1831 THE CULTIVATOR 18 AND Country Gentleman

THE BEST OF THE AGRICULTURAL WEEKLY

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is the leading journal of American Agriculture. In amount, practical value of contents, in extent, ability of Correspondence, in quality of and style of publication, it occupies the PRIME RANK. It is believed to have no superior either of the three chief divisions of FARM CROPS AND PROCESSES, HORTICULTURE & FRUIT-GROWING, LIVE STOCK AND DAIRYING, while it also includes all minor departments of rural interest, such as the Poultry Yard, Bee-keeping, Greenhouse and Great Veterinary Replicas, Farm Questions and answers, Fireside Reading, Domestic Recipes, and a summary of the news of the Week. Market Reports are unusually complete, much attention is paid to the Prospects of Crops, as throwing light upon one of the most important of all questions—When to plant, When to sell. It is liberally illustrated, and intended to supply, in a continually increasing degree, and in the best sense of the term, a Live Agricultural Newspaper.

Although the COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is greatly enlarged by increasing its size from 20 pages weekly to the terms continue as heretofore, when paid strictly in advance. One copy, year, $2.50; four copies, $9.00, and an extra copy for the year free to the sender of the ten copies, $9.00, and an additional copy for year free to the sender of the club. All new subscribers for 1884, paying in advance now, will receive the paper weekly, free of charge, until January 1st, 1884, without charge. Specimen Copies free. Address, LUTHER TUCKER & SON, Publishers, ALBANY, N. Y.
