It was an uphill fight for the visitors, but a flock of hits and runs off Steiger, ably assisted by Eddie Linneborn in the eighth inning, made it a winning one. Up to that time the locals were leading by a scant margin mainly because of three tallies that came in the first inning. The visitors did not begin scoring until the third, but three successive tallies in the third, fourth and fifth innings, respectively, caused the retirement of "Doc" Reisling, who was being hit pretty hard, and brought out Stelger. The Detroit southpaw was more effective against the Beavers than the London manager had been, and besides his support wobbied badly. After the visitors had taken the lead in the eighth the locals counted one more in their half and drew up within one London Led Until Eighth. lead in the eighth the locals counted one more in their half and drew up within one run of tieing the score. In the ninth, with heavy hitters up, they tried hard to get that run, but beyond a nice single by Louis Bierbauer there was nothing stirring.

Conly one hit was gleaned from Doc. Reisling's slants in the first two innings, and nobody got farther than second base. In London's half of the first, Eddie Lin-In London's half of the first, Eddie Lineborn beat out a grounder to Murphy, and London sacrificed. Lamy's single to right scored Linneborn, and Bierbauer's triple in the same direction scored Lamy. Bierbauer was out at the plate on Whit craft's hit to Schneider, but Whiteraft scored on Reidy's triple to centre, Mullin walked but on an attempted double steal, Reidy was nailed at the plate.

In the third, with one down, Pitcher Schaub singled to left, and Loud followed with a single to right. Schaub fell going to third, and had to dig back to second Loud being nailed half way between first and second. Burill hit to Linneborn, but Linny juggled the ball, and Burill was safe. "Germany" Schulty came through with a single to right, and Schaub scored. Schultz was forced at second on Ort's grounder to Linneborn. Lamy Scores One.

In the fifth, with two gone, Linneborn booted Ort's grounder, and Ort immediately responded by stealing second, catchin the whole London team flatfooted. He scored on Schnieder's single to left. Ort interfered with Snyder when the latort interiered with Snyder when the lat-ter was waiting for Long's throw with the result that the ball went to the grand-stand. Schnieder also came in, but after a lot of arguing on the part of both man-agers he was sent back to third, where he was left when Murphy grounded out was left when Murphy grounded out.

Mike Mullin Hits One.

In London's half Mullin opened with a nice double to left centre. Snyder poled one nearly to the fence, but it fell foul by a few inches only. He grounded out while Mullin went to third. Steiger's long fly to Burrill scored Mullin, but Linneborn grounded out and ended the inning. Toronto went out in order in the ninth and Long and Lamy were quickly retired in London's half. Bierbauer singled to centre, but was forced at second on Whiteraft's grounder to Murphy.

The game was marked by two nice catcles in the outfield, Lamy picking one

LEONARDS AND ST. DAVIDS PLAYED A DRAW GAME

Leonards and St. Davids played a tie game on Trafalgar field Saturday afternoon, neither team scoring in the allotted time. A good crowd of fans were present. St. Davids won the toss and elected to kick against the wind. Both teams started off fast on the kick-off. St. Davids kept the Leonard defence busy for a time, but Leonards soon threatened the St. Davids' goal. Oakley missed a fine shot by inches only, and Ledgas also bored one in that forced a corner kick from the Anglicans' goalkeeper. Burgess scored for St. Davids, but the goat was disallowed, the referee calling offside. In the second half, play was pretty much the same. Wakefield scored for Leonards, but an offside was called on the play. Neither team had an opportunity to score before full time was called.

Sacrito the Ottawa Senators on Saturday. The first contest was a battle royal, not being won until three men were out in the last inning. Roy Wilkinson, who lost but one game in the Canadian League last season, worked for the locals, and Hall, Manager Shaughnessy's new twirler secured from Cleveland, was on the slab for the visitors. While Wilkinson lost the verdict, he really deserved to win, his support being indifferent at times. The Saints were woefully weak at first base, Thrailkill playing the bap, on several occasions Nevitt had players nailed off the base, but Thrailkill's awkwardness prevented him from tagging the runners. Champs Score in First.

The Champs busied themselves in the initial inning when Nill singled to right, stole second, and tallied on Roger's double to right. They garnered another in the second on Powers' hit, a stolen base, an infield out, and Snykal's sacrifice, squeezing Powers and the sixth Roger's heat ing Powers over. In the sixth Rogers beat out a bunt, Dolan singled to short, Rogers stole third on a very doubtful play, Umpire Walsh calling him safe, and crossed the pan on Pete Powers' sacrifice fly to Kopp. They added another in the seventh after two were down. Bullock getting free transportation to first; he pilfered second, and scored on Nill's hit to left.

The Saints Try Hard.

The Saints made a big bid for the game in their part of this frame. After the first two men had been retired, Wilkinson hit out a Texas leaguer to centre, Kopp sent a screaming double to left, "Midge" was punctured in the ribs by a pitched ball, filling the sacks. Chief Nevitt came across with a beautiful single bear of the same in the control of the sacks. Craven also scored when Powers threw over Bullock's head, trying to catch him at third, Nevitt takng third base. Kustus poked a safe hit lown the third base line, and Nevitt down the third base line, and Nevitt raced home with the tieing run, and one thousand fans went wild with excitement.

Smykal Scores Winning Run.

There was nothing doing in the eighth, but after two were out in the first of the ninth, and Smykal camped on second, Dusty Bullock crashed out a single, sending Smykal home, and breaking it up.

The Saints had a gleam of hope in their half of this inning, with no one on and half of this inning, with no one on and two gone, Manager Craven drove a terri-fic liner to left for three bases, but Nevitt grounded to Nill and was tossed out.

Baker Pounded Hard.

The second contest was "black Saturday for one William Baker," the Champs lacing his offerings to all parts of the lot. Shocker, the visitors' twirler, went along until the ninth without being scored on, but the Saints found their batting eyes, and pounded out six hits in succession. and pounded out six hits in succession resulting in four runs. The Ottawa clut looks to be in better condition, especially with the old willow. Harry Howick will pitch Monday's game against Peterboro.
