Half Million Hotel Building

C. P. R. Will Rebuild the Hotel Vancouver on Magnificent Scale.

Plans Are Out and Tenders for the First Wing Being Called,

Plans are out at last for the recon struction of the C. P. R. Company's Hotel Vancouver in the city of Vancouver. Architect F. M. Rattenbury of Victoria has prepared them and he will have charge of the work of construction on the new building, which it has been decided will replace the present conglomer-

Interviewed yesterday afternoon, Mr. Rattenbury said the scheme was practically to remove the whole of the present hotel structure except one small wing at the rear of the main building and next to the opera house on Granand next to the opera house on Granville street. This wing is a more recent. Legislative ly erected affair, and with that exception, the decision arrived at is to remove the whole hotel and erect a new modern structure on its site. The new hotel will be twice as large as the present building, and will contain 230 bedrooms, besides having the most modern and approved system of hotel architecture applied in its every detail of construction.

Tenders are now being called for the erection of the wing on Georgia street, Geo. F. Pound and others, re governcorner of Howe, on the portion of the block at present not built on. This wing

LAKE BENNET RAILWAY.

Eberts:

"The company shall, before the railway is opened for the carriage of freight and passengers, give security to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council— Council—
"(1.) That the Lieutenant-Governorin-Council shall have the absolute control of the rates for freight and passenger

"'(2.) That in the event of a charter being granted by the Dominion government to the promoters herein for a line of railway over or parallel to the route proposed in this act, the foregoing conditions shall be assumed and carried out by the company so incorporate as by the company so incorporated, as a contract and obligation of said company prior to any other charge thereon." Hon. Mr. Eberts said the object of the government was to frame all railway bills, so that the government should have absolute control of the rates. It would be futile to insert clauses that would conflict with the B. N. A. Act. Assembly

Assembly

Legislative Assembly, 29th Day,
Wednesday, April 17, 1901.

The Speaker took the chair at 2:15 p.m.

Rev. Dr. Wilson offered prayer.
Mr. Martin presented a petition from Geo. F. Pound and others, re government ownership of railways.

Hon. Mr. Wells introduced a bill to amend the Columbia and Western Railway Subsidy Act, which was read a first time.

IRRIGATION.

Mr. Fulton moved the following resolution:
Whereas there are considerable areas of land in the dry belt of the interior of the grovince, which, if a sufficient water it would be futile to insert clauses that would conflict with the B. N. A. Act. The sections proposed to be inserted in the bill were designed to prevent a railway company from securing a charter at Ottawa and placing its road under the jurisdiction of the Dominion, as had been done in the past. The desire of the government, as he had already declared, was to preserve the rights of the province by framing railway legislation in the best possible way to ensure the people against extortion.

Mr. McPhillips regretted that he would have to disagree with the government on this question. There was one tribunal to settle railway rates, and it was absurd to attempt to create another to conflict with the paramount power. He would be recreant to his duty and to his constituents if he bowed to the popular clamor to defy the authority of the Dominion. He would not lend his vote to the enactment of such pernicious legisla tion. He was a Canadian first and a
