

February 3, 1931.

REPORT TO THE DEAN OF THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

Dear Mr. Dean:

The Mathematical Department has previously called to the attention of the proper authorities the extreme importance of the foundation of Fellowships in Mathematics. The foundation of at least one such Fellowship at the earliest possible moment seems imperative to the development of interest in higher study in mathematics.

Neil B. Maclean
U. J. Sullivan