

Article 22: Protection of Information

This Agreement shall not be construed to require a Party to release information that would be otherwise prohibited or exempt from disclosure under its domestic laws and regulations, including those concerning access to information and the protection of privacy.

Article 23: Relation to Other Environmental Agreements

This Agreement shall not be construed to affect the existing rights and obligations of the Parties under other multilateral environmental agreements to which they are party.