THISTLE CLUB EUCHRE

W. G. Stewart won the twenty-five dollar brass bed, the trophy given to the winner of the Thistle Club's four night euchre tourney, last night, by defeating A. Chapman, whom he had tied for first honors. Both contestants had secured an aggregate of 385 points, and in the play-off Mr. Stewart, after a close fight, annexed the laurels.

The winners for the four nights were:

Gilbert Coombs, L. Spry, A. Chapman and S. D. Swift. The euchre contests were all well attended, and the fact that nearly all of the members of the club are real exponents of the game, made competition unusually keen.
