FIRE AT NEWMARKET .- A dreadful fire occurred at Newmarket on Tuesday night. We have not been able to obtain particulars, but it is reported that one eighth of the village has been destroyed. It is rumoured that the conflagration was the of incendiarism

The Sons of Temperance from various parts of the Province, assembled in this city yesterday to the number of several thousands, and after marching for about half the day, through the principal streets, accompanied by several bands of music, they adjourned to the College Avenue, where refreshments were provided.

CORONER'S INQUEST. — On Monday, the 26th ult., an Inquest was held in the house of David Shupe, Bentinck, by Thomas Gordon, Esq., on the body of James Westbrook, a colored man, who was drowned in the Big Saugeen on the preceeding day. The deceased, in company with a young Dutchman, was paddling about in a log canoe, with the management of which they were unacquainted, and which they upset in turning in a depth of eight or tea feet of water. The young Dutchman reached the shore, but half an hour had elapsed 'ere Westbrook's body was got up, when the vital spark had fled. Verdict in accordance. On the same day, and nearly at the same hour, Mr. Sorley a Storekeeper on the Durham Road, Bentinck, and his son, made a narrow escape from drowning. They were on a raft on the Big Saugeen, from which, by some mis management, they were precipitated into the Coroner's Inquest. - On Monday, some mis management, they were precipitated into the water, and, but for timely assistance, had shared the same fate of the unfortunate coloured man. So much for Sabbath-day sailing in one locality.—Guelph Herald.

The new steamer "City of Hamilton" has commenced her trips. She is a handsome, commodious vessel, and makes her passage with a speed which must greatly add to the convenience and comfort of parties travelling between Toronto and the head of the Lake

STEAMER COMET.—With pleasure we can state that the Comet is high and dry on Week's Railway, Oswego. She is undergoing temporary repairs so as to permit her being towed to this side. It is not yet determined whether she will be refitted at Portsmouth or Montreal.—Kingston Herald.

TORNADO. - We learn from a friend in Bury that on Monday last a tremendous tornado, or whirlwind, struck the log house of Mr. William Baird, of that township, and hurled the roof some fifty or of that townsamp, and hurled the roof some fifty or sixty feet into the air, taking it up that whole height and then scattering it into fragments. The family, who were in the house at the time, were left without a covering, but escaped unhurt. The roof of the barn was carried off in like manner. A quantity of Indian corn and buckwheat in the chamber of the house, was scattered over the surrounding fields. The tornado was seen approaching from the North West, filling the air with limbs, &c., and appears to have passed above was seen approaching from the North West, filling the air with limbs, &c., and appears to have passed above the ground, just striking the roof of the house and barn, which were on an eminence, and then passed off, whirling the tops of the trees, in a straight line to the South-East without doing any other damage.—Sherbrooke Gazette. brooke Gazette.

A Fire broke out this morning, about two o'clock, in the stables in rear of the double cottage occupied by Messrs. Lyman and Vennor, Bluery Street, by which the whole of the outbuildings were destroyed. The wind being high at the time, the flames soon communicated with the dwelling, but by the exertions of the firemen were speedily got under; not, however, before considerable damage was done. — Montreal which the whole of the outbuildings were destroyed.

ECLIPSES NEXT MONTH .- There will be a total Eclipse of the Sun, visible at Quebec, on the 28th of July, commencing at forty-seven minutes past seven, and ending at forty-six minutes past nine; the greatest shade being at forty-six and a half minutes past eight. On the night of the 12th of the same month, there will be a partial Eclipse of the Moon, from fifteen minutes past one, A.M., to seven minutes past

MEETING OF DELEGATES .- The meeting of delegates from the various municipalities in this county, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the representation of Norfolk, in the next Legislative Assembly, took place pursuant to notice at Fredericksburg, on Saturday last, the 7th instant, and resulted in the unanimous conjustics of the control of th burg, on Saturday last, the 7th instant, and resulted in the unanimous nomination of Lawrence H. Hunt, Esq., Warden of the County. A more unanimous exposition of Conservative feeling, it has seldom been our pleasure to witness. Mr. Hunt is now fairly before the electors of Norfolk, as the Conservative candidate for its representation. We need not say one word in his favour,—he is known and respected by almost every person in this county. His local interests are common with the constituence, and his robitified interests identical visited. constituence, and his political interests identical with justice and right, and we trust he will meet the warm support of every true British heart in Glorious Old Norfolk.—Simcoe Standard.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE, -Yesterday morning, between two and three o'clock, a new storchouse, which was nearly completed, on the line of the Governor's Road, and about four miles from this town, was durined down by the deliberate hands of incendiaries. The storehouse in ques ion was situated opposite Dr. Mullin's residence, who heard a gun fired, and arose to ascertain the cause, when he discovered the store in flames. His stables where close by, and he hurried out to save his horses, and call up a labouring man in his employ, who lived close by. When he gave the his employ, who lived close by. When he gave the alarm, he was astonished that his neighbours did not come to his assistance. He knocked at the door of one house, were his hired man and two or three others where, and asked why they did not come out, whereon they took hold of him and attempted to deag him into the house, and pointed to three men a few yards distant. the house, and pointed to three men a few yards distant, who were loading their guns. By this time the runf of the storehouse had fallen in, and set fire to the fences of Mr. Wm. Kitchen, on whose premises the store was errected. Dr. Mullin called up Mr. Kitchen, fences of Mr. With. Kreuth, or short problems, who was afraid of being short, and succeeded in staying the further progress of the flames. It is distinctly asserted, we are creditably informed, that one man saw three others deliberatly kindle a fire in the upper story. of the building, but so terror-stricken are the neigh-bours that no information seems to have been laid before the magistrates .- Cost what it may there must be a stop put to these horrible proceedings .- Dundas

THE QUEEN'S BLANKETS.—SIR,—I am requested by Mr. Houghton, of the firm of Houghton & May, Montreal, to say he received a few days since a letter from his brother in England, in which he states that the Duchess of Sutherland has purchased your best blankets, for the use of Her Most Gracious Majesty. The Montreal Herald of this week, in copying from the London Herald, has made a mistake in saying they were Gamble's blankets, which, on his return to Montreal, he will have rectified. With a feeling of sincere pleasure at the very flattering reception your goods have received at the Great Exhibition.

I reman yours truly,
