

The Rev. Moise Ménard, a graduate of '93, reports a good measure of success in his work at Belle Rivière, Que. His congregation is about equally divided between French and English, and although the people are scattered, he continues his faithful service among them. In the last two years, four families have joined his congregation, who left the Church of Rome.

The ladies of Knox Church, Leamington, during an "At Home," held at the Manse, presented their pastor, the Rev. Wm. Patterson, B.A., with a beautiful black silk gown. The accompanying address testified to the sincere interest which Mr. Patterson takes in the spiritual advancement of his people. An orchestra rendered good music during the evening and a most enjoyable time was spent.

We are pleased to hear that a number of our graduates have been kindly remembered by their congregations during the Christmas season. The Rev. J. K. Munro, B.A., of Antigonish, was presented with an address and a good sum of money. The Rev. D. D. Millar of East Gloucester, received a handsome clock from his Bible class. Dr. Bayne of Pembroke, was presented with an address and a Persian lamb coat by his congregation. The Rev. J. A. Morison, B.A., was presented with an address along with silk pulpit robes and cassocks.

The French Presbyterian Mission of Cornwall, of which the Rev. J. E. Charles has charge, recently celebrated the opening of its new building. The Rev. J. L. Morin, B.A., and the Rev. S. J. Taylor, B.A., both of Montreal, conducted the services. As the French people of the community are beginning to think for themselves on religious questions, many of them being influenced by the efforts of Mr. Charles, it is expected that much good work will be accomplished there.
