Mercantile Summary.

AN agency of the Halifax Banking Company was opened at Bridgewater, N. S., on the 1st inst.

J. B. DAY, a Montreal tailor, who has only been a brief period in business, a year or so, has assigned, owing $2,564.

A BUILDER in Waterville, Que., named O. A.
McCoy, who has also recently engaged in the manufacture of furniture, in which he has evidently overstepped his means, has assigned.

Book debts amounting to about $14,000, belonging to the insolvent estate of the Burn & Robinson M'fg. Co., at Hamilton, are offered for tender by the liquidator, Mr. H. S.
Stephens, of Townshend & Stephens.

L. DENEAU, a Montreal crockery merchant, is seeking an extension spread over eighteen months, on liabilities of about $7,600. He shows a considerable nominal surplus in stock and outstandings.

No arrangement as to a settlement having been arrived at by the creditors of J. A.
McMurtry & Co., dealers in tea in this city, the assignee, Mr. Anderson, of Blackley & Anderson, has been instructed to invite tenders for the purchase of the stock.

THE new puzzle, "Pigs in Clover," is being utilized by a Minneapolis clothing store in a novel way. There is a pen arranged in the show window and in it are four live pigs, which a little negro boy tries to poke about until the puzzle is solved.—Northwest Trade.

We have to note the suspension of Messrs.
J. & H. Taylor, of Montreal, large handlers of railway and machinists' supplies, an event which was altogether unexpected. A statement is being prepared, and a meeting of creditors will likely be called within the next ten days. No definite estimate of liabilities can yet be ventured.
