

good defence to the charges made by the petition, and that she has not sufficient money to defend herself, the Committee may make an order that her husband shall provide her with the necessary means to sustain her defence, including the cost of retaining Counsel and the travelling and living expenses of herself and of witnesses summoned to Ottawa on her behalf. B. 633, sq.

140. No petition for a Bill of divorce shall be considered by the Committee unless the applicant has paid into the hands of the Clerk of the Senate the sum of two hundred dollars, towards expenses which may be incurred during the proceedings upon the petition and the Bill, and also the sum of ten dollars to pay for translating and printing 600 copies of the Bill in English and 200 copies in French. The translation shall be made by the translators of the Senate, and the said sums shall be subject to the order of the Senate. B. 634.

141. The petition when presented to the Senate shall be accompanied by the evidence of the publication of the notice as required

Deposit
of fees.

Petition,
etc., referred
to Committee.