

might have been drawn together. This letter is another proof of what was long foreseen in Rome and in England, namely, that the Anglicans, headed by Lord Halifax, were willing to take all they could get and give nothing they could hold. But the noble Lord forgets his summer vacation spent in France with the Abbe Portal and the numerous consequences which grew up out of it and brought the Anglican controversy to the fore. I know that when the Viscount visited Rome in 1895 he had letters in his pockets from the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, as well as from half a dozen of the English Bishops. In truthfulness it must be confessed that these letters did not state that their authors doubted their possessions of orders, but in truthfulness also it must be allowed that many of the Anglican parsons had doubts then and expressed them. In view, therefore, of such tactics as are now being adopted, we can only be the more glad that Peter has spoken through the mouth of Leo, and that justice had been done to the historic position which the blessed John Fisher laid down his life to sanction. On the picture in San Silvestro in Capite, mentioned in my last letter are the words, "Johannes Fisherus Anglus, Epus Rossensis. Cardinalis a Paulo III. creatus Tit. S. Vitalis. Qui prius tamen martyr quam cardinalatus purpuram accepit ab Henrico VIII. ad fidei Catholicae et sedis Aplice primatus defensionem octavo anno XPI. MDXXV. aetatis vero 76. primus fere omnium Lutherum et Lutheranorum scriptis suis doctissime confutavit." The crown has been put on his work by the decision in which his heirs have triumphed and received justification, and which is in great part due to the studies performed under the shadow of his image at San Silvestro in Capite.

A TWO-FOLD PRAYER.

The Rev. Dr. Kane, of Belfast, Ireland, received a letter recently from Mr. Gladstone, in which he says: "As life ebbs away I hope I become inclined to a milder and more hopeful view of any differences that prevail among us, and concurrence in the greater and for greater matters of which you have given me so satisfactory a proof. It has further the advantage of inspiring a lively hope that at home too, we may discover a method of agreement. Let us now join in saying, God save Armenia, yet not at the proper time forget, God Save Ireland."

"GO ON."

Archbishop Jordan, in a recent lecture delivered in the city of San Francisco, alluding to the famous controversy and war waged against the intellectual athlete, Father Yorke of that city, against the public cullinators of the church said: "Some time ago I met a prominent member of our church who loves peace, who hates war, who does not wish to be disturbed. He said to me: 'Can you not call off Father Yorke?' and I said to him that I could; that I thought one word from me he would listen to, and one command I am sure he would obey; but it would be very embarrassing. And he said, 'Why?' And I answered, 'Because I told him to go on.'"

THE HIND RACE.

knows where. The people's party must soon have funds. If they make the appeal it should not lightly be denied. DEAN HARRIS. Dean Harris, St. Catharines, said the strongest evidence of the success of the convention, was the policy of calumny and detraction pursued by those to whom its success means ruin. He wished to point out that to deny aid to the majority party until all breaches had been healed, would be simply playing into the hands of the enemies of Ireland; her friends are poor her enemies rich. A musical programme was rendered at intervals during the evening. The uniformed corps of the R. C. U. Knight of St. John, under command of Mr. John Heffering, formed a guard of honor to the Archbishop. Archbishop Walsh related an experience of the late Archbishop Lynch when the latter was visiting the Indians of Christian Island, Georgian Bay. He was accompanied by the late Father Proulx, who spoke in the Indian tongue with facility. There was a word for Bishop but none for Archbishop, and Father Proulx got over the difficulty by saying that an Archbishop was equal to two bishops rolled into one. Rev. Dr. Flannery, of St. Thomas, one of the delegates, was unavoidably absent owing to a sudden call to a remote district of his parish.

A GENERAL'S STORY.

HE RELATES THE NARROW ESCAPE OF HIS DAUGHTER.

Weakened and Ran Down by the Oppressive Climate of India She Returned to England - When Her Father Followed He Found Her in a Serious Condition.

From the Hampshire Independent. There is nothing more interesting than the talk of our brave defenders, who have served their Queen and country in far distant lands. To talk with an Indian officer, hearing his reminiscences and adventures, is what those who have enjoyed it always appreciate. Consequently (writes a special reporter of the Hampshire Independent) I was delighted to receive instructions to interview Lieutenant-General Shaw, who has won his spurs in India, and is now living with his family, in honorable retirement, at St. Paul's Vicarage, Shanklin, Isle of Wight. I had grasped the bell-pull and given it one tug when the door opened, and the general stood before me. You knew he was a soldier at once. His manly, upright bearing, his smile, his pleasing voice—all told you that you stood in the presence of one of Nature's gentlemen; but, alas! he held a time-table, and I felt that the interview must needs be short. However, he ushered me in and at once put me at my ease by his affable conversation. "I am afraid," he said, "that you have come a long distance; but let me know the precise object of your visit."

I explained to the general that I was most anxious, with his consent, to obtain some personal explanation as to the narrow escape I had heard one of his daughters had recently experienced.

At that he brightened visibly. "You must know," he said, "I'm just a bit of an enthusiast on this point; but the tale is very short. My daughter came here from India, and when I joined her in London I found her ill in bed. She had rheumatic and neuralgic pains; she was perfectly bloodless, listless, and in a generally weak and prostrate condition. A doctor was seen, but she remained absolutely colorless, was in great wretchedness and suffering from anaemia or bloodlessness. She had a kind of fever nervous headache and other pains. Well, I heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. My daughter took some, and the first box had a marvellous effect. She regained her color, lost her pains, and became altogether different. She had quite a glow upon her. She went on taking the pills, and I am glad to tell you that she recovered completely. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all with whom I came in contact, and all who take them derive great benefit therefrom."

"I have a sister at Jersey, and she has taken them for a very long time, and she always recommends them to other people, and found them to do a great deal of good to all to whom she has recommended them; and I, myself, when I have heard of people being ill, have taken them or sent them some of these pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills directly enrich and purify the blood, and that it is that they are so famous for the cure of anaemia, rheumatism, scrofula, chronic erysipias, and restore pale and sallow complexions to the glow of health. They are also a splendid nerve and spinal tonic, and have cured many cases of paralysis, locomotor ataxia, neuralgia, St. Vitus' dance, and nervous headache. A specific all troubles of the female and in men cure all cases arising from worry, overwork, or indiscretions of living.
