MISSISS. Petrie & Jackson, who have conducted the Dalmenio hotel for some years together, dissolved partnership yesterday, Mr. W. B. Jackson continuing. The business will be carried on as in the past with every attention to the accommodation of patrons.

The senior members of Christ church on the 14th inst. participated in a social hop in the schoolroom. Messrs. Fatties and Burtis provided an excellent programme of some fifteen dances for the event, which proved one of the most pleasurable of the season.

In the schoolroom of the Church of Our Lord (R. C.), yesterday evening an appreciative audience listened with keen pleasure to an excellent musical programme forming part of one of those charming conversations which this church is locally famous. There was little or no departure from the programme as published in yesterday's COLONIST.

MASTER GEORGE ADAMS has made another presentation through Dr. Hamilton to the B. C. Natural History Society, this time a very appreciated gift comprising numerous relics, which the giver found in a mound near Craigflower bridge, the place of his former discovery. In the find is a skull which resembles that of a Scogones Indian which will no doubt furnish food for an interesting discussion at the next meeting of the society.

THE Wanderers football club held a meeting last evening, when Messrs. Pettifore and M. McGregor were appointed delegates to represent the club at the meeting of the British Columbia Association at Nanaimo Saturday. The time and place on which the final match will be played will then be decided. The Wanderers are making every effort to have the final played in Victoria. The Wanderers play the Barrack Athletics at Caledonia park Saturday afternoon.

Morton. Managing committee—H. E. Morton, J. E. Smith, W. C. Barn and J. H. Scholter. A vote of thanks was tendered to the retiring officers of the past season.

REV. T. G. CHRISTMAS officiated yesterday at the wedding of Mr. Charles Alexander Heald, of Lake district, and Miss Alice Maude Williams, of Sidney. The marriage, which was witnessed by a numerous company of friends, was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. W. H. Williams, of Sidney, Mr. Williams giving his daughter away. Mr. H. W. Heat was groomsmen and Miss S. A. Williams bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Heald leave for the Sound by the Rosalie this morning on their wedding tour.

In the county court yesterday Coughlan & Mason v. Adams, a suit for $28, balance of contract for bricks supplied to the Dock building, was decided in favor of plaintiff by Mr. Justice Drake. The defence claimed he was only acting as a contractor.

Mr. H. E. A. Courtney for plaintiff; Mr. Elliott for defence. In Coughlan & Mason v. W. Turner for $165 for putting in lights in the driveway opposite the Turner block on Johnson street, defendant made no claim for damages for defective work. Judgment for plaintiff for the amount of $50. Mr. Courtney for plaintiff; Mr. Elliott for defendant.

PETER NELSON and John Murphy, two of the gang committed for trial on Tuesday for the Sunday morning robbery at the police wharf, got tangled up a little more yesterday in the meshes of the law. In the police court they were charged with pointing revolvers at a policeman named Mary. Nelson contended that he might just as well give in at once, so pleaded guilty and was sentenced to fourteen days imprisonment. Murphy fought his case out, and as he was found guilty got a month's sentence. Then Murphy had to answer to the charge of breaking into the tramway office and stealing Mr. McCrady's revolver. This resulted in his being committed for trial a second time. The indictment found in the crib of the prisoner was identified as one stolen from the steamer T. W. Carter.

A very large and enthusiastic meeting was held at the school house, Caledonia Hill, last evening, to discuss the "Consumption" question. The school house was well filled with farmers, dairymen and others, some coming as far as from Saanich. The questions before the meeting were very vigorously thrashed out, Mr. Geo. Davidson, Mr. Rogers and Mr. Sluggert being on hand to represent the committee appointed by the Dairyman's association. It was moved by Mr. James Todd, Jr., and seconded by Mr. A. C. Howe: "That this meeting having heard and read the resolution, which was passed at Colquhoun hall in Lake district on Saturday evening the 9th inst., after a full discussion of the tuberculous question, hereby fully endorse the said resolution." This resolution was adopted unanimously.

In the County court yesterday Hooper v. Adams et al. came up for hearing. This was an action by Mr. Thomas Hooper, rollstock against the trustees of Emmanuel Baptist church for $121.50, balance due him for plans and superintendence of the erection of the church. At the opening of the trial Mr. Fall, for the plaintiff, applied to amend the claim by adding thereto a claim against the church for $100, the value of $100 damage for their wrongful detention. The architect had been paid $125, being 2 1/2 per cent on the estimated cost, and according to the defence, that was in full, as the agreement was that he should prepare working drawings and specifications for 2 1/2 per cent, and defendants would not need a superintendent as Mr. Adams was to be foreman. Mr. Hooper testified that his bargain was to do the work for per cent. This Mr. Adams distinctly denied. His Lordship held that though plaintiff was not superintending he should be paid something over the 2 1/2 per cent for detail drawings. Judgment was given for plaintiff for $28 and costs, the plans to be the property of the defendants. Mr. Thomson Fall for plaintiff; Mr. P. S. Lampan for defendants.
