DIVIDENDS SEEN,

Buoyancy of Industrial Shares Reflects Hopes of Wall Street.

New York, Dec. 11.—The buoyancy of industrial shares became more pronounced on the New York stock exchange today in anticipation of further favorable dividend announcements. Pools pushed up prices of various stocks vigorously with the buying reflecting an investment inquiry for numerous high grade shares. Atlantic Coast Lige jumped 5½ points to 250, a record price; American Smelting rose 2 points to 130%, the highest for many years. California Packing, American Steel. Anaconda Copper, Ariantic-Guif Sentin Proper General Electric, Foundation Company, Sears-Roebuck, American Republic, General American Am. Tobacco. And American Republic, General American Studies sold 3 to 4% points nigher. The renewal rate on standing loans was unchanged at 5 per cent.
