Saturday's soccer bill produced scores that looked more like cricket than soccer, but even despite the steady dribble of goals in different games, the fans were well pleased with the display.

Public Utilities had little difficulty in keeping ahead in their group; Machine Gunners, however, were forced to retire to second place when St. John's Rovers beat them 3 to 0. They were well beaten in the first half of their game at the heights, with the score 2 to 0 in favor of the Railway City Boursier scored the visitors' third goal.

R. C. R.'s defeat in the first game at the Heights was one of the biggest surprises this season, and a lot of the supporters of the Royals are still wondering what got into the players of their side. Penrose of the winners was ordered off the field for an infringement of the rules, and will be suspended until his case is taken up by the L. and D. Council.

P. U.'s Again.
The game started off very fast, both goalkeepers being called upon to save, but the P. U. playing better football, scored 5 goals—Hazelwood 3, Ridley 1, and Johnson 1.

In the second half the P. U. took things easy and scored three more—Ridley 2, and Turner 1.
Public Utilities line-up: Goal, Whitworth; backs, Hunt and Dennis; half backs, Bromhead, Smith and Short; right wing, Turner and Hazelwood; centre, Ridley; left wing, Leigh and Johnson.
Referee—E. Devlin.

SARNIA, May 1.—After Joe Allen's retirement for holding the Port Huron-Sarnia Minters hitless for three innings, the Regulars went after the Yannigans hard today and defeated them 8 to 0 in an eight-inning contest. Horne, Keiffer, McMillan and Ruesen; Allen, Moses, Hotchkiss, Bulard, Shawler, with the team last year, is almost sure to be one Phil-lion looks slated for the discard, leaving Greitz and Ruesssen to be picked from. There will be no spare infielders or outfielders carried by the manager.

Hump Will Go In.
In case of injury to his players of the inner or outer garden "Hump" will step into the breach himself. Doyle is a certainty for first. Kelly cannot be kept off third. Worley is a certainty for shortstop, with Morrison, Watson and Keonig to be picked from for the second sack. Morrison, who has been showing some pretty fielding, will likely get the call, though the other two may catch on in the outfield. Outfielders will comprise the greater part of the excursion that left Canada's shores via the Port Huron-Sarnia ferry. Proulx, Watson, Keonig, Rimer, Lowder, Hooker, Flanagan and Kaylor are the outfield possibilities. Kaylor, a regular outfielder, and the heavy clubber of the team, will be on the opening line-up, and it is going to be hard to keep Watson away from the pay office.

Manager Pierce of the Sarnia-Port Huron team Sunday released a batch of aspirants for places on the team. Five pitchers will be retained for the coming season. This means that two of the hurling squad will get the gate, though the manager did not state who they would be. Two catchers will be retained with the team last year, is almost sure to be one Phil-lion looks slated for the discard, leaving Greitz and Ruesssen to be picked from. There will be no spare infielders or outfielders carried by the manager.

Ross So Pleased With Star Voter He Puts Him
In Kentucky Derby

MONTREAL, May 1.—Com-mander J. K. L. Ross was so well pleased with the race run by Star Voter at Havre de Grace on Saturday afternoon that he has sent the horse to Kentucky to represent the stable in the historic Kentucky Derby. Mr. Ross, who has returned to Montreal after a visit to Havre de Grace and Toronto, stated tonight that Star Voter's performance was superior to that of Boniface, and that the three-year-old was shipped to Louisville yesterday afternoon. Star Voter will be ridden in the Derby either by Jimmy Butwell or Grunstein, latter being the stable jockey, latter being the stable jockey.

The race Saturday was looked at as Star Voter's final derby trial.

In speaking of Billy Kelly and Boniface racing at Woodbine Park, Toronto, Mr. Ross said that he had entered the two horses in the stake events to be run at Toronto, and that they would race in Montreal this spring.
