At The Theatre.

KLARK-URBAN CO. PRESENT "CAMERO KIRBY."

The T. A. Theatre was filled again last night. The piece was "Cameo Kirby," a stirring drama with a good sprinkling of comedy. The manners, customs and dress of the proud but gentle men and women of the ante-bellum days were cleverly brought out in the smallest details. Mr. Klark was "Cameo Kirby," and a very clever presentation of the gay southern gambler and chivalrous man, of honour combined did give. The plot of this piece evolved around the "Estate" of a southern planter named Randall who is being swindled of his property deeds in a game of cards on a steamboat on the Mississippi by one Colonel Moreau, when Cameo Kirby who while he is a gambler has a sense of honour and intervenes to prevent the final act in the swindle. Randall finding that he has gambled away his estates shoots himself next morning in his cabin. Colonel Moreau manages to impress the family with the idea that "Cameo Kirby" is the villain who is responsible for the deed. Tom Randall, the son, swears vengeance on Kirby who once more appears in public in New Orleans. Moreau also turns up and pretends to be a sincere friend of the Randall's. Larkin Bance, a friend of Kirby's, now appears on the scene and cleverly develops the comic element. He discovers Moreau's game and manages to arrange a duel between himself and Kirby with the result that the false Colonel gets his deserts from the unerring hand of Kirby. Tom Randall secretly goes to the wood where the two meet and steals the pistol from the dead hand of Colonel Moreau in order to proclaim Kirby the murderer. The evidence of finding Moreau's body with no pistol in his hand would be believed effect this. In the chase that takes place to find him Kirby jumps through an open window in the Randall house where the strange complications arise, prominent amongst them being his falling in love with Adele Randall, the daughter and heiress of the house. Larkin Bance tries his best to get his friend Kirby out of the danger zone, but love proves stronger than friendship and he plays the game out till, circumstances enable him to show to the Randall family that he is the man who saved the estate from being cheated.

NO OPERATION WAS EVER NEEDED HERE

BECAUSE MRS. GOODIE USED DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Doctor said she would have to undergo operation, but Dodd's Kidney Pills cured her. Central Kingslear, York Co., N.B., November 1, (Special).—"The doctor said I would have to undergo an operation." So said Mrs. J. V. Goodie, of this place. But she smiled as she made the remark for all need of the dreaded operation had vanished. Mrs. Goodie used Dodd's Kidney Pills and is a well woman. Given in brief and in her own words, Mrs. Goodie's experience is as follows: "I was very miserable with Kidney Disease and unable to do my own work. The doctor said I would have to undergo an operation. After using three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills I was all better and able to do my work. This statement is true, as you can easily prove by enquiring among my neighbors."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the kidneys; cured kidneys strain all the poisons and other cause of disease out of the blood. Thus Dodd's Kidney Pills are a natural cure for all Kidney diseases and this caused by diseased kidneys.

To-Day's News.

Special to Evening Telegram. LONDON, To-day. A despatch from Belgrade to the Pall Mall Gazette says Sir Ralph Page, the British Minister to Serbia, has started for London. It is rumored that the British Government has called him home to report personally on certain political projects. According to rumors, a scheme has been evolved by the Russian Ambassador at Constantinople for the union of the Balkan countries. The Ambassador submitted a plan, said a Pasha, to the Turkish Grand Vizier. Under the proposal made by the Russian diplomat, Albania and Macedonia are to obtain Home Rule together, and one to join Bulgaria, Serbia and Montenegro in a formal Balkan Confederation under the protection of British and Russia, and the two Powers named are to guarantee the integrity of the Turkish Empire and Europe and Asia and the independence of the Balkan Confederation. Turkey on her part is to give guarantees that she will never join in any combination hostile to British and Russia.

Here and There.

Jackman The Tailor's New Suitings opened to-day. -Nov. 2, 11

FOUR ARRESTS.—The police made four arrests for drunkenness last night.

REFERRING PLENTIFUL.—Good heads of herring were made yesterday at Pouch Cove.

RABBITS PLENTIFUL.—Rabbits are plentiful in the local market now and are selling as low as 30 cents a brace.

WILL GO TO FORTUNE BAY.—The schr. Francis, now at Baird's, will sail for Fortune Bay as soon as her cargo is all out, and will there take a load of fish for the owners.

SNOW UP COUNTRY.—A snow storm swept the western section of the country last night. The ground was covered this morning an inch in depth from Badger to Kitty's Brook.

ANOTHER PUBLIAN.—Another saloon keeper of the West End has been summoned by Const. Stamp for allowing on the premises a drunken man. The case will come up shortly for hearing.

A fisherman of Trinity Bay yesterday afternoon went to Mr. G. Lash's Saloon and committed the newest kind of a theft by lifting to his pocket a tumbler after he had partaken of a drink. The tender had his eye on him and quietly calling a policeman, had him arrested. He had nothing to say for himself in court to-day and was fined $10 or 30 days.

THE SOCIAL WHIRL.

The social whirl is a neat instrument of torture designed to make a man hump his back like a section boss on a hard-car. It is harder to break into what is known in polite circles as the social push than it is to work your way into a Masonic lodge with the Woodman grip and a $2 bill. Once in, however, nothing but sudden death or tucking the napkin back of a wing collar will cause a man to lose his standing in the order. Society leaders, like efficient plumbers, are born, not made. The chief qualifications of a society leader are a machine-turned leg for cotton purposes, a speaking acquaintance with "Pastry" and the ability to distinguish between the writings of Schopenhauer and E. P. Roe. If it were not for the social whirl, this country would be full of bankrupt hair dressers, masseurs, mole extractors and chiropodists, and the hotels of our great cities would be flooded with the peasant class and the odor of boiled cabbage. We have high Society to thank for two benefactions—it keeps a large amount of easy money in circulation and makes no appreciable drain upon the brains of the country. The only thing that will get a man into the Four Hundred nowadays is a jimmy and a scrambled coat of arms that would make old Louis XVI. kick the endgate out of his mausoleum.

Uncle Walt THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

"I have a kick coming," the chronic grouch said; then bricksbats were humming around his sore head. The pushers and boosters were tired of his game, and all those blithe roasters jumped onto his frame. They rolled him and churned him until full of ache, and then at last burned him alive at the stake. Perhaps they were hasty—some critics may say their course wasn't tasty or quite refreshingly. But what makes men sicker, when starting a boom, than seeing some kicker come reeking with gloom, to file his objections and utter his roar, and spring recollections of booms gone before? And what can be rougher on temper and soul, than hearing some duffer, who worships his roll, object to all measures, to croakings give vent, and balk at all pleasures that cost him a cent? To you, who are spinning the Boosterville sports, because of their burning a grouch, one retort: Some method of slaughter is needed for jays who're throwing cold water on things all their days.

The Road Board at Harbor Grace.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir:—Please allow me space in your valuable paper to say a few words regarding the Road Board of Harbor Grace. Well, sir, some time ago there was another big flood of water over our famous Long Hill, doing damage to people's property beyond repairs. Of course the first question people will naturally ask is what the cause of such an overflowing of water. Well, sir, our Harbor Grace correspondent to the Daily News says it's all Reid, and for people to blame it to the Road Board is only political spite. But, I read the correspondent that people with far better sight than he can see a lot to blame for the Road Board about that Hill. Well, first it's a public nuisance in the shape of rocks. When a big flow of water comes it goes over, filling the drain with debris. The result is it makes a drain of its own on the road, comes down on people's property and does great damage. Since the Road Board came in they have done nothing to prevent this, now the winter is coming on what's going to be the end of it. They can put a watchman there to prevent the drain from filling up with debris. I hope the Road Board will do something more than filling up the holes when it occurs.

Hallow 'E'en Entertainment.

The Hallow 'E'en entertainment given in aid of the Field-Spencer Association and held in the British Hall last night proved to be a splendid success and was thoroughly enjoyed. A concourse of people attended and the entertainment opened with an address by Principal Wood of Bishop Field College, who made reference to the aims of the Association, the good work done by it and the great necessity that existed for material support being given it by all who have the welfare of the colleges at heart. An excellent musical programme was then rendered. Miss Sybil Johnson gave a kindly violin solo; a duet "Half-Past Two" (the Arcadians) was given with much acceptance by Miss Withers and Mr. Cecil Clift; songs were given by Mr. M. Ruggles and Mrs. Job, and each item was rendered with such acceptance that great applause was accorded the performers and encores repeatedly asked for. The second part of the entertainment consisted of a one-act play, called "A Christmas Return." The cast was as follows: "Angelo, Comte de Velvye," Mr. Cecil Clift; "Jean Grubot," member of Republican Government, Mr. Cyril Carter; "Lafayette," Sister Flora; "Flora Clift," "Anne de Castel Verant," Miss To Angelo, Miss Mary Rendell; "Babette," maid to Anne, Miss Nellie Withers. The play was cleverly presented, each role receiving a rendition which highly pleased the audience. When the concert concluded, partridge suppers, teas, candies, etc., were served by the ladies of the Association, and all were kept busy for a long time. Booths in which there was fortune telling and varied amusements were conducted were in evidence and the proceeds amounted to a substantial sum. Those who inaugurated this pleasing night's entertainment are to be heartily congratulated on its success.

Yours truly, CLOSE OBSERVER. Harbor Grace.

SEVERE RAIN STORM.

Last night there was a very heavy rain storm which lasted until this morning. Rivers of water went over the steeper streets which in several cases were badly damaged, and a number of the Council employees were out all night clad in oil skins, clearing choked gutters and gratings. The men had a miserable time of it. Water St. West, near Mr. T. McCarthy's store, was badly flooded, and basements and cellars were in some cases flooded.

Yesterday's Football.

WIN FOR METHODIST COLLEGE.

Yesterday the Feildian and Methodist College football teams met in the inter-collegiate series of matches. When the latter, who put up a rattling game, defeated their opponents by a score of 6 goals to nil. The Methodist boys played all around their opponents, who, however, put up a plucky fight. The Methodist boys in the first half scored 5 goals. The Feildians put up a good defence in the second half and only permitted their opponents to score one goal. This victory of the Methodist College puts them on an equal footing with St. Bon's, and they must play off with them Saturday for the championship. If the Methodists win out they will retain the cup, having won it for three successive years.

Poultry Association.

The Nfld. Poultry Association has secured new rooms at Beck's Cove over Mr. M. A. Bastow's place and have fitted them up elaborately. Here they will hold their meetings in future and will have a convention on Tuesday night next. They are considering the advisability of having a poultry show if they can get encouragement from the Government.

Fishery News.

Coachman's Cove.—Nothing doing owing to heavy winds and scarcity of bait.

Curling.—Fair fishing in Humber this morning. Carbonate—Trawls 1/2 to 2 qts; bait scarce.

Seal Cove.—Boats 1/4 to 1/2 qtl; herring plentiful.

Lark Harbor.—Stormy weather; nothing doing.

Bonne Bay.—Catch of herring to-day was less than usual owing to stormy weather.

HOME REPORT.—The s.s. Home, Capt. J. Kean, arrived at Bay of Islands at 10:55 p.m. yesterday. Capt. Kean wired as follows: "Had strong W. and S.W. winds going down. Arrived at Battle Harbor Saturday at 10 p.m. Since leaving there had heavy gales W.S.W. and N. winds and heavy sea the whole trip. To-day the wind is northeast with showers."

Business People Complain.

Business people located in the extreme West End, between Job's St. and the Cross Roads, complain that they are put to great trouble and inconvenience by drunks and disorderly characters who wander into their stores, generally when they are very busy. One scamp visited a grocery in that vicinity Tuesday and conducted himself in a disgraceful manner before some female assistants, while his language was horrible to hear. A policeman was badly needed in that section of Water Street, and we believe that if the matter is brought to the notice of the Inspector General he will have it promptly attended to.

Wedding Bells.

Last evening at the R. C. Cathedral a pretty wedding took place, the contracting parties being Mr. John Donovan, turnkey, Water Dept., and Miss Johanna King, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Monsignor Roche. The bride, who was tastefully attired, was assisted by Miss Annie Toucher, whilst the groom was ably supported by Mr. William O'Brien. After the knot had been tied the wedding party drove to their future home, Gear Street, where refreshments were partaken of and songs and other amusements indulged in until midnight. The Telegram wishes Mr. and Mrs. Donovan a happy wedded life.

Codfish $7.

Monday and Tuesday at least three city fish dealers paid seven dollars per cwt. for 1 lb. Merchants fish which is excellently cured. Not often before has the staple gone up to this figure, certainly never in years gone by. About 2 years ago, when there was such a demand for small lots were sold at that figure. Men who watch the market keenly believe that the figure will be exceeded in the near future.

MET SERIOUS LOSS.—One of the men who recently joined the Naval Reserve yesterday lost $50, money which he received from the fishery. Whether he lost it on the ship or on the street he is not certain, but the matter is one of great concern to him.

There's Comfort In POSTUM

Many tea and coffee drinkers don't suspect that their nervousness, irritability, sleeplessness, etc., is caused by caffeine, the drug in tea and coffee.

These little aches and ills are Nature's protests against abuse; and when one's personal comfort is interfered with, common sense would suggest a change.

It's a safe move and a wise one to quit tea and coffee and take on well-made

POSTUM

When boiled until dark and rich (directions on package) and served piping hot with cream and sugar, Postum is a delicious, satisfying food-drink.

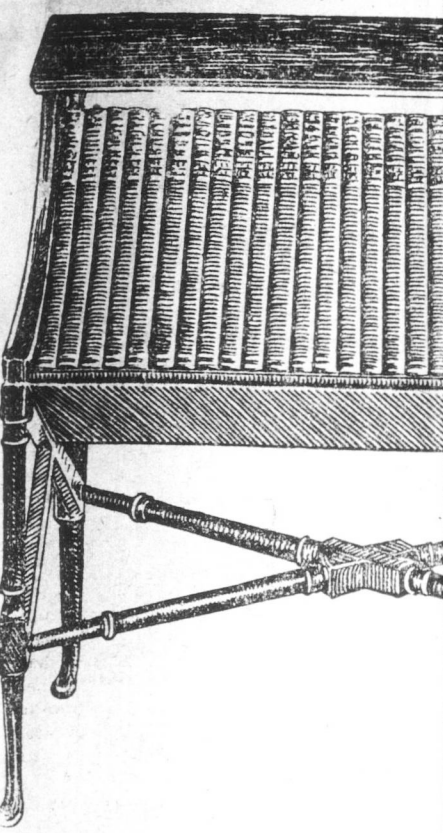

It contains the pure, wholesome nutrition of wheat—vitalizing, nerve-building elements which the body and brain require.
