A new fisheries treaty has been finally arranged between Great Britain and the United States, affecting Canada, and more stringent regulations to preserve fish life will prevail. The arrangement was finally brought about by American sportsmen, who realized that the depletion of the lakes and streams bounding the two countries would result unless some action were taken.

It is rumored that the long feud between the Dominion Steel and the Dominion Coal company is finally settled by the Coal people capitulating and withdrawing their case. Though the rumor has not been confirmed the general public will be glad to learn of a settlement. It will cost the Coal company some four million dollars to square up and it is not unlikely the general public will have to do its share towards footing the bill when filling up the coal bin.

Delegates from all the Boards of Trade in the Maritime provinces have met by invitation in Halifax this week to consider, at a mass meeting to be held in that city, the project of a fast mail and passenger service to connect Canada and Great Britain. There is no doubt that the meeting will report favorably on this enterprise which is known at the "All Red Line." The highest type of marine architecture and speed will be required. The government will be petitioned to stipulate that any contract to be entered into by them for the payment of any subsidy shall be on condition that a port on the Atlantic sea-board shall be the Canadian terminus of the line. This port will of course be Halifax, the largest and finest harbor on the Maritime sea-board. Besides the Boards of Trade, members of parliament, representatives of the press, fruit growers' associations, transportation companies and others will be present at the meeting.

FIREPROOF SCHOOLS COMING.

(From The Toronto Globe.)

The people of Canada and the United States will not long permit such horrors as the Hochelaga holocaust and this far more terrible one that has plunged Cleveland into mourning. There is no part of the continent that is not within reach of fireproof building materials, and the schools of the future in populous centres where it is necessary to build them of greater height than one story will be made of reinforced concrete or some other fireproof material. There is nothing more repulsive in a civilization nominally Christian than the wholesale sacrifice of the lives of innocent children to the god of cheapness. The builders of this continent know how to make schools that will not burn, and the public conscience must indeed be seared if to avoid an increase of ten or even twenty per cent. in the cost, we go on building firetraps for our babes, while we erect fireproof storehouses for our merchandise.

$100.00 paid by Dr. Shoop for any recent case of Grippe or acute Cold that a 25 cent box of Preventics will not break. How is this for an offer? The Doctor's supreme confidence in these little Candy Cold Cure Tablets—Preventics—is certainly complete. It's a $100. against 25 cents—pretty big odds. And Preventics, remember, contains no quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh nor sickening. Pneumonia would never appear if early colds were broken. Safe and sure for feverish children. 18 Preventics 25 cents.

Death of Mrs. W. W. Clarke

EXPIRES WHILE BEING CONVEYED BY SPECIAL TRAIN TO HALIFAX FOR MEDICAL TREATMENT.

Annapolis Royal was shocked Thursday morning upon learning of the death of Mrs. W. W. Clark The deceased was taken ill last Friday and everything medical skill could do was done for her. It was decided late Wednesday night that possibly an operation for appendicitis might save her life and a special train left Annapolis at 3 a. m. for Halifax with the invalid and her attending physician, but she passed away on the train between Kentville and Wolfville. Her remains were brought home on the regular express. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hardwick of Annapolis and being of a very bright and generous disposition and active in business life, she was well and favorably known by many both in this community and the surrounding country, who will keenly regret her untimely death. Besides her husband she is survived by two children, her parents and several brothers and sisters, who will have the heartfelt sympathy of the whole community.

TEACHER'S SALARIES.

The utterly inadequate salaries paid to teachers are beginning to raise a feeling that all is not fair, and that those who have the making of future citizens should be paid a better salary than a day labourer. Pennsylvania has decided on a higher scale, and from now on, nothing less than $40 a month will be paid.

UNEQUALLED AS A CURE FOR CROUP.

"Besides being an excellent remedy for colds and throat troubles, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is unequalled as a cure for croup," says Harry Will son of Waynetown, Ind. When given as soon as the croupy cough appears, this remedy will prevent the attack. It is used successfully in many thousands of homes. For sale by

Bear River Literary Society

At the regular meeting of the Bear River Literary Society held on Monday evening, 24th ult., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Clarke, the following program was rendered:
Instrumental Solo, Miss Helen Dunn.
Paper—"Hon. Joseph Howe," Mrs. J. Phalen.
Reading—"Sir John Inglis," Mr. L. Ruggles.
Reading—"Varsity vs. McGill," Miss Ethel Purdy.
Instrumental Duet, Misses Ethel Purdy and L. D. Wade.
Reading—"The Snuff-Colored Suit," Rev. J. Phalen.
Reading—"Horse Race," Miss Ethel Purdy.

As the course of study during the season has been Canadian authors the selections were most appropriate.

Most valuable the information and inspiring the subject matter of Mrs. Phalen's paper on this gifted and honored son of Nova Scotia. It is hoped that the author may accede to the wish of the Society and publish the production in the columns of the Sentinel.

The article read by Mr. Ruggles from the Canadian Magazine told of the "stuff of which heroes are made," and caused a thrill of pride to think the hero of Lucknow was a Nova Scotian.

Other provincial heroes are to be studied during the coming weeks.

Miss Purdy's rendering of the football game between Varsity and McGill as portrayed in "The Prospector" by Ralph Conner, was artistic and thrilling, showing an intimate acquaintance with her subject. In her second number "The Horse Race," the company was held spellbound. It need only be said that Miss Purdy was at her best to realize the treat to her audience.

The most instructive number of the program was "The Historical Sketch of Bear River," by Miss Lennie D. Wade. After much research and painstaking effort, Miss Wade was able in a most pleasing style to carry her hearers over the years from the times of the very first settlers to the present time. Many things almost forgotten have been brought to notice. Events that have passed from the common recollection have been revived and an added interest given this beautiful village nestling among the hills.

Feeling how important that this information should be preserved and used to bring Bear River into greater prominence, the Society has requested Miss Wade to have it published. A copy should be in the hands of every citizen as well as every visitor to our charming town.

The reading by Rev. J. Phalen was both humorous and instructive and given in the reader's forcible and pleasing style.

The musical numbers were excellent and afforded a treat to the lovers of good music. Miss Dunn's skill in her favorite art is too well known to need comment.

After the above intellectual treat, arranged by the ladies of the executive, they further entertained the company at an exquisite luncheon, a most fitting ending to a most enjoyable evening.

Fatal Coasting Accident

LITTLE DAUGHTER OF H. H. SULIS OF SMITH'S COVE SUFFERS FATAL INJURIES WHILE COASTING DOWN HILL.—COMPANION ESCAPES UNHURT.

Carrie Sulis, the 12 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Sulis, died last Saturday night from the effects of injuries sustained the previous day while coasting. She and another little girl named Ruth Sulis, were on the same sled, Carrie steering. They had been enjoying the sport for half an hour or so and it being after six o'clock they decided to have "just one more slide," and then go to tea. So they climbed the hill laughing and talking in childish glee, and made ready for the start, Ruth sitting behind and Carrie steering in front. Away went the sled, the little girls shouting merrily for a clear road. Suddenly an agonizing cry filled the air, and the next instant Carrie was seen to be lying helpless at the end of a bridge that crosses the brook at the foot of the hill, near the residence of A. H. Weir. She was carried into the home of Freeman Simms near by, and found to be in an unconscious state. In the course of fifteen minutes consciousness returned and she was taken home Dr. DuVernet of Digby was summoned. He found her suffering from a fracture of the collar-bone and from injuries to the breast and other parts of the body. But the seriousness of the case arose from hernia, and the rupture of a blood vessel causing internal hemorrhage and peritonitis. It was impossible to save her life and she passed away the following night after lingering about thirty hours. It appears that at the foot of the hill, when they were going like a shot out of a gun, the sled got beyond their control in some manner and banged into a post of the bridge, against which Carrie was tossed with great violence. Her companion, Ruth escaped without injury. Poor little Carrie seems to have been fated, for it is only recently that she met with a gunning accident. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral which took place Tuesday afternoon was very largely attended, the school children marching in a body and encircling the grave into which each one dropped a flower. The little ones felt keenly the loss of a sister pupil under such tragic circumstances, and there were very few dry eyes as the tots and large scholars surrounded the grave and dropped flowers, upon some of which there glistened a tear. Carrie much esteemed by all her playmates, was an exceptionally bright pupil and a favorite with all.

Remember that when the Stomach nerves fail or weaken, Dyspepsia or Indigestion must always follow. But, strengthen these same inside nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and then see how quickly health will again return. Weak Heart and Kidney nerves can also be strengthened with the Restorative, where heart pains, palpitation, or Kidney weakness is found. Don't drug the Stomach, or stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is wrong. Go to the cause of these ailments. Strengthen these weak inside nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and get well. A simple, single test will surely tell.

EMMERSON TO RESIGN AND TO BE SUCCEEDED BY ROBINSON.

ST. JOHN, N. B., March 10.—There is a rumor current here that Hon. H. R. Emmerson will be appointed to the railway commission and will at once resign his seat for Westmorland and further that ex-premier Robinson will go out of local politics and contest the county for the federal house.

HOW TO TEST FLOUR.

How to know when food stuffs are "good," is a puzzle that faces the inexperienced housekeeper at every turn From market to butcher, from butcher to grocer, the same perplexity awaits her, but she can escape many mistakes by keeping a pad to jot down things she has proved, and has reason to know will be good.

Good flour should be creamy, not dead white, nor yet have that bluish cast that some flours have. It should not feel damp, sticky or clammy. It should not form into lumps when pressed in the hand; it should have some elasticity, some "life," as the millers express it. When made into dough it will be elastic, easy to knead staying in round, puffy shape with a springiness that is quite noticeable.

Ontario fall wheat flour, with its rich, mellow flavor, provides that beautiful brown crust in well made bread. Manitoba flour provides the gluten. The two combined and blended in just the right proportions, give the good qualities of both, with their faults eliminated.

This Blended Flour stands every test. It has already gained a deservedly popular place in the esteem of good housekeepers, and in fact they declare the Blended Flour is far ahead of any other that can be bought to-day.

The best way to assure yourself of the quality of flour is to buy a little and try it. You will save yourself some trouble, however, if you begin by using Blended Flour, then you won't want to use any other. Blended Flour is certainly best for bread, and best for pastry.

Firemen For Boston Schools

BOSTON, Mass., March 9—An order was passed by the board of aldermen tonight that the fire commissioner and the school committee at the request of the mayor, consider the advisability of having a fireman in uniform stationed during sessions in every school house of the city having an attendance of over 300 children. The order which was prompted by the Collingwood horror was introduced by Alderman Jame M. Curley, who said that one fireman in uniform would be a better guarantee of safety than the best-equipped fire escape apparatus. The order was sent to the mayor.
