however, was that of Mr. Robert Elliott, who has taken his peat in the furnace room and appears fully to appreciate his surroundings, although he says he much prefers city life and the Winnipeg Branch.

The health of the lads in the Home during the past month has been phenomenally good, our much-esteem ed Medical Officer, who got rather the best of us in November, having been called in but twice since the last appearance of UPS AND DOWNS.

We are always pleased to meet Dr. Wright unofficially, although to the general run of mankind I fear one can justly apply the following verse as relates to their dealings with doctors:

"God and the doctor we adore
When danger threatens, not before.
The danger past, both are alike requited
God is forgotten and the doctor slighted

Young Helpers' League

The tenth annual fete for the benefit of the funds of the Young Helpers' League (in connection with Dr. Bar nardo's Homes) took place on Saturday afternoon in the Royal Albert Hall. Canon Fleming, chairman of the council of the League, who presided, was supported by the Duke and Duchess of Somerset The Bishop of Mackenaic River hasing offered up prayer, an entertainment was provided in the body of the fall which had been turned into ab alCua A representation of Claist mas Day and "bather Christmas" in the Gorern Ward at Her Majens," Hospital Stephey 15 as not given and this car follower () an action song by fittle girls while the choir sang "The Englineing Line Mr. this there were physical exercises by Leopold House boys. Canon Fleming next recited "The Bootblacks," and then came "A Day with our Boys from Reveille to Lights Out -and After." The boys were first seen in bed in the morning; they rose, dressed, washed, made their beds, had their breakfasts, attended school and played. Other meals followed, the boys retired to bed, and the representation concluded with a pitlow fight and the pantominic entrance of a master with a birch, with which he threatened the "sleeping" boys. More action songs scenes and chora music followed, each item on the long programme being introduced by Di Barnardo Weikli Times Fin : 111. 1902
