The one that gave me the greatest satisfaction, though, was in the de-ciding game of the world's series be-tween Detroit and the Pirates at Detroit in 1909. In the sixth inning we got two on and I was next up. The Detroit fans and players had been giving me a terrible razz. It seems they reckon, were disappointed. You know how it is—it's mighty tough on a ballplayer who has hit so well that fans expect him to plaster one every time he comes to bat. It's harder on him than on a player who hasn' been boosted so much in the news

'HE'S CRAZY,' SAYS NEWSY

Canadian Press Despatch. Regina, Jan. 2.-Manager Barney Stanley, back in Regina today from Saskatoon, declared he would not again lead the Capitols into Saskatoon unless some disciplinary action is taken by President E. L. Richardson against "Newsy" Lalonde, the Sheiks' manager, for his alleged conduct in the New Year's hockey games at the northern city. Practically every Capital player bore souvenirs in the shape of sundry bruises and cuts where the hickory of "Newsy's"

"Red" McCusker's head had a huge gash closed by seven stitches, Jack Asseltine has a cut under the eye which required stitching, and Dick Irvin also showed the marks

Barriey Stanley declared that La-londe's attack on "Red" McCusker was the most deliberate foul he had ever seen in his hockey experience.

"THE BUNK," SAYS NEWSY. Canadian Press Despatch. Saskatoon, Jan. 2.- "Barney Stanley is just seeking an alibi for last night's loss," said "Newsy" Lalonde, manager of the Saskatoon Crescents, when shown the report that he was the leader of a deliberate attack on "Red" McCusker, the Regina goalkeeper. "He's crazy when he says there was an attack. McCusker will get hurt every time he handles him-self the way he did last night. He was the victim of that, and nothing get hurt every time he handles
