CHAPTER IS SMALL, BUT DOES BIG WORK

Campbell Becher Chapter, I. O. D. E., Raises $5,849.

During the past year the Campbell Becher Chapter, I. O. D. E., a little band of 30 women, all active workers, has raised $5,849.55 for the various worthy objects to which untiring service is given. This splendid record of financial activities was reported enthusiastically received when it was presented by Mrs. Harry Bell, treasurer, at the annual meeting of the chapter Thursday afternoon, held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Edgcombe, Colborne street. The large amount was achieved by holding a couple of charity balls, running the tea room at the motor show a year ago, an ice cream booth at the Western Fair, selling score cards at the ball park, and other means.

With the exception of $157, a donation of $2,500 has been paid to furnish a room in the War Memorial Children's Hospital.

A new undertaking of the past few months has been the adopting of "little sisters," daughters of men who have given their lives or been permanently incapacitated in the war, to afford these girls the advantages of secondary education. Seven in all have been adopted, six by the chapter, and the seventh by one member, who undertakes the entire responsibility.

"Little Sistering" Fine Work.

The first month of the experiment of "little sistering" has just come to a close, and the members of the chapter were unanimous in their opinion that this is not only the most interesting, but one of the most vitally important pieces of work they have undertaken.

Numbers of layettes, each containing some fifteen articles, have been given mothers who otherwise could not make such provision for their wee babes. At the present time, about 30 of these layettes are out, all ready to be sewn up.

Plans are practically completed for the tea room at the motor show next week when it is expected the cook book, now on the press, will be on sale.

The election of officers resulted in the return to responsibility of the efficient and resourceful regent, Mrs. F. J. Greenaway, and the capable treasurer, Mrs. Harry Bell. Other officers elected for 1922 are as follows: First vice-regent, Mrs. Arthur Keene; second vice-regent, Mrs. Ralph Slater; secretary, Mrs. E. N. Hart; assistant-secretary, Mrs. Arthur Wiley; Echoes secretary, Mrs. Claude White; educational secretary, Mrs. W. T. Clark; standard-bearer, Mrs. B. Hookway; Mrs. C. S. King presided during the election.

A resolution of sympathy was moved to the honorary-treasurer of the Municipal Chapter, Mrs. C. L. Campbell, in the death of her husband, Dr. Campbell.

Following the business, tea was served, Mrs. E. N. Hart and Mrs. Ralph Slater doing the honors.

CHUMS GIVE PARTY.

On Thursday afternoon a jolly farewell party was given to Jimmie Roy by his classmates of Talbot Street School. Music and games were much enjoyed by all. A feature of the program was a hide-and-seek game, in which Jimmie found a mysterious parcel, which proved to be a small remembrance from his school friends. A dainty lunch was served, after which the boys and girls said goodbye to their much-loved little friend.

Covets Centre For Girls' Work

Provincial Girl Guide Commissioner Impressed by Facilities of Hamilton Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. F. P. Betts, Ontario Provincial Commissioner of Girl Guides, who recently attended the meeting of the provincial council in Hamilton, was very much impressed by the fine Young Women's Christian Association Building in Hamilton, in which the meeting took place.

"I covet such a building for London," she says. "It would be a great thing, not only for the Y. W. C. A., but for London as a whole. It would provide a wonderful centre for all girls' and women's clubs, and also for conventions meeting here. Our guide gathering was held in a beautiful little auditorium."

"After it was over, I remained until 7 o'clock, and had an opportunity of seeing all through the building, with its fine swimming tank, gymnasium and other up-to-date features. I think it is a pity we cannot have the gymnasium tank privileges here for our girls, as we have for our boys. It is just as important that the girls should learn how to swim as the boys, in view of the many casualties that occur every year."

"I had dinner with the staff in the dining-room, a spacious room, decorated in a most dignified and attractive way. We sat at a round table, centered with flowers. The whole atmosphere of the place was delightful. I only hope the day will soon come when we will have such a centre for girls' and women's activities in London."

HAS DRAMATIZED LITTLE WOMEN

One of London's most popular young girls, Miss Jean Waugh, who has been especially well-known for her patriotic and social welfare work, is appearing in a new role in the near future, that of dramatist. Friday evening, Feb. 10, in St. Andrew's Hall, the Polymath Club of the Y. W. C. A. is presenting the charming story of girl life, "Little Women," by Louisa May Alcott, "Ideal girls, but very human." Of special interest in this connection is the fact that the dramatization of the book for the purpose has been made by Miss Waugh, the clever young leader of the club.

Previous to the scenes from "Little Women," a pageant is to be presented, "The Secret of the Ideal Girl's Life."

Owing to the lack of accommodation for rehearsals at the Y. W. C. A. clubroom, "Lenmore," King street, Miss Waugh has been offering the hospitality of her home to the members of the caste for their practices.

MISS THE OLD FACES.

Dear Miss Grey—It is some time since I wrote to the Mail-Box. What is the matter with all the old readers? I don't see many letters in the Mail-Box.

We had a box social at a neighbor's house last week, and made $14.70, which we sent in for sick children. We intend to have another one soon and send the proceeds in for the Mail-Box fund. Did the cake arrive all right? I hope you enjoyed it. I sent a couple of parcels in to Mother of Six and had a letter from her. Well, Miss Grey, I hope you can keep warm these cold days. Find inclosed mite for hospital.

CANAAN.

I hope your next box social will be equally as successful, especially when you are going to be so good as to send it through our fund. I enjoyed the Christmas cake, which went towards making up my thirteen varieties. Thank you for remembering Cynthia.

PINE LIMB OFFERS COAT.

Dear Miss Grey—Here I am again. I can stay just a few minutes. I hope you are quite well, Miss Grey, and that you are settled down in your new office. Moving is no fun, is it? I am pleased to hear that Tip is getting along so nicely, and hope she will soon be quite well again. I also had a letter from Pine Limb. She said if the Box-ite who wanted a coat good enough to wear to a country church would write to her, and send postage, she would send her one. Miss Grey, inclosed please find two songs and recitations, and some poetry. If "One in Want" would like to get some reading or any one else, I will send some if they send the postage. I could also supply "One in Want" with old sheets, if she is still in need of them. I received your letter, Elgin Lass.

ELGORA.

I hope the Boxite who wanted a coat will see Pine Limb's offer, and send for it. Thank you very much, Elgora, for sending in the songs and recitations for Mail-Box use, also for offering sheets and reading matter.

LONDON M. P. TO SPEAK AT ANNUAL MEETING

Frank White, M.P., is to be the speaker, and his subject, "The Value of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. Work to the City," at the annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association on Monday evening, Feb. 13, when the public will be given an illuminating glimpse of the manifold activities of the association.

Reports will be presented to the various departments, industrial extension, physical, girls' work, travelers' aid, religious education, etc., which have enjoyed healthy activity and gratifying growth.

The board will be elected at this meeting, probably with very few changes, excepting the filling of three vacancies. The election of officers will not take place until the first meeting of the new board, the following Wednesday, Feb. 15.

So far, no decision has been made with regard to a general secretary to succeed Mrs. J. R. Henderson. The president, Mrs. C. B. King, has been in communication with Miss Marjory Ford, Dominion secretary, and several trained workers have been under consideration. One, regarded as especially desirable, has not yet made her decision.

GLADYS CANBEE.

It is interesting to hear from the old members, isn't it Gladys? Thank you for expressing your kind sentiments towards our Mail-Box corner. Your household hints are very useful ones and I am sure the housewives will be all clipping them for their scrapbooks. Many thanks for the hospital mite. Isn't our funds growing rapidly?

ENGAGEMENT RINGS.

Time was when a half-hoop of diamonds was considered the height of feminine bliss! Now half-hoops are too dreadfully old-fashioned! It must be all the way round or nothing! A circle of diamonds set in platinum, tiny pearls or emeralds put in with diamond dust are quite the smart and fashionable thing!

THINKS VISITS OF OLD FRIENDS JOLLY

Dear Miss Grey—May I have a few flower seeds? Any kind except hollyhocks will do.

Isn't it jolly to see old friends visiting the Mail-Box? There are so many members that we should have almost a page full every day. To my mind the Mail-Box is much more interesting than continued stories. Here are a few hints that I have just learned from a friend:

To remove grease spots from silk—lay a blotter under the spot and then drop chloroform upon it. Silverware may be cleaned by being left in a dish of sour milk for a few hours.

A rusty nail stuck in a plant dish will destroy worms. A few drops of coal oil in boil-

A splendid travelogue was given of Japan, showing the crowds about the city gates and in the markets, and some of the beautiful temples with their exquisite carvings.
