PRICE ONE CENT

LONDON, ONTARIO, MONDAY, JULY 6, 1903.

HIS HOLINESS POPE LEO IS SLOWLY PASSING AWAY

The Last Sacraments Have Been Administered to the Aged Pontiff, Whose Death Is Expected Hourly.

CARDINALS IN CONSTANT ATTENDANCE AT BEDSIDE

Latest Reports Say His Holiness Rested Slightly During the Night—Artificial Oxygen Is Being Used Constantly to Keep the Spark of Life Alive.

yesterday. The Pope has been bene- nutelli, with the Pope's confessor, as better, but it certainly is no worse.

(Signed) Lapponi, Mazzoni." following telegram from Rome: "The following telegram from Rome: "The death agony of Pope Leo has com- of the Gospel, the Lord's passion. As load of buckshot into his body. Condon menced. His demise may be expected the last words died away, all fell on at any moment. The last sacraments while the general condition of the then sank be issued this afternoon.

that he may prepare for the last com- the families of Count Ricardo Pecci nunion, which will be administered to- and Count Moroni, the Pape's nephews.' night with the participation of all the cardinals who are now in Rome, and "God's will be done. Who would have also the whole of the pontifical court. believed it when only ten days ago The Pontiff is still conscious. He finds I was presiding over a public consishis breathing has been somewhat re-lieved by innaling oxygen. There is he felt himself late last evening sink-issued at 8:40 p.m.: Since morning the sciousness. He groaned and com-Pope's weakness has increased slight- plained of pains on both sides of the ly, his pulmonary condition is unchanged, his breathing is somewhat ed by Pope Leo's valet and the physicapid, and his pulse, which is weak, is cian's assistant, De Castro, lifted the feetly (onscious (Signed) Lapponi, succeeded in giving the patie at this hour, though still grave, is prolonged by means of strong stimunot so serious as it was this afternoon. lant and concentrated nourishment, Dr. Lapponi thinks the danger of a and while he is still alive his wondercatastrophe during the night has been ful vitality may again resist and con-apostolic legation received a dispatch the ceremony of the last sacraments at 6 o'clock this evening from Cardinal were over, the Pope seemed less rest-Rampolla, the papal secretary of less, partly soothed by the religious state, regarding the serious illness of service and partly by a dose of the Pope. The dispatch is simply a copy of the first official bulletin concerning the Pontiff's condition issued lying on a small bed drawn up to a at Rome before noon today.

but woke with severe pains in the enly picture in the room is an antique chest. Dr. Lapponi gave him relief Madonna, and the sole ornament a by changing his position. saw Dr. Mazzoni Sunday on his return from consultation at Pope Leo's bedside. The doctor said: "The situ-near. The courtyard damazo is filled ation this time is certainly really with the carriages of the cardinals. Gardinal Satolli drove in great haste to patient, and his state of extreme Rome from Frascati last evening. In weakness. However, the case is not the court are drawn up the carriages yet desperate, especially with a man of the cardinals and of many notables. having such unexpected reserves of Servants and messengers hurry across energy, which at the age of 93 is indeed astonishing. The exact defini- tapers, and with the robes of the tion of the Pope's illness is senile dynamic pneumonia, but His Holi- ing within the palace. The ante-chamness has not the least idea that he is bers of the palace were thronged all attacked by any organic disease. In through the night with princes of the fact he was not in bed when I went church, high noblemen and members to the Vatican, but was seated in his of the diplomatic corps. Telegrams of usual armchair, where I am accus- inquiry have been received from sevtomed to see him every time I visit eral of the monarchs of Europe. Emthe place. He believes that the op- peror William expressed deepest regret pression of his chest and the accom-panying difficulty of breathing are that he would speedily recover. Rumors merely the results of extreme weak- are already in circulation as to ness. As soon as he saw me His Holi- probable successor of Pope Leo XIII. ness repeatedly requested me to turn my attention to the best means of restoring his strength, which, he said, was all he required, except a little the Pope's condition this morning was fresh air. Now and then the Pope so unnatural considering the gravity has recourse to his inveterate habit of of his iliness, that it was feared that snuff-taking, saying that he finds it possibly it was only the last flickering very refreshing. The weakness of the of the vital flame. patient's pulse and his short and ir- During this brighter interval the ing to gasping, are the only external and insisted on giving orders for the symptoms of any serious nature, but, as I said before, the Pope this morning was full of spirits and would not ing was full of spirits and would not take a grave view of his own case.
"When I left his holiness said, 'Come again soon. I will try to give you a better reception." During the afternon the strength of the Pontiff began to fail him so rapidly and his condition became so critical that his condition became so critical, that hours of life remained to him. It was therefore deemed wise to advise him #### whole of the pontifical court.

THE LAST SACRAMENT. Leo. The central figure was the dying Pontiff, whose long life's journey is lost postportion the contract of t nearly over, calmly preparing to enter postponing the end. If this is the will the dark valley. His pale and emaci- of the Almighty nothing can change ated face, almost as white as the it. pillows on which it rested, showed Cloak and Sword in the picturesque perform some public function. the Sacred College who are present in doctors agreeing that there are not Rome, stately and venerable figures in their sweeping crimson robes, the sufficient changes in his condition to chronicle them more often. whole forming a scene of rich yet The Pope insists on staying up and headed by Cardinal Rampollo, and in- tivity.

Rome, July 6 .- "Although His Holi- cluding all the private chamberlains, ness passed the night almost without was there. Nearest to the bed stood sleep, he is not so uneasy as he was Grand Penitentiary, Serafino Vanthe imposing figure of the Cardinal fitted by the injection of digitalis and hear the last confession of the decamphor, and the condition of his chest is normal. There is a slight cough, with some catarrhal emissions. Suffi- and administer the extreme unction, cient nourishment has been taken. The assisted by the grand penitentiary. pulse is still weak, but not inter- Pope Leo feebly recited the confes sion of faith, as formulated by the mittent and the temperature is below Council of Trent, and finally the words normal. The condition of the august of absolution and the formula of inpatient, therefore, cannot be described dulgence in articulo mortis were solemnly pronounced by the grand penitentiary. The heads of the great religious orders who were presented granted Brussels, July 6.—The Catholic organ, Le Vinntieme Siecle, has received the tral to Crawford. A drunken miner. Then came the touching ferring.

their knees, the pontiff, raising his sailant, fatally wounding him, but the almost transparent finger, with a feeble effort Rome, July 5.-A bulletin issued by audible words his benediction on the the physicians at Rome states that Sacred College, and on all present, and back on the pillows. Pope is grave for the moment, it is the whole assemblage, and the sobs There was scarcely a tearless eye in not alarming. A second bulletin will of the Pope's relatives were plainly heard. Deep silence followed, only 7:20 p.m.-At this hour the Pope is broken now and again by a murmursinking so fast that it has been con- ed prayer or pious ejaculation. In the sidered best to gradually inform him portion of the Loggio of Raphael, adjoining the papal apartments, wer still some hope that he may survive ing into a sleep which lasted about the night. 8:45 p.m.—The following bulletin was brought the dying Pontiff back to conthorax. Tenderly Dr. Lapponi, assistss than normal. His Holiness is per- frail form and changing the position, relief. Though hovering on the brink 11 p.m.—The condition of the Pope of death the life of the Pontiff is still quer the attack of his illness. Late Washington, D. C., July 5. — The last evening when the excitement of window overlooking the piazza of St. Rome, Monday, July 6, 2:56 a.m.— Peter's. The chamber is very large The Pope has had three hours' sleep, and draped with green curtains. The great ivory crucifix. The interior of The Associated Press correspondent the Vatican during the early hours of the court with bundles of huge wax ecclesiastical dignitaries who are wait-

Rome, Monday, July 6, 3 a.m.

Rome, July 6.-The amelioration in LIFE'S LAST FLICKERING.

regular breathing, gradually approach- Pope resumed his habits of command on the Pope's death the secretary of

of his grave condition, and this was done with tender precaution. Pope Leo was thus prepared for his last communication which are assumed immediately by the secretary of the consistorial congregation.

Although Dr. Lapponi continually communion, which was administered recommends the patient not to speak tonight, with the participation of all and to pay no attention to what is the cardinals now in Rome, and the passing outside, the Pope gently refuses to abandon participation in what is going on. He said, smiling, to Dr Lapponi: "I know you say this be-cause of your affection for me, but of administering the last sacrament took place at the bedside of Pope Leo. The central forms were the time which takes of the time which takes of the time which takes of the time which takes the sacrament ing, in which takes of the time takes of the ti

The Pope wished his arm chair to be little sign of life, except the keen. carried near his writing table and then glittering eyes, always his most strik- to the window, overlooking the piazza ing feature. Around the bed were of St. Peter. Noticing many people in grouped the Noble Guards, in their carriages, the Pope said: "The piazza glittering uniforms, the Knights of the looks as it does when I am about to Only two bulletins regarding the medieval costume of black with white medieval costume of black with white Pope's health will be issued daily, the coloring, a fit subect for the walking at intervals, saying that weakbrush of Rembrandt. The whole of ness is the worst part of his illness, what is called the pontifical family, against which the best remedy is ac-

SCORES KILLED BY CLOUDBURST

Pennsylvania Resort Swept Away By Waters.

ONE HUNDRED LIVES WERE LOST

Picnic Grounds Situated in Ravine Overwhelmed By Immense Wall of Water.

Greenburg, Pa., July 6 .- A waterspout of immense proportions struck in the vicinity of Oakford Park at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and created a flood that caused great loss of life and property. It is known that at least 20 persons lost their lives, and rumors place the number of dead at more than 100, but up to a late hour only three or four bodies have been recovered, having been washed to the banks of the little creek that runs He Fatally Wounds His Assailant parallel with the park.

HIS HOLINESS POPE LEO XIII.

A CONTRACTOR MURDERED

Before Dying.

Knoxville, Tenn., July 6.-Meager details of the murder of J. J. Condon, a prominent railroad contractor of Knox-

this city.

ville, at Crawford, Tenn., have reached

Condon was engaged in building a branch road from the Tennessee Cen-grabbed a winchester and shot his asbarrass the Russians.

United States and Britain Receives a Set-Back.

Japan and Great Britain.

A POINT FOR AUSTRIA

Emperor Gives Her Statesmen a Say

in Government.

London, July 6.-The Vienna corres-

published today, in which the Emperor will express his gratitude for the Premier's past services, confidence in his ability to manage the public affairs in the future and will recognize the right of Austrian statesmen to be consulted before important decision are taken in affairs common to Austria

RUSSIA CHANGES TACTICS

Censor Suspends Publication of Anti-

Semitic Organ.

London, Monday, July 6.-A dispatch to the Chronicle from Berlin says that the Znamia, a violently anti-Semitic paper, published in St. Petersburg by Kruschevan, the editor of the Bessarabetz, which worked so much mischief at Kishineff, has been interdicted by the censor for a month. This state ment confirms the report from Germany that the anti-Semitic campaign

he Interior, is becoming inconvenient

o the Russian Government, which is concerned at the indignation through-anticipate the reports of eminent Rus-

the feeling at Kishineff, Hitherto Krus-chevan has been permitted by the au-out his last article, headed "Death to Beached the Transport.

Won't Give In.

the censor down on him.

and Hungary.

COUNT CASSINI

The names of those known and believed to have been drowned are Miss Gertrude Keefer, aged 19, of Jeanette: Edward O'Brien, of Latrobe; Joseph Overlick, of Indianapolis; Lucy Crum, of Jeanette: Councilman Light, wife and two children, of Greenburg.

At 3 o'clock rain began to fall in torrents in the vicinity of the park who had been seeking trouble with a and spread over territory covering probably ten miles. Half an hour later the cloudburst occurred. The waters in the lake north of Oakford miner fired a second shot which killed Park began to rise, and Manager James McGrath, believing there was danger of a final break in the great walls of the dam, hurried among the crowds of pleasure seekers who had gathered under the roofs of the eating stands, the dancing pavilion, and other buildings, and warned them to run to the hills. On both sides of the pleasure grounds are high hills, the park being located in a ravine about a quarter of a mile wide and a

Mr. McGrath and his assistant, Charles E. Thomas, entered each building in turn and simply drove the crowds out into the rain did they realize that the managers were in earnest. The gather-MADE TOO MUCH OF PETITION ing flood meant the breaking of the ARMED MOBS PARADE STREETS France. Troops lined the entire route, wall that held five acres of water. Soon after the buildings had been clearned the waters swept over the Lansdorff's Plot to Seperate the entire length of 400 feet of the dam. Threats Made to Blow Up Negro Presidential stand, M. Loubet carried The park buildings, the merry-go-round and other amusement places were twisted about, and all but the dancing pavilion and lunch stands were carried from their foundations. The rain continued to fall in torrents, London, July 6.-The St. Petersburg and it was not long before a section or the wall gave way with a correspondent of the Standard telecrash. The flood beat down the ravine graphs that official circles there are with a roar that was heard for two nervous over the situation in the far miles. east, especially Count Cassini's diplomatic methods. The Russian ambas-sador at Washington sador at Washington is accused of The entrance gates to the park were making too much of the petition re- lifted, and with the force of a pile garding the Kishineff massacre and driver the mammoth posts were hurled by the water against the barn. too little of the American policy in Beyond were located the small waitthe far east. The Russian Governing room, and on the track was standment, continues the correspondent, would have looked with equanimity on the presentation of the Kishineff ing a car loaded with passangers on their way to Greensburg and Jeanette. The electric storm had rendered the petition, which binds nobody, if in repower south of this place useless, and the motorman was unable to move turn an understanding could have been reached respecting Russia's claims in the car. The flood struck the wait-Manchuria. It is now feared that ing room containing probably a dozen Russia will be obliged to forego Count people. A number of them struggled Lamsdorff's plans concerning Manto a point of safety, but it is believed churia and China, which depended on separating the United States from ed. The street car was caught and of the city.

death, he released his hold and the women sank. It was with the greatest women sank. It was with the greatest difficulty that he managed to get to "kill the negroes," and arms were deshore. The names of the women are not known.

Standing on the platform near the waiting room were a man and his whose names have not been husband escaped, but the wife was if the negro was lynched. This started learned. When the flood came the carried away. Hundreds who at nightin search of their loved ones. Many seized. William Clinch, jun., of this city,

WEATHER BULLETIN

Tomorrow-Fine and Warm Toronto, July 5-8 p.m. warm throughout the Dominion, except powerless. The negroes, after the first that local thunderstorms have occurred and have not made a stand since. They are flying in terror. Thousands of M. Von Plehve, Russian Minister of Ontario. The temperature has been very generally moderate, but readings over 80° have been reported in Eastern Manitoba

They are flying in terror. Thousands of shots were fired during the night.

The riot began growing still worse at out the civilized world caused by the Minimum and maximum temperatures:
Victoria, 50–60; Calgary, 44–54; Edmonton, 46–72; Qu'Appelle, 48–76; Winnipeg, 50–86; Parry Sound, 60–72; Toronto, 63–82; Ottawa, 60–70; Montreal, 58–76; Quebec, 52–

14 Octock this morning. The governor has been appealed to a second time.

At 6:30 Captain Brenke, of the police force, reported that there was little possibility of peace. Budd Fruit is thought to have incited the negroes to and Western Ontario. strocities at Kishineff, and seems to sian publicists who have been studying 80; Halifax, 50-76.

thorities to fulminate againt the Jews, FORECASTS Light, variable winds: fine and warm he Jews," is reported to have called today and Tuesday. Temperatures. Calgary ... Manila, July 6.-The United States Parry Sound..... 66 transport Sumner, having on board the Fourth Infantry, struck an unc. rted Montreal ...... 6 ly, necessitating the vessel being Quebec ...... Father Point.... WEATHER NOTES.

Waterburg, Conn., July 6.-By unan- The weather has been fine since Saturmen's Union voted at a meeting held yesterday not to accept what they call a proposition from the Connecticut Railway and Lighting Company to return to work on the cars. The officials

PRESIDENT LOUBET OF FRANCE. barely escaped from the rush of water and was an eye-witness to the awful disaster. His statement is as follows: "I was standing at the car barn at the time the warning was given. Two came running from the park, and said that the dam had burst. afterwards learned that the dam broke at the upper end, and at the lower end of the ministers and many other offithe water overflowed." waiting room where board the street cars was full of women and children. Scarcely any of

A telephone message from Jeanette children perished by the cloudburst at train pulled out of the station. Oakford Park. The majority were drowned or swept to death against the rocks in Brush Creek, but a number dent Loubet arrived here at 10 a.m., and were electricuted. At least 800 persons was accorded a hearty reception by the were at the park seeking relief from assembled crowds. He proceeded im-

FIERCE RACE WAR

His Diplomatic Methods Em- leave their protection, and not until Blacks and Whites Create a the embellishment. The fishing indus-Reign of Terror.

Out Troops.

Colony-Governor Orders

Evansville, Ind., July 6.-Race prejudice between blacks and whites brought on a reign of terror here Sunday. All last night and all day yeslives of citizens. Gun stores were broken open and weapons and ammunition were seized by blacks and whites. Two thousand whites broke into the county jail to hunt for a biack victim. The wall was forced with a battering ram, negro dives were ransacked, and shot to pieces in the search for the blacks, and an armed company of drilled blacks marched through the streets, threatening the lives of all whites. The governor has ordered out troops to quell the disturbance, but they have not arrived. At daylight this morning 300 armed white wen started for the powder magazine near the city to secure expiosives with which they declare they will blow up the entire swept into the creek.

Among those who were washed into the flood were C. M. McClain, of months and came to a crisis Friday, Greenburg; Edward O'Brien and when Lee Brown, a negro shot and kil-Joseph Overly, and Misses Keefer and led Patrolman Massey, who was trying Cum. Young McClain is an expert to arest him while bent on the murswimmer, and the cries for help from der of a man with whom he had quar- stroyed by fire last evening, causing the two unknown women brought the reled. Threats of vengeance were fol- an enormous conflagration, which young man to their side as they lowed by the surrounding of the jail. struggled in the water. He grabbed The negro was secretly removed from them about the waists and kept their the city yesterday to Vincennes. Paheads above water as the three were trolman Massey died in terrible agony The fire is a serious blow to the Expondent of the Times says an imperial letter to Premier Von Koerber, who letter to Premier Von Koerber Von Koe has tendered his resignation, will be women for more than a mile, and then in the jail, and repulsed the first atexhausted and ready to sink to his tempt to force an entrance after the gates were crushed in. Finding the > manded. A company of armed negroes aroused by the race troubles, marched through the streets shouting "Down with the whites," and threatening death to all a rush for the gun stores by the whites.

The mob, shooting, went through, the confusion has prevented houses being searched for the dead and wounded. Monday, July 6.

Sun rises. 4:42 a.m. Moon rises. 5:22 p.m.

Sun rises. 4:42 a.m. Moon rises. 5:22 p.m.

Sun rises. 4:42 a.m. Moon rises. 5:22 p.m.

Sun rises. 4:42 a.m. Moon rises. 5:22 p.m. Sun sets...8:02 p.m. Moon sets...2:33 a.m. and failing to find victims, the resort of Budd Fruit was visited and shot to pieces. Whether any were killed there The weather today has been fine and is not yet known. The officials were less if another outbreak occurs.

Son Shoots Father.

THE PRESIDENT OF FRANCE IS WELCOMED TO ENGLAND

An Enthusiastic Greeting by Immense Crowds for Mr. Loubet Upon His Arrival at Dover.

ESCORTED BY BRITISH BATTLESHIPS AND CRUISERS

French Warships Exchange Salutes With Dover Castle—The Duke of Connaught, Appointed to Wait Upon the President, Welcomes Him in the Name of King Edward.

Dover, England, July 6. - The | East ship saluted with 21 guns as the French cruiser Guichen, having Presi- Guichen passed, and the band of each dent Loubet on board, was sighted at The Guichen anchored off Dover short-12:40 p.m.

left here this morning on his way to England to return the recent official and paid official visits to President visit of King Edward. He was ac- Loubet. It was 1:40 p.m. when Presicompanied by Foreign Minister Del- dent Loubet stepped ashore. There casse and half a dozen other functionaries, who composed his suite. Most cials were present at the railway station to bid farewell to the President, who was greeted with hearty cries of "Vive Loubet!" and "Vive La Repubsays from 50 to 75 men, women and lie!" by the enthusiastic crowds as the Boulogne-Sur-Mer. July 6. — Presi- rival for the first time in his life. mediately to the docks, in order to at- The introductions followed. Subsetown was overflowing with sightseers, speech in England and the route of the Presidential train from the suburbs to the docks was lav-2:30 p.m. ishly decorated with Venetian masts, trophies, streamers and triumphal arches. Fishing nets, as representative arrived in London soon after 4 o'clock of the chief industry of Boulogne-Sur-Mer were also prominent features of try was further represented by a tri-umphal arch entirely composed of fishbarrels, buoys, life belts and similar articles. Such a display of British Union Jacks had seldom been seen in and the immense crowds throughout, gave M. Loubet a memorable reception. On reaching the tastefully decorated out the ceremony of laying the foundation stone of the new basin. After decorating a few notabilities, M Loubet lunched, embarked on a torpedo boat, and proceeded to the French cruiser Guichen, which sailed for Dover, England, at 11:50 a.m., amidst a salute of 101 guns and a general ringing of bells.

THE NAVAL DISPLAY. people lined the sea front, which pre- them. After an inspection of the guard sented a gala appearance, the decora- of honor, the King and M. Loubet left tions being on a scale far in excess the station and entered a state carriof anything previously attempted.

As soon as the Guichen was sighted the Duke of Connaught were also seatdestroyers steamed out to meet her ment of Life Guards, was then drivdisplay ever seen off Dover. A DISASTROUS BLAZE

Grounds Destroyed.

hibition grounds were completely dethreatened to spread to the other buildings. It was fortunately checked. The loss is $10,000, covered by insurance. hibition directors, as the Fair is only

GROUND TO PIECES

Horrible Death of a Switchman in Windsor Yards.

Windsor, July 6.-Charles Hodgins, here, met death in a horrible form last that it appears that the Turkish mili-Three were broken open and 400 sifles night. He had just given a signal hastened with lanterns over the hills and revolvers, with ammunition, were to the engineer of one of the yard engines to back down when his foot was as at first supposed, while the Bul-One negro woman is known to be caught in an open frog directly in garian Government has already receivrelatives on their way home. Late dead and a boy named Logan was front of the engine. There was no one ed, in reply to its recent note, satislast night many of those who were first reported missing turned up here.

The many of the seriously wounded by a negro.

The many of the escaping steam, the engineer failed to powers, declaring their readiness to hear his cries to stop. The wheels exert all their influence for the prestreets inhabited by negroes, and the passed entirely over his body, which servation of peace. The principal was ground literally into pulp. Hodgings was 23 years of age, and unmar-

AN OTTAWA MYSTERY

an inquest today.

Girl Said to Have Told Strange Story of Father's Death.

Ottawa, July 6. - Mrs. Lalonde, and a man named Desrosiers were arrested lations in connection with Carlyle's life, force, reported that there was little by the Ottawa police in consequence and as moreover those living persons possibility of peace. Budd Fruit is of queer reports in circulation. The who have been indulging in a dispute thought to have incited the negroes to woman and her husband formerly lived over the matter are more or less closeriot. The armed force of negroes is on St. John's Island in the Georgian ly united one to the other by family still at large, and is defying the of- Bay, and Desrosiers was a boarder ties, the Law Times reminds the peoficers. No arrests have been made. No deaths have been reported. The company of militia which was ordered on had a three-year-old child, and the lit-sible they will expose themselves to the scene by Governor Durban has not the one is alleged to have stated that serious legal consequences, more espearrived and an investigation will follow the failure of the captain of the father was thrown overboard and some motives not altogether historical, company to respond to the call of the drowned. The police were unable to should be shown to actuate them. state and city authorities. Captain obtain any further evidence to justify It is a common misdemeanor to pub-Brenke says the police force is power- them in detaining Mrs. Lalonde, and lish defamatory matter about dead per-Desrosiers, but are looking into the sons so as to bring them and their return to work on the cars. The officials of the company deny that any offer has been made. The strikers have been out now nearly 60 months.

Mrs. Bonner Dead.

Moore, it is alleged had attacked a younger son. The other son, Ernest, who was at one time a well-why had passed the station is dead. In the descent from the car she struck was remonstrating with the father, who was at one time a well-why had passed the station is dead. In the descent from the car she struck was remonstrating with the father, who was at one time a well-why had passed the station is dead. In the descent from the car she struck was remonstrating with the father, who was at one time a well-why had passed the station is dead. In the descent from the car she struck was remonstrating with the father, who was at one time a well-why had passed the station is dead. In the descent from the car she struck was remonstrating with the father, who was at one time a well-why had passed the station is dead. In the descent from the car she struck was remonstrating with the father, who was at one time a well-who makes at the widow of Edge and the descent from the car she struck was remonstrating with the father, who was at one time a well-who makes at the widow of Edge and attacked a showery.

Local temperatures: Saturday—Highest, $0.5°; lowest, $6°. Sunday—Highest, $0.5°; lowest, $6°.

vessel in turn took up the Marseillaise. ly after 1 o'clock and exchanged salutes Paris, July 6. - President Loubet with Dover Castle. The admirals and captains of the British fleet immediately went on board the French cruiser by the French ambassador, M. Cambon, and a number of officials appointed to be in attendance on M. Loubet during his visit, extended to the Presi-

M. Loubet landed at the Prince of Wales pier. As the President passed the "Marseillaise," and thousands of spectators gave visitor a cordial welcome on his ar-the Duke of Connaught was most cordial. The duke expressed the King's tend there a ceremony of laying the quently the mayor of Dover presented M. Loubet with an address of welcome foundation stone of the new basin. The The President's reply was his first

M. Loubet left Dover for London at LATER.

London, July 6. - President Loubet road station by King Edward and the Prince of Wales, accompanied by the cabinet ministers and other distinguished persons.

The feature of all decorations was the profusion of the French national colors in bunting and flowers. King Edward wore a field marshal's uniform and the grand cordon of the Legion of Honor, The Prince of Wales had on an admiral's uniform. They awaited the King's guest, His majesty stepped forward as the shook hands with him. King Edwar then introduced the Prince of Wale the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke Fife, Premier Balfour, Foreign Min ter. Lansdowne, Field Marshal Roberts, and others, who were all in uniform or court dress. M. Loubet presented the members of his suite to the Dover, July 6.-Immense crowds of King, who warmly shook hands with the Sheerness flotilla of torpedo boat ed. The vehicle, escorted by a detachescorted the French cruiser en through the crowded, troop-lined through a double line of British battle-ships and cruisers, extending 2½ miles, clubland, in Piccadilly, to St. James and forming the most imposing naval Palace. M. Loubet was loudly cheered everywhere.

ACCIDENTALLY DROWNED

Cattle Sheds of Winnipeg Exhibition Lewis Wood, of Niagara Falls, Drowned in Welland Canal.

Winnipeg, July 6.—Nine large cattle | St. Catharines, Ont., July 6. — Lewis stables at the Winnipeg Industria Ex- Wood, about 22 years of age, was accidentally drowned at Lock 18, old Welland Canal, about 8 o'clock last night. Wood, who was unable to swim, got beyond his depth, while bathing in company with some friends. His companions made an effort to save him, but failed. Wood was spending the Sunday here, his home being at Niagara Falls,

A CHRISTIAN MASSACRE

The Mussulman Element of Turkey May Start One.

Sofia, July 6. — The situation is reswitchman in the Grand Trunk yards garded with greater confidence now danger now is on the side of Turkey, owing to the exasperation of the contingency of a massacre of Christians in Macedonia.

CARLYLE'S ASSAILANTS.

A Legal Journal Warns Them Against Libeling the Dead.

London, July 6.- As considerabe feeling has already been coused by revelatives into public contempt.

Died From Injuries.

Montreal, July 6 .- Miss Lauzon, one a C. P. R. express on Saturday near Vaudreuil, under the impression that