TODAY'S MARKET WAS BRISK ONE

Small Supply of Hay, Plenty of Vegetables and Much Fruit.

There was a very good turnout at the ocal market this morning and sales were brisk. The supply of hay was not quite titles and there was a good demand but very little variation in price. Tomatoes were somewhat easier selling from 15c to 25c at retail, and the supply was very large and there was a remarkably good as formerly. The reason for this is that the crop is practically a total failure in cluding December at $5.35; September, this locality, as the dry weather prevented the maturing of the plants. Fruit was very plentiful and somewhat to 12c. easier in price. Plums were wholesaling at 40c to 50c; peaches, No. 1, at 85c; No. 2 at 65c, and pears mostly at 35c. MORE TROUBLE WITH EVA STREET SEWER

Residents of Eva street continue to have their troubles about that now famous sewer. This time it has been "knocked" for allowing sewage to back into the cellars, and a number of me will be placed at work to repair the difficulty.

London's Little Eva. A battle of over a year's duration, during which time petitions for and Saunders. against the "improvement" were hurled at the board of works in bundles, was held before the sewer was built, and according to many residents the job will have to be turn up and relaid.
