

9. Any designated airline of one Contracting Party shall have the right to match any publicly available lawful price on scheduled services between the territory of the other Contracting Party and any third country. The Aeronautical Authorities of the other Contracting Party may require the designated airline proposing the price to provide satisfactory evidence of the availability of the price being matched and of the consistency of matching with the requirements of this Article. A price introduced for matching purposes shall remain in effect only for the period of availability of the price being matched.

10. The Aeronautical Authorities of either Contracting Party may request discussions on prices at any time. Such discussions, which may be conducted orally or in writing, shall be held within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the request, unless otherwise agreed between the Aeronautical Authorities. The Aeronautical Authorities shall cooperate in securing information necessary for consideration of a price. If agreement is reached as a result of discussions, the Aeronautical Authorities of the Contracting Parties shall put that agreement into effect.

11. Each Contracting Party may require the designated airlines to file their respective general terms and conditions of carriage with the Aeronautical Authorities at least thirty (30) days before the proposed effective date or such lesser period as may be permitted by the Aeronautical Authorities. Acceptance or approval of such terms and conditions shall be subject to national laws and regulations. The Aeronautical Authorities of either Contracting Party may at any time withdraw such acceptance or approval upon not less than fifteen (15) days notice to the designated airlines concerned and the terms or conditions shall cease to have any force or effect thereafter.

ARTICLE XIV

Sales and Transfer of Funds

1. Each designated airline shall have the right to engage in the sale of air transportation in the territory of the other Contracting Party directly and, at its discretion through its agents. Each designated airline shall have the right to sell transportation in the currency of that territory or, at its discretion, subject to national laws and regulations, in freely convertible currencies of the other countries, and any person shall be free to purchase such transportation in currencies accepted for sale by that airline.
