

Hawco and M. P. Gibbs Nominee Insult the Southern Shore

Hon. M. P. Hawco, the political scoundrel, takes a great delight in insulting and insulting the electors of the Southern Shore of St. John's. He has a number of supporters in the upper part of the district, he is parading the Southern Shore as solid for him anyway, and gives as his reason for resigning from the late Ministry that he was elected the South Shore would not support him because Hon. M. P. Gibbs told him so. Imagine a man of this calibre appealing to the intelligent electors of Harbor Main and stinging the voters of the South Shore as being sheep driven at his and Gibbs' bidding. Surely a man of the Hawco type who one day take oath of office as King and Country under a certain Ministry and violates that obligation next day at the bidding of M. P. Gibbs, has not the impudence to face a district like Mr. Main and give for election. Why the very rocks along the shore cry out against him. Let him come on and we will put him in his proper place; and let him have a clear certificate that he has sworn allegiance to the President of the United States in preference to the Queen Jack. Let him explain himself on this matter before we will have anything to do with him. It is up to his political juggler and tool of M. P. Gibbs to clear his skirts before this day. Cheap talk won't count.

SOUTH SHORE.

Candidate Worthy of the District

JOHN OFFICER CARRIES MONUMENTAL BANNER INTO FOGG DISTRICT.

The people of Fogg require no introduction to their candidate, Captain Dalton, who carries the Monumental Banner into that District. For he attended to the needs of that district faithfully and well, as Captain of the Fogg, and was held in the highest esteem by all. He has resigned his position as 2nd Officer on the Red Cross liner, Silvia, to enlist his services in the country's cause, a moment when men of the type of Captain Dalton are urgently needed. Fogg will slow in no uncertain manner that he is the man that they require. Captain Dalton has not only a honorable career as a sailor, but a distinguished service in saving precious lives at the time of the loss of the Florizel, was fittingly recognized by the Royal Humane Society for bestowing upon him its highly honored medal. Conversant as he is with the needs of the district, his services as a member will be invaluable. This is Monro's man and Monro for clean Government and Economy.

Oscar Wildes' Great Play

WOMAN OF NO IMPORTANCE" AT THE MAJESTIC NEXT WEEK.

The management of the Majestic Theatre ask that parents refrain from bringing their children to the theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, when the great moral drama "Woman of No Importance" will be presented. This famous production from the select corporation is adapted from Oscar Wildes' celebrated play which was dramatized from the book of the same name, and features five well-known screen stars as announced in the advertisement. The following is a story in brief:

Michael, a young girl on the threshold of life, listened to the love-making of George Harford, the cynical man of the world, to whom women are but playthings of a moment. He begged her to marry her, but the pleasantry of the world distracted him and he promised never to materialize. Michael brings up her child in the name of her own father, toiling for her son's education, and with an inexhaustible love that makes her son's supreme regard. She becomes a barrister and the eyes of Rachel's eyes—and one day the outside world meets his father, not knowing who he is.

Michael as is the latter, he is attracted by this eager impetuous youth, who reminds him subtly of the woman he had known in the dim past, and he offers to make him his secretary. Rachel, not knowing of his attraction to the title, wishes to meet the man who is so good to her son and who she thinks he is the man who betrayed her.

Her son forsakes the career Harford might have made for him and returns to his mother's side, and so the love of a girl whom he had deceived is restored. Michael the same bill as last evening will be repeated, also at the special matinee for children this afternoon.

The test of Ivory Soap is that it cleanses thoroughly. No soap can do more. Many promise to work, won't use your complexion—but how many men can faithfully keep that promise?
