time past. The above is from the Blyth Standard, but it applies equally well to Goderich. Do your duty, Constable Yale.

At the last regular meeting of Maitland Lodge No. 33, A. F. & A. M., the honeymoon trip to Florida and the West Indies. R. H. was formerly a clerk in Mr. Squires' office here.

LEFT FOR HOME.—Mr. J. K. Mc-
Tuesday for their home in Leadville Col. We were glad to make the acquaintance of Mr. McDonagh, who is a Glenarry boy and a credit to his stalwart race. We hope it is not his last visit to Goderich, as he made hosts of friends who would be glad to shake his manly fist at some future day.

KNOX CHURCH S. S. S.—At a meeting of the teachers held on Wednesday evening, arrangements were completed for the tea-meeting to be given the children of the school on Friday, 30th.

school at 6 o'clock, and to all others from 6:30 to 7:30, to be followed by a musical and literary entertainment to be held in the church from 7:30 to 8:30.
Children not belonging to the school will be charged 10c.

PROHIBITION LEAGUE.—A stirring and progressive meeting of the "Prohibition League" was held last Tuesday evening in the temperance hall, the president in the chair. Opening hymn, "Hold the Fort." Prayer by Jas. Gordon. Discussions relative to the "League" and vital phases of temperance local work were then taken part in by Messrs. J.
Gordon, Rines, Stoddart, secretary J. A. Reid, treasurer J. A. Nafel, and president M. McGilvray. At next meeting the question of affiliation with "Royal Templars," as also the election of new officers will take place. The League then adjourned to meet again on Tuesday, Jan. 3rd, 1888, at 7:30 p. m. in the same hall.

HOW TO DRESS POULTRY.—To have your poultry bring its proper value in the market it should be killed and dressed as follows: Starve for 24 hours; bled by sticking, leaving the head on; plucked dry; do not scald, as it disfigures the skin; leave 5 or 6 of the tip feathers in the wing in; do not cut off the legs.
When they are killed with grain in the crop, the grain will ferment and sour, giving the meat a bad flavor. Follow out these instructions and your poultry will be worth much more money. In the absence of a town By-law prohibiting the sale of poultry not drawn, merchants and others who deal in poultry should take the matter into their own hands and refuse all poultry not drawn.

PRESIDENT AND ADDRESS.—Miss Cronk, who has taught in the senior division of St. David's ward school, and who has been promoted to the charge of a division in the central school, was last week made the recipient of a handsome cup and saucer accompanied by the following address: Dear Miss Cronk—We, the pupils of your room during the past year, wish to express to you in a small degree our appreciation of your painstaking efforts in our behalf. As a small token of our sincere esteem, we wish you to accept this present and hope the accepting will give you as much pleasure as the giving affords us satisfaction.
Wishing you every success in your new work. We remain, Yours sincerely, The pupils of senior Div., St. David's ward school.

CHRISTMAS DAY A. D. 1887.—At St.

"ENGAGED."—The appearance of the Goderich Amateur Dramatic Company in the Grand Opera House, on Friday evening, in W. S. Gilbert's comedy, "Engaged," was highly satisfactory, and reflected credit upon not only those who came before the footlights, but upon all who had contributed to make the affair a success. A good house greeted the piece, the reserved seats being exceedingly well patronized. The presentation of the play was excellent, and the parlor scene in the second act was particularly good. The part of Belinda Treherne was admirably taken by Miss Bessie Chilton, and time and again elicited approbation from the audience.

A fine buck's head can be seen at S.
which testifies of the hunting prowess of
Mr. Anstey.

COMMUNICATIONS.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents. Contributors to this department must confine themselves to public questions, and be brief.

The Right Man.

Sir,—I believe Mr. John Butler is again a candidate for councillor for St.
George's ward, and I trust the ratepayers will remember that he is, and has been, foremost in trying to advance the best interests of the town. We in the Noble Ward, justly claim for him honesty of purpose, good, sound judgment, and any amount of push, coupled with strict economy. If the other new stations forward as good material for the council of 1888, as we do in the person of John Butler, the old town will start to boom during the coming spring and summer.
St. George.

The Reason Why.

To the Editor of the Huron Signal.
Sir,—As there is so much claptrap talked about town against the Salvation Army for sending the proceeds of their banquet to headquarters, and that on that account they should not be patronized, or supported, I beg by way of explanation, to be allowed to state that the money to open this station came from headquarters, or otherwise it could not have been opened, and that the money was raised from older stations.
So, in turn, the station is called upon to aid in opening other new stations, and also, to help support weak ones, and it is in this way the Army, as well as the churches, spread the Gospel news—by helping one another. This is how staff Capt. Burdett, of London says the money is applied, now the sore-heads say it is not in that way, if not then the Staff Captain is wrong, what is false, and would be getting money under false pretences, this, then, would be to impeach the honesty of our trusty leader. Now the man or woman who so impeaches him should be able to show some better proof of the charge than the which is hotbed in their own black deceitful, lying, hypocritical hearts. It is all right to patronize shows, theatres, &c., but don't send any money away for missionary work. I say then to all the good people who so nobly assisted the Army with means to get up the Banquet, to not "weary in well doing" for it will all be in vain if they are for the dying, and help them to lift up the fallen ones, and in due time "ye shall reap if ye faint not" for Christ has said "Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of these, my little ones, ye have done it unto Me." The Army needs say it is not in that way, if not then the Staff Captain is wrong,
what is false, and would be getting
money under false pretences, this, then,
needs say it is not in that way, if
not then the Staff Captain is wrong,
