EFUMO DARE LUCEM.

Those who believe with Byron the consoling influence concentrated in Tobacco, especially when, according to his aristocratic taste, it was drawn through genuine Meerschaum, tipped with amber mellow, rich and ripe, should pay particular attention to an advertisement of S. McCOSKEY's in another column. The gouty purse, or the one of lean proportions, can alike be suited. Pipes of every make and fashion, from the superb carved Meerschaum to the Austrian Charcoal and the English Clay. If you are ticklish about your health invest in a Sanitary Pipe, or if combative in your temperament go for a Breech-loader. The variety is large and certain to please. The same may be said of McCOSKEY's stock of Tobaccos, Cigars, &c. He keeps on hand everything suited to the requirements of his really first-class trade, and is now better prepared than ever before for the festive season approaching; his sample room is stocked with genuine brands, and is now the popular resort with lovers of good cheer.—Herald, Dec. 7, 1868.
