What Sentiment Has Done. With the close of the West Northumber

In the minds of most people the red man is associated with a certain pensive and romantic interest that closer inspection usually effectually and forever dissipates. Indeed, the inspection need not be ocular for his result to follow, for a mere glace at this result to follow, for a mere glace at the County Court. Mr. Dewdney's annual letter to Parliament, consisting of 350 pages, is enough to remove any romantic feeling in regard to Mr. Lo was entered for probate yesterday. He leaves an estate valued at $11,795.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians held a concert in the Auditorium in the evening and the place was jammed to the doors. The platform was decorated with handsome playing with a child, fell down a flight of steps and broke his arm.

Judge Morgan has finished the civil list in the County Court. Mr. Dewart expects to finish work in the Sessions to-morrow. The will of George Phillips, cabinetmaker, the leaves an estate valued at $11,795.

The Auditor-General

A disposition to carp or rather sneer at the Auditor-General and his work is evinced a some of the Conservative newspapers of the province. The feeling doubtless owes the origin to the fondness which members of the Opposition exhibit for its spicy pages. The office of Auditor-General was created by the Mackenzie Government and the present luditor-General, John Lorne McD.

the Cathedral that edifice was taxed to its utmost capacity and fully one-half of the crowd had to remain outside. The processionists, with colors waying, marched up the centre aisle. The banners were placed at the side of the altar, and the men then took their seats in the space that had been reserved for them in the centre of the church. Grand High Mass was celebrated by Vicar-General McCann. Archbishop Walsh also took part in the service and was assisted by Father Ryan, Father Coyle, who acted as deacon, and Father Cruise as subdeacon. The choir, under the direction of Father Rolledor, with Mr. J. H. Lemaitre at the organ, sang the mass in a praise-worthy manner. The principal soloists were Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. George Kelly, Mrs. Myers Miss Ellot, F. A. Anglin, Mr. Stagg, Mr. Dereham.
