

organized at Halifax. I have taken steps to ensure a full and fair presentation of the case of Canada. I trust the negotiations may realize all our expectations.

I have now only to give expression to my earnest hope that on your return to your several homes you may meet with evidence of growing prosperity, and that before you are again called upon to meet together in your representative capacity the passing cloud on our Trade and Commerce will have disappeared.