The east enders want more police protec-tion. Typhoid fever is reported to be pretty bad on some parts of Hayter street. A fife and drum band, under the leader-ship of Mr. Hickman, serenaded the Court street firemen last night. A monster picnic of the brewery and ginger ale employees is being arranged to take place at Lorne park. The construction of the Queen street rail-way extension from Church street to the Don was commenced yesterday. Mr. J. Orbison of the Ulster hotel was thrown from his buggy on the Kingston road Sunday, and badly cut and bruised. There is an outcry against the water sup-plied in Yorkville. Medical men pronounce it totally unit for human consumption. Alf. Hopkins, the victim of Sunday, might's shooting affray, is in a very weak state, and cannot speak above his breath.
