Mrs. C. R. Somerville Heads MRS. HUGHES AGAIN the Women's Music Club

ioes In By Acclamation At Annual Meeting Held Yesterday Afternoon.

The serving of tea by the retiring ficers, following the election of the executive, and the presentation the annual reports, marked the osing of a most cover and the executive. psing of a most successful year of e Women's Music Club at the ormal School yesterday afternoon. Mrs. C. R. Somerville was elected sident by acclamation, the slate ught in by the nominating comttee, of which Mrs. C. Wheeler was ittee, of which Mrs. C. Wheeler was provener, being accepted. The xcutive for the coming year is as llows: President, Mrs. C. R. Somerlle; first vice, Mrs. Arthur Little; cond vice, Mrs. Charles Percy; ird vice, Mrs. Walter Brown; fourth ce, Mrs. Gordon Hunt; recording cretary, Mrs. George Copeland; retary, Mrs. George Copeland; responding secretary, Mrs. J. D. ant; treasurer, Mrs. H. V. Eckert; stant treasurer, Mrs. A. E. Cooper ess secretary, Mrs. Ross Johnston sistant press secretary, Mrs. R. E. wis. Miss Minnie Raymond was ointed convener of the program amittee, which includes Mrs. C. celer and Misses Helen Patterson. elen Little and Marion Beck. The prarians are Mrs. Hamilton and A. Hewton, and the auditors, W. J. Ross and T. R. Brymner.

President's Address. Mrs. Somerville gave a short adess, in which she asked for the operation of the club and for criti-She went on to say that she anted the club to be educational as ell as entertaining, and suggested at a French afternoon be held in injunction with the Alliance Fran-

A vote of thanks was given to the tiring president, Mrs. R. E. Davis, r the splendid work she had done uring the past year, which was a ost successful one.

he secretary's report, presented Mrs. George Copeland, showed t the total membership was 265, at the total membership was 20, ith 179 associates, 66 active and 20 udent members. Ten recitals were n and two wireless concerts. Two tist concerts were enjoyed during e season, Miss McNevin in Decem-r and the Blanchford string quartet ently. Reference was also made the visit of Mrs. Mower, a past

Exchange Concerts, Exchange concerts were held be-reen St. Thomas and London, Lon-on sending talent to the St. Thomas ub, who paid a return visit. A cital was also held in aid of the nd for a permanent Y. W. C. A. np at Port Bruce. vote of thanks was given to Mrs. B. Smith for the use of her piano ring the season, and to Mr. William endergast, principal of the Normal thool, for the use of the assembly all; also to Miss Raymond for the

of her studio for executive meet.

ring the past year were the apntment of a finance committee and transferring of membership cards The treasurer's report, given by rs. Eckert, showed a balance of er $290. At yesterday's meeting

HEAPSIDE EPWORTH CLUB

Cheapside, May 11.—The Epworth ague of the Methodist Church held annual business meeting Wednesevening and elected officers for year as follows: President, vice-presidents, Harold der, Russell Walker, Lillian Wer Vina Weiderick; secretary, Al-Weiderick; treasurer, Eva Loftuse; organist, Gertrude Shephard; sistant organist, Mrs. Chas. Smith.

ARDSVILLE SOCIETIES GIVE $200 TO MISSIONS

Special to The Advertiser.
Wardsville, May 11.—Mrs. Doughas returned home after spendthe winter in Illinois and Florlocal W. M. S. met in the yesterday afternoon. Re s of the year's work were given the different heads of departnts. The total missionary funds en by the Auxiliary Circle and d amounted to more than $2,000. Irs. Arthur Willison is visiting s. Jas. Ward in Windsor.

MRS. C. R. SOMERVILLE.

Fashions by Wire

Special to The Advertiser. Copyright.

Paris, May 11 .- One of the detached eeves which today form such amusing adjuncts to the supposedly sleeve. less gown has a deep ruffle of lace from elbow to wrists. This sleeve is of lace, black to match the black crepe of the gown, and it begins just above the elbow, some six inches be low where the gown ends.

Flowers Deck Capes. Paris, May 11 .- A seasonable air is given to some of the spring capes to-day by their decorations. These are silk flowers, placed demurely around the collar and peeping here and there from the long ribbon ends which many of these capes affect. Fantastic Trains. London, May 11 .- Although even. ing gowns have trains today, these are frequently rather faitastic affairs. Among the most effective is resident from Anne Arbor, who con-ibuted delightful numbers at a cent recital.

Among the most effective is one made up of two trailing scarf ends. These are attached to the shoulders, held together at the waist ine in the back by a cabochon, and then allowed to separate and trail as they will.

> The Volcano Collar.
>
> London, May 11.—The volcano collar is seen today on loose wraps. It is a high, straight collar, beginning at the shoulders and covering the chin, stiffened so that it stands away from the neck. It is surrounded by The Volcano Collar. from the neck. It is surrounded by horizontal rows of stitching or plaiding, so that it is not unlike a crater

The Red Earring Again. New York, May 11 .- The red earring is in vogue again today. came doubly sponsored. In the first place by the Egyptian vogue, and in now are almost compulsory.

ANNOUNCE FINAL MEETING OF THORNDALE INSTITUTE

Special to The Advertiser. Thorndale, May 11.—The closing meeting of the year of the Thorndale

Women's Institute will be held Tuesday afternoon, May 5, in the league room of the local Methodist Church. Mrs. Boyes of Lefroy, Ont., the government delegate, will address the meeting, her subject being "How To Improve the Institute." The officers for the ensuing year will be elected. The closing year has been one of the most successful in the nistory of the society and much of the property. he society, and much of the progress made has been due to the capable president, Mrs. B. Fitzgerald, and the RED CROSS HOLDS DANCE. The Red Cross visiting committee gave a dance at Westminster hospi-tal last night, which was greatly en-joyed by the patients there.

"They're not interested. They don't eare whether the man gets his call hrough or not. They don't care whether the letter catches the even-ng mail or the noon mail the next

ay. They don't care about the firm's success, and never realize that their own is bound up in it. Can't you teach them? Can't you put a little nep into them?

through to a clean inish. That must begin at home in the nursery and continue through grade after grade straight through. Home and school together must work that out. A little less and a lot more ther-

"The man rang again at once to say that she needed his telephone all the to receive from the schools asy that she needed his telephone number if the man he wanted wasn't teacher. "Just what kind of boys in. 'O yes,' said she. 'Thanksi' Just then the manager who had been in his the those we send you?" the first place, they don't know very call walked into the room. Then the manager who had been in his office all the time waiting for this the camps, during the summer. Rev. Mr. Harris also spoke, chiefly to the mothers, urging them to have their children. They can't do anything the office boy had to remind her that Oh, now! I'm sure they can do them very well. Solos by Miss Betty Waters and plant is assistants and they cannot fit your office the first month, but a time and practice ought to make all right."

The office boy had to remind her that camps.

Solos by Miss Betty Waters and plant sitting in my office all this time, Why didn't you connect me?"

I thought you had gene to the first month, but a time and practice ought to make all right."

"I thought you had gene to lunch,' said she calmly.

"Now, that's what I mean the room. Then camps.

Solos by Miss Betty Waters and plant selections by Miss Winnifred Campbell were enjoyed. A sing-song, in which the girls gave their class yells and songs was also on the prothing! They can't do anything." the office boy had to remind her that Oh, now! I'm sure they can do she had a message for him. "But I wasn't out,' he said. I wasn't out,' he said. I wasn't out,' he said.

Vo! It isn't experience they lack. don't care. They never see a job through to a clean finish. Sut remember they are only chil-i out of the elementary school or high schools at most. Give them because the closing bell rang! Actu-But remember they are only chil-ally! He didn't care whether that tell you they don't know how to letter got through or not. I've had a They can't even take a tele-message. Today a man from machine and walk out for lunch, alof town called up one of our man-s. The girl who took the mesthough the urgent nature of the letter was plain

FUR REMODELING At Summer Prices.

Fur Storage

ROSS, Limited Phone 1319.

HEADS CANADIAN CLUB

Is Elected President For the Second Term At Annual Meeting Yesterday.

Mrs. F. W. Hughes was elected president of the Women's Canadian Club for another term yesterday afernoon, going in by acclamation at the annual meeting held yesterday afternoon, in the Talbot Street Baptist Church.

Other officers, submitted by the nominating committee and accepted by the meeting, were honorary president. Mrs. A. T. Leonard, honorary vice-president, Mrs. Harry Bapty; vice-presidents, Mrs. W. H. Coleman, Mrs. W. G. R. Bartram, Mrs. William Beattle, and Mrs. T. C. Benson; re-cording secretary, Mrs. Greenslade; assistant recording secretary, Mrs. R. P. Pearce; treasurer, Mrs. A. T. Ed. P. Pearce; treasurer, Mrs. A. T. Edwards; corresponding secretary, Miss Ethel Teasdale; councillors, Miss S. Blackburn, Miss Grace Hill, Mrs. M. T. Nelles, Mrs. E. L. Hodgins, Mrs. C. B. King, Mrs. A. E. Cooper, Mrs. A. O. Hunt, Mrs. Geaves, Miss Margaret McDonald and the president of the Women Teachers' Guild

the Women Teachers' Guild.

The report of the nominating committee was presented by Mrs. W. J. Carson, Mrs. Frank White occupying the chair.

The club has decided to present a shield for debating among the girls of the collegiates and continuation schools of western Ontario.

CLUB NEWS

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY

At the regular meeting of the Ocupational Therapy society held at the home of Miss Verna McBroom in Hy-man street this week, Miss Hayes gave an interesting and instructive talk on auxiliary work in the public schools. Following a short business session, a dainty supper was served

"THE WOODCARVER'S WIFE." Miss Topley Thomas is presenting her pupil, Miss Leona Kirkwood, in recital at the Institute of Musical Art Wednesday night. Among other delightful numbers will be the production of Manager Pickthall's "The lightful numbers will be the produc-tion of Margery Pickthall's "The Woodcarver's Wife," in which several other pupils will take part. CRONYN JUNIORS MEET.

Forty-two children of the junior ongregation of Cronyn Memorial intently to the story of "Our Lord's

The service was in charge of Miss The service was in charge of Miss Madeline Brickwood and Miss Mary Schmidt, who were rewarded for their Sunday by Sunday labors on behalf of the junior congregation, by the splendid turnout of the faithful little neonle who constitute this class. people who constitute this class.

AT ROBINSON MEMORIAL.

transferring of membership cards various members of the family. The treasurer's report, given by s. Eckert, showed a balance of $290. At yesterday's meeting was donated to the War Memorial spital fund.

New York, May 11.—Among the sports fabrics destined to be popular this summer is a white pongee of rather more glossy surface than usual. There is also a white sports silk with a woven pattern in striped plaid. These white fabrics are of course an ideal background for the ST. GEORGE'S GUIDES. Over sixty attended the mothers and daughters' banquet given by the Girl Guides of St. George's church last evening. Among the guests of honor were Mrs. C. H. Hill; Canon and Mrs. Sage and Miss English. The tables were effectively decorated in mauve and yellow, and a little bunch mauve and yellow, and a little bunch of violets marked each mother's place. Following the toast to the king, Miss Anne Johanson proposed a toast to the mothers, which was replied to by Mrs. W. Brown. Mrs. W. Sanham proposed the toast to the Sanham proposed the toast to the girls which was responded charming program was enjoyed in-month. cluding a selection by the Blue Birds . The Patrol, recitations by Miss Doris Cle-ment, and Edna Skinner, and a clever Misses Ethel and Clara Patton and Laura Johnston.

ST. ANDREW'S C.G.I.T. The Senior Pathfinder C.G.I.T. group held a mothers' and daughters' banquet at St. Andrew's Church this week. The tables were effectively decorated with Japanese lanterns, apple blossoms, and quantities of Spring flowers. Over forty guests were present and among the guests of honor were Rev. D. C. MacGregor, and Mrs. MacGregor; Rev. F. W. K. Harris and Mrs. Harris, and Mr. and

Mrs. McGregor gave an inspiring

JUNIORS GIVE RECITAL.

A clever dramatic program was presented last night at the Institute pupils of Miss Jean Walker appeared in recital, assisted by Leonard Col-lard and Mrs. W. T. House, pupils of O. Leo Herbert.

al ard and Mrs. W. T. House, pupils of O. Leo Herbert.

The program was as follows:

"Little Half Chick," by Minnie Ginsberg; "Epominondas," by Eleanor Stevens; "How Girls Study," by Adeline Gootson; "Jack," by Jean Nelson; "How Mose Counts," by Jean Nichol; "Franz," by Nan Kelman; "Making Him Feel At Home," by Madeline Jarvis; "Prelude in B Minor," Prelude in D Minor," Prelude in C Minor," by Leonard Collard; "Mrs. Wiggs' Labor Day Picnic," by Christine Myers; "Tim's Vacatlon," by Mary Tichbourne; "The Story of the Good Little Girl and the Bad Little Girl," by Grace Rath; "The Happy Prince," by Viola Leff; "How the Whale Got His Little Throat," by Rita Johnston; "Allegro Moderato" (from "Italian Concerto"), by Mrs. W. T. House; "Fools' Luck," by Verna Monteith; "The Box Office," by Irene Whitehall; and "The Legend of the Organ Builder," by Julia Gillett.

Hext Week, after spending the winter abroad. Representatives from all the afford. Representatives from all the difficult with the dithe uncheon to extend a greet-ing from the women of London to their chief executive.

Mrs. W. Todd was pleasantly surprised at her home on Gerrard street this week, when a number of friends gave a handkerchief shower in honor of her wedding anniversary. The guest of honor received many dainty pep into them?" Can't you put a little pep into them?" What he meant was a sense of responsibility. A habit of finishing the thing they commence, following it through to a clean finish. That must be nursary and

ONLY ONE MOTHER.

Hundreds of stars in the beautiful sky, Hundreds of shells on the shore together, Hundreds of birds that go swinging by, Hundreds of bees in the sunny weather, Hundreds of dewdrops to greet the dawn, Hundreds of lambs in the purple clover; Hundreds of butterflies on the lawn, But only one mother the wide world over. -Robert Louis Stevenson.

Social and Personal given in her honor. Duffield. Duffield, accompanied by Mrs. J. T. Lynn of Detroit, are going abroad for the summer months

Mrs. Charles R. Carlisle of Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Mrs. Percy Bishop of Chicago have returned home after visiting their uncle, Mr. J. Hawkins, Complimenting her guest Mrs. Winnett Thompson of Toronto, Mrs. Geo. O. D. Grange entertained at a small bridge park. Prof. W. F. Tamblyn sails about the twenty-fifth of the month for England, where he will spend the visiting friends and taking short bicycle trips.

Professor L. P. Snanks, Mrs. William McLeod and Mrs. John Shanks and their small son, Walter, leave about the first of June to spend the summer at the seashore on the New England coast.

Mrs. William McLeod and Mrs. John Laughton; and the committee, including, Mrs. Sam Logan, Mrs. T. McMullen and Mrs. Hutchinson. The proceeds of the affair are in aid of the committee of the charter. Miss Bertha Hargitt, whose mar-

Aileen Hargitt, superIntendent nurses at the Hotel Dieu, Windsor. jorie Ross, 7 Hayman Court, are salling on S. S. Montcalm, from Montreal. June 1, to spend three months in England and Scotland, and on the continent.

which was responded to by Miss Frances Andrews. Miss Edith Johnston, captain of the guides, acted as toast-mistress. Canon Sage replied to the toast to the church. A charming program was enjoyed in Montreal and Ottawa for the past of the control The London lady golfers, who will ley,

The London lady gollers, who will meet the team from the Rosedale son, Marge Fitzmaurice, Leone and Golf Club at the Hunt Club links on hard, Marjorie Daly, Frances Smith, and Lenore Kinsella. Tuesday next, are Mrs. George Little the captain, Miss Helen Baker, Miss Marion Beck, Miss Jo Belton, Mrs Ronald Harris, Mrs. Basil Sterling, Mrs. G. Q. Warner, Mrs. W. G. Webster, Mrs. Ernest Williams and Miss

Mrs. J. W. Russell, accompanied by ville. Miss Iva Smith is being pre sented by her teacher, Mrs. N. Mc Hardy-Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Meras of Western University leave at the end of the month for Colorado, where they will spend a month visiting at the home of Mrs. Meras' parents. Later they will go to New York, where Mr. Meras will pursue his post graduate months. Meras will pursue his post graduate beauty colored gown of georgette, which was the will be the months. studies during the summer months. In September Mr. and Mrs. Meras will be the guests of Mrs. Meras' parents at Martha's Vineyard.

The Local Council of Women have the Tecumseh House on Saturday May 19, to take the form of a "Welcome Home" to Mrs. E. B. Smith, president of the society, who returns hext week, after spending the winter abroad. Representatives from all the

Mrs. W. Sherwood Fox is in St. Marys attending a reception being given in her honor.

Mrs. J. C. Duffield and Miss Louise Mrs. J. C. Duffield and Mrs. favors, and during the evening Lombardo's orchestra supplied an excel lent program of dance music. The committee in charge included Messis. W. K. Parkinson, H. B. Doidge, H. Ball, G. R. Erskine, and J. Borden.

The enjoyable dance given at the Springbank park pavilion last evening by the Trafalgar Chapter, I. O. D. E. opened the season at the park. Two hundred and fifty peoat her home on Waterloo street yes-lerday afternoon. can orchestra. A balloon dance, during which bright colored bal-loons were set afloat, was introduc-ed. The guests were made welhort bicycle trips.

Professor L. P. Shanks, Mrs. Weller, hanks and their small son Welter.

Welter by the regent, Mrs. William McLeod and Mrs. John the fund for the room the chapter riage takes place next week, is in has endowed in the War Memorial Windsor visiting her sister, Miss Hospital.

Alleen Hargitt, superIntendent of Complimenting Miss Wathleen Kin Complimenting Miss Kathleen Kinella, a popular bride-elect, Mrs. B. in on a gayly decorated wagon, drawn by little Miss Ruth Hadden, Mrs. Hector Connolly of Montreal wearing a pretty frock of pink or-rrived in London yesterday and will gandy. Following the presentation per a guest with her parents, Col. W. G. Coles and Mrs. Coles, "The The guests were: Mrs. O. Hadden, and Grace Warburton, Lula Coak ley, J. McDonnell, Josephine Glea son, Marge Fitzmaurice, Leone May A delightful program has been arranged for the muiscale which will be held at the home of Mrs.

J. C. Duffield, Queen's avenue, on Wednesday of next week in aid of Girl Guide work. Miss Dorothy Davis, who is in charge of the musi-cal program, has secured the fol-Tuesday to be present at convocation when her eldest son, Max, graduates from McMaster University. They will leave immediately afterwards for "Littlewin," their summer home in Muskoka, a delightful island close to "Bigwin Inn." Prof. Russell will join them a week later.

The May Couke, cello with Miss Dorothy Couke, cello with Miss Davis wimbers. will also give piano solo number The tea conveners are, Miss Louise Duffield and Miss Shirley John-

Miss Bertha Hargitt, one of the popular May brides-elect, was the guest of honor at a delightful supper and dance this week, given at the De Luxe Cafe, by a number of her graduate nurse associates of St. Joseph's Hospital. Covers were laid appropriate address was read by Miss Margaret Hevey containing good wishes for the future, and reference was made to her splendid professional ability and devotion to the Alma Mater. In token of her high regard presentation of cut glass sherbet lasses was given by Miss Stella Sheahan. Miss Hargitt replied pleasantly, expressing her apprecia-tion. Mrs (Dr.) Tillmann and Mrs. Richard Forristal were chaperons. Dancing was enjoyed and the nurses were joined by their friends and spent a very pleasant evening. Among those present were Mrs. W. Tillmann, Mrs. R. Forrestal, Miss Margaret Hevey, Stella Sheahan, Erma Moss, Kathleen Lashbrook, Lenore Kinsella, Erma Harkness, Kathleen Burke, Mary Devlin, Ver-onica Hood, Helen Pitt, Dorothy Mullins, Mary Cuddy, Bessie Thuitt, Edith Dalton.

ELECT OFFICERS. Special to The Advertise

The opening dance of the season given by the Orient Club at Port Stanley, last evening. was a gay affair. Over seven hundred guests were present, many of whom were from St. Thomas, and special car service had been arranged for the occasion. Many attractive novelty dances were introduced during the evening, including

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Woodward of Ottaway Avenue Mark Fiftieth Anniversary.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Woodward, 290 Ottaway avenue, was recently the scene of an enjoyable event, when Mr. and Mrs. Woodward celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

All the members of the family were present with the exception of Mrs. Malcolm Graham of North Dakota. Those present were: Mrs. E. Wingett, Mr. F. Woodward, Mrs. H. Wakerley, Mr. Percy Woodward, of Point au Baril, Ont.; Mrs. B. Parkinson, Mr. B. Woodward, of Detroit, Mich. The grandchildren present were: Misses Dorothy, Marjorie and Phyliss Wingett; Miss Kathleen Woodward, Miss Ruth and Master William Wakerley, Miss June and Master Thomas Parkinson, and Mr. Charles Woodward, of Detroit.

The home was beautifully decorated with yellow roses, tulips, daffodils and marigolds. A very dainty wedding breakfast was served.

Mr. Radcliffe Woodward was called upon to act as toastmaster, and the honored county were wished more honored couple were wished many years of continued health and happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Woodward wer the recipients of many beautiful

A purse of gold, containing a con-gratulatory address, was presented by the youngest grand-daughter, little Miss June Parkinson.

During the day a number of old friends and neighbors came to congratulate them on this happy event. in Derby, England, January 8, 1849, and Mrs. Woodward was born in Newport, Shropshire, England, Jan-uary 5, 1853.

Camp 'Oiendago' At Port Bruce

Name Is Chosen at Girls' Rally Last Night.

"Oiendago!" Was ever prettier name chosen for a girls' camp? Being interpreted, it means "he place magic," and is of Indian origin. It is the name by which the Y. W. C. held at Lenmore, and was originally suggested by Miss Marcel Smith. Another interesting feature of last night's gathering was the awarding of two weeks holidays at Port Bruce to the girl raising the greatest amount toward the new cottage. Miss Wanza Jones, who by her own efforts | Presbyterian Church was held at the Wanza Jones, who by her own chorse raised $350, has received the award. Miss Jones was a member of the camp staff last season.

Awards for the teams raising the largest sums will be made at Port largest sums wi tion of the camp takes place. The teams, headed by Miss Ann Mc-Gregor and Miss Margaret Showler, almost tied in their campaign efforts. Annie Campbell.

The rally, which proved a great success, with about fifty campers present, had been arranged by Miss Helen d'Avignon, Y. W. C. A. girls' work secretary, assisted by Miss Hilda Keene and Miss Bessie Mc-Camus. Miss Billy Graves, "Big Chief," presided.

In all about $2,700 has been raised toward the $3,000 objective. And last pight a shower for the camp brought in many useful articles

CITY WOMEN ORGANIZE TO FIGHT CHURCH UNION

A well-attended meeting of womer epresenting all the Presbyterian Churches in the city was held Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McLandress, 929 Richmond St. After full consideration it was unaninously decided to organize for a campaign in opposition to the pro-posed organic union of the Methodist, resbyterian and Congregational Churches in Canada. After complet-ing the organization it was resolved to hold a public meeting on the evening of Monday, May 21 to be addressed by leading men and women of the Presbyterian Church. Fuller details

JUST A MINUTE!

On the counter of nearly every good grocery store wou will find box of ten-cent samples packages of a truly genuine Orange Pekoe Tea -the finest quality tea the RED ROSE people have ever put out. You will not expect very much tea 30 cups of tea, as strong as most people like it. A half-pound package is only 45c-a very little more than rdinary teas.

Before you forget, please pick up the phone and order a package. You will praise the tea, even more than we do .- Advt.

Mothers and Their Children

yard, so the children would not sit on the ground while playing. The platform is about six inches high, and large enough so that several of them can play on it at the same time. During the sunshiny weather we place a big umbrella over it.

LONDON COUPLE KEEP Little Orphaned Children of Armenia Ask For Help

Little Child of Armenia Safe

One little girl is safe! Because the 1922 executive of the Women's Canadian Club, meeting directly after the annual meeting yesterday afternoon, de-cided that upon their recom-mendation the Women's Can-adian Club of London should adopt an Armenian girl orphan. They had heard the appeal of Dr. A. J. Vining, and simply must act at once.

One dollar from each of the 520 members, with a few additional dollars from specially interested women of the club, would bring one little girl to Canada. $720 was such a small amount to raise when a life was undertake it.

Even yesterday afternoon two $10 bills had come in.

ENTERPRISING FIRM MUST GET MORE ROOM

grows Quarters, Moving to 158 Dundas Street.

London's expansion through sound Mr. and Mrs. Woodward were mar-ried in Birmingham, England, May of the younger firms of the city, business methods is typified by one i, 1873, and set sail for Canada, May which, in the years of its history has 5, 1873, arriving at Quebec on the achieved much prestige. The Artistic Canada. 24th of May. They came on to London, where they have been residents ever since. Mr. Woodward was born the limit of the premises on Dundas street, near Clarence, and an immediate move to more commodious quarters is imperative.

With the steady growth of business and demand for "Artistic" goods, very department has been crowded to overflowing, and, during busy hours on busy days, space for shoppers is at a premium.

In order to meet the need, the "Artistic" has secured the Grafton store at 158 Dundas street, first door west of Richmond on the north side, extending through from Dundas to Carling, a whole block.

A new front the last word for are In order to meet the need, the

A new front, the last word for artistic display purposes, and the most modern equipment for convenience and to show to advantage ladies' nounced a meeting of the committee A. camp at Port Bruce will be known wear will be installed. When com-in future. It was chosen by popular pleted, the "Artistic" at 158 Dundas tatives from the Canadian Club atvote last night at the camp rally stores of the kind in Western Ontario.

CRUMLIN MISSION SOCIETY STAGES MONTHLY MEETING

Thorndale, May 12. - The May meeting of the W. M. S. of Crumlin answered by Maud Campbell and Mrs Urquhart. The topic on "The Lord" Need" was taken by Reta Day. An interesting reading was rendered by Dr. A. J. Vining Carries Appeal To the Women's Canadian Club.

A thousand little orphaned Armenians drifting around in boats in the Bosphorus! Only living because the American Relief Association throws themia crust occasionally. Thousands more, half naked and starving, wher-ever they have been left by the merciless Turk. In all, 250,000 of them, without father or mother. Because father was murdered by the dia-bolical Turk! Because beautiful mother was dragged off to become the slave of some "filthy Mohammedan

How they themselves escaped from being dashed upon the rocks by the man who shouts, "Allah! Allah!" they know not. For they saw many of their small sisters and brothers go

Yet there they are, waiting-waiting—waiting—until someone stretches out a hand with money to help them

Appealing For Funds.

Such was the keynote of the appeal which was presented to the Women's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon by Dr. A. J. Vining, secretary of the Armenian Relief Association of Can-ada. Dr. Vining asks, on behalf of the association, for funds to bring out Armenian boys and girls to Canada

Artistic Ladies' Wear Outgrows Quarters. Moving to may be carried out. These boys are to be established on a splendid farm at Georgetown, Ontario, and there will be taught how to become Canadian farmers.

Girls and boys will follow later, according as the money comes in. Seven hundred and fifty dollars will

Dr. Vining, in his address, outlined the history of Armenian atrocities down through the centuries, to the time of the recent war, and to the Smyrna disaster, just a few months

Have Died Every Death. "They have died all the deaths on earth, the deaths of all the ages," he concluded. "And now I hear their cry. I hear the cry of 250 Armenian orphans, I hear the cry of thousands of beautiful women, carried off to be the slaves of brutes, and who are

DeLuxeCate

Special Sunday Turkey Dinner

Phone for reservation, 1430. Over 180-182 Dundas St.

wash and wash right is the Co-Vac Way

EASY TERMS.

Phone 2988W

A Very Valuable for 10 cents, but you will get a surprise. That small package will make the surprise of teal as strong as most. Hand-Woven Tapestry was successfully cleaned and returned to a delighted customer this week.

COMET WASHER CO., LONDON.

This was the direct result of our ad last week, which was a facsimile of a policy for $25,000 covering our customers goods while in our plant.

There . Is No Agency in Your Locality, Use Our Mail Order Dept.

Do not hesitate to send us your valuable furs, rugs, carpets, portieres and curtains. They will be handled only by experts. All plush, fur and fur-lined coats will be sent home to you in mothproof bags.

Call 558 for a service wagon to call.

SOME WAY AND SOMEHOW

The Parisian SHOULD Laundry

Launderers, Dry Cleaners, Dyerr and Rug Cleaners. This is Curtain I nth.