

The Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Honourable Mitchell Sharp, today tabled in the House of Commons a series of papers on Foreign Policy for Canadians.

These papers present to the House the results of a special review of foreign policy announced by the Prime Minister in May 1968.

The Government's approach to foreign policy is explained in the General Paper. Five sector papers - Europe, Latin America, the Pacific, the United Nations and International Development - deal in more detail with Canadian policy in these fields.

A brief note on the content and organization of the papers is attached.
