Mercantile Summary.

AN agency of the Dominion Bank has been opened at Guelph.

THE stock of Stinson Bros., shoe dealers at Peterboro, has been disposed of for 70½ cents on the dollar.

A BRITISH COLUMBIA exchange reports that a fine specimen of anthracite coal has been struck near Kamloops, and that the discovery has created quite an excitement in the inland capital.

THOSE timid firms in the wood trade, says the Journal, who have hitherto held aloof from buying f.o.b. are now beginning to fear the inevitable, and give the advanced prices asked. The season advances without any sign of relaxation.

THE Glasgow exhibition buildings are now virtually completed. The exhibitors will number about 1,400, and are divided into 22 classes, which are so comprehensive as to embrace every branch of manufacture and industrial art practised by the human race.

The sum estimated by the Montreal road department for clearing the streets of snow, which was last year placed at $52,000, is put down for 1888 at $25,000; but street cleaning, which was $30,000, is now $42,600, and street watering is increased from $15,000 to $26,600.

THE Scotch supplement to the Timber Trades Journal refers to the evils resulting to the timber trade from the freeness with which accommodation bills are dealt in. The question of long credit continues to be much talked of, but unfortunately it ends there; each firm seems to be afraid to take a lead. "In a matter like this, where the grievance is felt by all, unanimity might be secured without bringing one firm more prominently forward than another. A three months' account, and six months' bill thereafter, is a period of credit that does not tend to foster a healthy trade."
