CHICAGO MARKET.

THE 2; MULLION INCREASE OF VISI-BLE MAKES PRICES SAG - SOME SIGNS OF REACTION - NOVEMBER A BEARISH MONTH FOR WHEAT.

Chicago, Nov. 11

Opening prices of wheat at Liverpool to-day were all a above the closing prices of yesterday, but a later cable announced that wheat and corn were both a lower. The long interests who had the conviction of op-proaching higher prices still believe in them and have not yet ceased to send in heeks for remargins and will ultimately find the market going their way.

At present foreign cash markets are every.

market going their way.

At present foreign cash markets are evey, owing to large American and Argentine shipments nor do these large American shipments have the effect of keeping down the home visibles. These visibles, as seen in our weekly world's account, increased 2, 601,000 bushels for the week, and they are 35,88,000 bushels more than was in sight last year. Such increases do not argue for higher prices, yet they are not so hearish as higher prices, yet they are not so bearish as at first sight they seem. The present stocks of wheat show no most than average figures and are under the big figures of 1893, 1894 and 1895. A narrowing of the December-law spread is observable and is taken as me ning that the near option has been bought for May sales and that at pre-sent prices this will be profitable. Yester-day's afternoon market rallied as 'he Monday's afternoon market rained as he Monday market has now done for the past few weeks, but to-day's proceedings were dull and with sagging prices, an instance of what is often said about November, that it is usually a bear month in the wheat trade.

Wheat openings at Chicago were ? lower, rices hardened a little in the forenoon Corn and oats were about the same as closing prices and inactive.

Pork openings were from 5 to 7 cents

lower

Lard openings were from 2 to 5 cents lower, and Short Ribs, in which there was very little doing, sold from 2 to 5 cents
