

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY SYSTEM

AND ITS CONNECTIONS

Via Chicago, Victoria and Seattle

TO THE

KLONDIKE GOLD FIELDS.

William Ogilvie, F. R. G. S., Surveyor to the Dominion Government, and an eminent authority on the Yukon district, says in referring to the various routes to the Yukon:—

"We now come to the Dyea route, which has been used by the Indians for generations, and it is evident that they knew their business in selecting it."

"It is estimated that 95 per cent. of the traffic that has already gone into the Yukon has done so via Dyea, which is the clearest possible evidence of its superiority over all other existing routes."
