

the ear, but musical withal, will seem to move as the vast ocean waters may, perhaps, move in their internal currents. The broken spray that rises from the depths below rises so strongly, so palpably, so rapidly, that the motion in every direction will seem equal. And, as he looks on, strange colours will show themselves through the mist; the shades of gray will become green or blue, with ever and anon a flash of white; and then, when some gust of wind blows in with greater violence, the sea-girt cavern will become all dark and black.

GRAND RAPIDS OF THE NIAGARA.