

Bennett, Right Hon. R. B.—Con.Address in reply—Con.

ducts; bonus to wheat-growers; empire trade does not in any sense exclude world trade; memorandum of Sir Wilfrid Laurier on British preference in 1902, 56; consistent attitude of Conservative government with respect to empire preference; Mr. Mackenzie King's speech at Winnipeg; arousing sentiments of anti-imperialism; no preference without mutual advantage; departure of Great Britain from her former fiscal principles, 57; the wheat quota; problem of the St. Lawrence waterway; submission to parliament of treaties for discussion only after signing; completion of the Welland canal and of the twenty-seven foot waterway to Albany; the disarmament conference, 58; basis of disarmament must be the removal of conscription laws in the countries to be disarmed; personnel of the Canadian delegation and choice of Sir George Perley; maintenance of economy in our public administration; announcement of proposal to ask parliament to pass a statute to reduce by ten per cent the indemnities alike of the Senate and Commons and compensation paid to ministers and every branch of the public service; meeting our contractual obligations in the money market of New York; saving of between $7,500,000 and $8,000,000 to be effected by ten per cent salary deduction; recommendation of railways and shipping committee in 1931 to appoint transportation commission, 59; speech in Toronto before Canadian Manufacturers Association; personnel of transportation commission and secrecy of meetings; railway problem the result of Liberal administration creating two transcontinental systems, 60; balancing the budget; the government does not desire in any way to lessen discussion in parliament; distinction to be drawn between domestic and world conditions, 61

M. for engrossing and transmission to His Excellency, 79

Suggested procedure on debate, 63

Administration of justice, Yukon, 1652

Agricultural conditions, amdt. (Miss Macphail), 3378

Bennett, Right Hon. R. B.—Con.

Agricultural implements, repairs, duty on, 560

Ailsa Craig, Ont., post office, 2316

Aliens, jurisdiction over, 2665

Amelioration of sick and wounded in armies, international convention, M., 357, 716

Announcement of ten per cent deduction from salaries and indemnities, 59.
For further reference See under this title, Public service

Arms and ammunition, international convention, M. for approval, 2537, 2713

Artillery stores, permanent force, 3034

Bank Act Amdt. bill, 535

Bank circulation redemption fund, 2438

Banking and commerce com., 555

Fourth report, 3246

Banking, currency and credit, M. (Mr. Coote), 645, 1705

Banking, federal jurisdiction, 2449

Beauharnois power project, 666, 1931, 2001, 2113

Government guarantees to banks, 666, 1017, 1340, 1427, 1526, 1608, 1660, 2194

King, Mackenzie, speech at London, Ont., reference to, 141, 225-6

Privilege, 227

M. for printing papers, 2114

Senate committee evidence and proceedings before, 974

Distribution, 1017

Request for Commons evidence, 179

Statement on position of undertaking and policy of government, 2103

Binder twine, sales, 612

Blank cheque legislation, 1404-5. See also under this title Unemployment and Farm Relief bills

Boards of Trade Act Amdt. bill, 154

British American Oil Company, letter of February 6, 1932, from, on gasoline situation, 129

British Columbia unemployment relief, 1573, 1582

M. (Mr. Reid), 167

British government trade returns "two million pounds" instead of "two billion," 647, 1705

British potato embargo, 179

Brown, Sapper Harry, pension, M. for papers, 1294

Buckley, the late John Francis, M.P., 4