Mercantile Summary.

The New York Produce Exchange has decided to close business on Saturdays at 12 o'clock, noon.

SOME very excellent "blends" are said to result from the mixing and adulteration of molasses, both domestic and foreign, with glucose, etc., as freely practiced in New York.

THE Charleston, S. C., News is of opinion that the recently abolished tax upon commercial travellers, while it helped to fill the city's coffers, never brought a single customer to Charleston, but kept many away.

A MARITIME province exchange points to the manufacture of hard coke as having an important future before it. It is sold readily in many places throughout New Brunswick.

A SHIPMENT of twenty cars of patent process flour for Great Britain was made the other day from the Ogilvie Milling Co.'s mills in Winnipeg. The capacity of the mills is to be increased from 850 to 1,000 barrels daily.

A NEW HAVEN, Conn., grocer, in order to detect the person who was taking the many of his hams, attached a bell to one of them. One night soon after he heard the bell ring, and going out to his meat house found a neighbor with a ham in his hand. Thereupon he told the man's wife that her husband stole hams, and now the pair have sued him for slander, laying the damages at $100.

PHOTOGRAPHERS, like others who cater to the great public, are not exempt from the annoyances of "slow pay" customers. A knight of the camera in Winnipeg has found the following plan to bear good results. He collected a number of photos of his most incorrigible debtors and labelling each one with the name, address and amount owed, placed them in a case and hung them outside his studio. Some of his victims, says the Free Press, threaten lawsuits for being so exhibited, but the amount of "boodle" gathered in has made the photographer happy.
