

PRAYERS.

The Honourable Senator Hugessen for the Honourable Senator Euler, P.C., Acting Chairman, from the Standing Committee on Banking and Commerce, to whom was referred the Bill (418), intituled: "An Act to amend the Income Tax Act", reported that they had examined the said Bill and had directed him to report the same to the Senate with one amendment, which he was ready to submit whenever the Senate would be pleased to receive it.

The said amendment was then read by the Clerk, as follows:

Page 1, lines 6 and 7: Strike out the words "of any kind whatsoever".

Ordered, That the said amendment be taken into consideration later this day.

Later this day:

Pursuant to the Order of the Day, the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the amendment made by the Standing Committee on Banking and Commerce to the Bill (418), intituled: "An Act to amend the Income Tax Act".

The Honourable Senator Hugessen moved, seconded by the Honourable Senator Power, P.C., that the said amendment be concurred in.

In amendment, the Honourable Senator Macdonald, P.C., moved, seconded by the Honourable Senator Godbout, that the said amendment be not now concurred in, but that it be referred to a Committee of the Whole presently.

The question being put on the motion in amendment, it was—
Resolved in the affirmative.

The Senate was, accordingly, adjourned during pleasure and put into a Committee of the Whole on the consideration of the said amendment.

(In the Committee)

The Honourable Senator Golding, Chairman.

The amendment was read.

After debate, and—

The question of concurrence being put thereon,

The Committee divided as follows:

Contents, 10:

Non-Contents, 16:

So it was resolved in the negative.

After some time, the Senate resumed, and—

The Honourable Senator Golding, from the said Committee, reported that they had taken the said amendment into consideration and had directed him to report the said Bill without amendment.

The said Report was adopted.

The Honourable Senator Macdonald, P.C., moved, seconded by the Honourable Senator Godbout, that the said Bill be now read the third time.

The question being put on the said motion, it was—
Resolved in the affirmative.

The said Bill was then read the third time.
