CANADIAN RATES OF POSTAGE.

Letters — Drop, or local (and Newspapers and Periodicals for delivery by carriers), 1 cent each; to any part of Dominion or United States, 3 cents per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz.; to Newfoundland and Great Britain, 5 cents per $\frac{1}{2}$ oz.

Post Cards — Dominion or United States, 1 cent each; to Newfoundland, Great Britain and Postal Union Countries, 2 cents.

Newspapers and Periodicals printed in Canada, not less frequently than once a month, mailed from office of publication, or a News Agency to subscribers or News Agents in Canada, not residing in place of publication are free; also, those published in the United Kingdom, and sent by mail to booksellers or News Agents in Canada, may be remailed by them to subscribers, free of postage.

Transient Newspapers and Periodicals can be sent to any part of Canada, Newfoundland or United States at 1 cent per 4 ozs.

Books, patterns, samples, legal and commercial papers, etc., can be sent by mail to all parts of the world, at low rates, and registered. Anything liable to Customs duties can be sent by mail to the United States only.

Money, or articles of value, should be registered. A Post-office order is safer than registration for money.

Explosive substances, glass or liquids, cannot be sent by mail.

Mails close about an hour before the departure of the trains or steamers on which they are carried.
