Wedding Bells.

DOOLEY-COOK.

was the scene of a very pretty wedwhen Miss Mary (May) Dooley, eldest laughter of Const. and Mrs. Wm. Dooley, of this town, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. ohn P. Cook of St. Augustine's, N. D.B., the Rev. T. D. O'Neill officiating. The bride looked charming in a cosume of navy blue Panama serge and large picture hat, and carried a bouuet of white carnations. She was at ended by her sister, Miss Rita Dooley, who also looked well in idescent beads and hat to match thile the groom was ably supported by Mr. John J. Tobin, the popular assistant agent at the railway station here. The groom's present to the bride was a gold pendant, to the bridesmaid a gold signet ring, and to the groomsman a set of gold cuff links and collar pin. After the ceremony the happy couple repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where breakfast was partaken of, and where, at noon, a sumptuous repast was served to the bridal party and a number of friends, and the usual toast list gone through, among the guests being Rev. T. D. O'Neill. The bride and groom left by the afternoon train, amid showers of confetti, to spend a few days at Whitbourne before joining the Prospero at St. John's for Little Bay, where the honeymoon will be spent. The happy couple will return by the Clyde and take up resilence at Bishop's Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Cook were the recipients of a number of useful and valuable presents, The writer joins with their many friends in wishing them a long and happy voyage over the matrimonial

Obituary.

PATRICK B. MCGRATH.

With deepest regret we record a leath, which occurred at Patrick's Cove, P.B., on August 18th. in the person of Patrick B. McGrath. He had been ailing for some time and quiet-, ly and peacefully the end came. Deceased was fifty-five years of age, and was one of the hardy type of Newfoundlanders and one of the good old stock which is fast dying out. P. B., as he was usually called, was known by many in the city, especialy by the sportsmen, with whom he hunted game in years gone by. He was always ready to help his fellowmen and his hospitable home was ever open to welcome strangers. He received the last rites of Holy Church, the Rev. Fr. Ryan being at his bedside during his dying hours. He leaves a wife, three sons, two sisters, two brothers, and a large circle of friends to mourn their sad loss. May his soul rest in peace.

BEAUTIFUL HANDWORK FROM

An exhibition of handwork made a Bay, was held yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxillary at the King George V. Institute, Water Street. Quite a number of visiters including tourists were present. and all expressed their admiration of the splendid display and many purchases were made. On Monday Tuesday next the general public exhibits and no doubt a large number will avail of the eppertunity, as at a period when everything is machine made, the value of hand work is appreciated, and its possession one of the joys of the housewife. Amongst the articles on display, which attracts particular attention are Mercerised Floss Silk table runners. Table Covers of Lustre linen, Serviettes, Table covers, Bath Mats, and Floorings. The designs are very neat, the colors harmonious and the workmanship of the finest. All the articles are moderately priced and should command a ready sale. Other exhibits are toys made by children; these include pretty crochet basket work, carved bears, reindeer and sleds, snow shoes, etc. To Miss Minnie Pike who has charge of the Industrial School, great credit is due for the training she has given those of the Northland who have come under her care. During the long winter months, she has whole families under training, and the showing now being held, speaks for the success she has attained. Miss Pike was born on the West Coast and received her knowled-ge of weaving and other industrial arts through the Grenfell Association at the Training Institute, Berca, Kentucky. The exhibition is free and well worth seeing.
