Your Assistance Is Appreciated

To all those who have kindly contributed their favourite recipes, and the advertisers who have so generously helped to make this venture possible, the Kingsmill-Mapleton Institute extend their hearty thanks. We hope to patronize those who have so willingly assisted us, and trust that our book will prove a helping hand to many house-wives and homemakers, and incidentally a means of revenue to our Institute that they may go forward carrying a torch of service for home and country.