Bank of Commerce v. Dominion.
The Dominion Bank and the Bank of Commerce played an exciting game of Rugby on the Rosedale grounds yesterday afternoon.
There was a fair-sized crowd of spectators, the bank clerk element prevailing. In the first half play was exceedingly rough and there was more wrestling than football. When time was called Commerce had scored 1 point. In the second half play was not quite so fast. The Dominions tried hard to score, but could not. They, however, confined the scoring of their-opponents to one more point, and Commerce thus won by 2 points to nil. The-teams were as follows:

OUTLINE OF NEXT WEEK'S FUN.

Two Fat Men. J. C. Stewart's clever company in "The Two Johns" will appear at Jacobs & Sparraw's Opera House Monday night and during the week. After several years of unprecedented success this company is said to be stronger in points of mirth-making than ever before. "The Two Johns," being relatives of the Falstafflan build, live in different sections of the country, and the god of destiny directs their course to the same summer resort, one of them to escape the heated vacation of the city and to better eujoy the society of his wife and to tondle the baby of which he is proud of calling his son. The other John by a strange fatality, with his bride, engages apartments at the same house. Upon the arrival of the benedict a series of mishaps occur from the close resemblance of "The Two Johns;" upon their meeting hostilities end but not the troubles. The comedy is well constructed, clean and refreshing, having all the attainments of reality. From the rise to the fall of the curtain the audience is kept in a roar of laughter at the antics of the two corpulent cousins in trying to unravel the difficulties arising from their resemblance.
